CONSTITUTION OF THE REPUBLIC OF TÜRKİYE¹

PREAMBLE

(As amended on July 23, 1995; Act No. 4121)

Affirming the eternal existence of the Turkish Motherland and Nation and the indivisible unity of the Sublime Turkish State, this Constitution, in line with the concept of nationalism introduced by the founder of the Republic of Türkiye, Atatürk, the immortal leader and the unrivalled hero, and his reforms and principles;

Determining to attain the everlasting existence, prosperity, material and spiritual well-being of the Republic of Türkiye, and the standards of contemporary civilization as an honourable member with equal rights of the family of world nations;

The absolute supremacy of the will of the nation, the fact that sovereignty is vested fully and unconditionally in the Turkish Nation and that no individual or body empowered to exercise this sovereignty in the name of the nation shall deviate from the liberal democracy indicated in the Constitution and the legal system instituted according to its requirements,

¹ The Constitution was adopted by the Constituent Assembly on October 18, 1982 to be submitted to referendum and published in the Official Gazette dated October 20, 1982 and numbered 17844; republished in the repeating Official Gazette dated November 9, 1982 and numbered 17863 in the aftermath of its submission to referendum on November 7, 1982 (Act No. 2709).

The separation of powers, which does not imply an order of precedence among the organs of the State, but refers solely to the exercising of certain state powers and discharging of duties, and is limited to a civilized cooperation and division of functions; and the fact that only the Constitution and the laws have the supremacy;

(As amended on October 3, 2001; Act No. 4709) That no protection shall be accorded to an activity contrary to Turkish national interests, Turkish existence and the principle of its indivisibility with its State and territory, historical and moral values of Turkishness; the nationalism, principles, reforms and civilizationism of Atatürk and that sacred religious feelings shall absolutely not be involved in state affairs and politics as required by the principle of secularism;

That every Turkish citizen has an innate right and power, to lead an honourable life and to improve his/her material and spiritual wellbeing under the aegis of national culture, civilization, and the rule of law, through the exercise of the fundamental rights and freedoms set forth in this Constitution, in conformity with the requirements of equality and social justice;

That all Turkish citizens are united in national honour and pride, in national joy and grief, in their rights and duties regarding national existence, in blessings and in burdens, and in every manifestation of national life, and that they have the right to demand a peaceful life based on absolute respect for one another's rights and freedoms, mutual love and fellowship, and the desire for and belief in "Peace at home; peace in the world";

With these IDEAS, BELIEFS, and RESOLUTIONS to be interpreted and implemented accordingly, thus commanding respect for, and absolute loyalty to, its letter and spirit;

Has been entrusted by the TURKISH NATION to the democracy-loving Turkish sons' and daughters' love for the motherland and nation.

PART ONE

General Principles

I. Form of the State

ARTICLE 1- The State of Türkiye is a Republic.

II. Characteristics of the Republic

ARTICLE 2- The Republic of Türkiye is a democratic, secular and social state governed by rule of law, within the notions of public peace, national solidarity and justice, respecting human rights, loyal to the nationalism of Atatürk, and based on the fundamental tenets set forth in the preamble.

III. Integrity, official language, flag, national anthem, and capital of the State

ARTICLE 3- The State of Türkiye, with its territory and nation, is an indivisible entity. Its language is Turkish.

Its flag, the form of which is prescribed by the relevant law, is composed of a white crescent and star on a red background.

Its national anthem is the “Independence March”.

Its capital is Ankara.

IV. Irrevocable provisions

ARTICLE 4- The provision of Article 1 regarding the form of the State being a Republic, the characteristics of the Republic in Article 2, and the provisions of Article 3 shall not be amended, nor shall their amendment be proposed.

V. Fundamental aims and duties of the State

ARTICLE 5- The fundamental aims and duties of the State are to safeguard the independence and integrity of the Turkish Nation, the indivisibility of the country, the Republic and democracy, to ensure the welfare, peace, and happiness of the individual and society; to strive for the removal of political, economic, and social obstacles which restrict the fundamental rights and freedoms of the individual in a manner incompatible with the principles of justice and of the social state governed by rule of law; and to provide the conditions required for the development of the individual's material and spiritual existence.

VI. Sovereignty

ARTICLE 6- Sovereignty belongs to the Nation without any restriction or condition.

The Turkish Nation shall exercise its sovereignty through the authorized organs, as prescribed by the principles set forth in the Constitution.

The exercise of sovereignty shall not be delegated by any means to any individual, group or class. No person or organ shall exercise any state authority that does not emanate from the Constitution.

VII. Legislative power

ARTICLE 7- Legislative power is vested in the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye on behalf of Turkish Nation. This power shall not be delegated.

VIII. Executive power and function

ARTICLE 8- (As amended on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771) Executive power and function shall be exercised and carried out by the President of the Republic in conformity with the Constitution and laws.

IX. Judicial power

ARTICLE 9- (As amended on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771) Judicial power shall be exercised by independent and impartial courts on behalf of the Turkish Nation.

X. Equality before the law

ARTICLE 10- Everyone is equal before the law without distinction as to language, race, colour, sex, political opinion, philosophical belief, religion and sect, or any such grounds.

(Paragraph added on May 7, 2004; Act No. 5170) Men and women have equal rights. The State has the obligation to ensure that this equality exists in practice. (Sentence added on September 12, 2010; Act No. 5982) Measures taken for this purpose shall not be interpreted as contrary to the principle of equality.

(Paragraph added on September 12, 2010; Act No. 5982) Measures to be taken for children, the elderly, disabled people, widows and orphans of martyrs as well as for the invalid and veterans shall not be considered as violation of the principle of equality.

No privilege shall be granted to any individual, family, group or class.

State organs and administrative authorities are obliged to act in compliance with the principle of equality before the law in all their proceedings.²

XI. Supremacy and binding force of the Constitution

ARTICLE 11- The provisions of the Constitution are fundamental legal rules binding upon legislative, executive and judicial organs, and administrative authorities and other institutions and individuals.

Laws shall not be contrary to the Constitution.

PART TWO

Fundamental Rights and Duties

CHAPTER ONE

General Provisions

I. Nature of fundamental rights and freedoms

ARTICLE 12- Everyone possesses inherent fundamental rights and freedoms, which are inviolable and inalienable.

The fundamental rights and freedoms also comprise the duties and responsibilities of the individual to the society, his/her family, and other individuals.

² The phrase “and in benefiting from all kinds of public services” was added after the phrase “in all their proceedings” by the first Article of Act No. 5735 dated February 9, 2008 and annulled by the decision of the Constitutional Court dated June 5, 2008 numbered E. 2008/16, K. 2008/116 (Official Gazette numbered 27032 of October 22, 2008).

II. Restriction of fundamental rights and freedoms

ARTICLE 13- (As amended on October 3, 2001; Act No. 4709)

Fundamental rights and freedoms may be restricted only by law and in conformity with the reasons mentioned in the relevant articles of the Constitution without infringing upon their essence. These restrictions shall not be contrary to the letter and spirit of the Constitution and the requirements of the democratic order of the society and the secular republic and the principle of proportionality.

III. Prohibition of abuse of fundamental rights and freedoms

ARTICLE 14- (As amended on October 3, 2001; Act No. 4709)

None of the rights and freedoms embodied in the Constitution shall be exercised in the form of activities aiming to violate the indivisible integrity of the State with its territory and nation, and to endanger the existence of the democratic and secular order of the Republic based on human rights.

No provision of this Constitution shall be interpreted in a manner that enables the State or individuals to destroy the fundamental rights and freedoms recognized by the Constitution or to stage an activity with the aim of restricting them more extensively than stated in the Constitution.

The sanctions to be applied against those who perpetrate activities contrary to these provisions shall be determined by law.

IV. Suspension of the exercise of fundamental rights and freedoms

ARTICLE 15- (As amended on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771) In times of war, mobilization, a state of emergency, the exercise of fundamental rights and freedoms may be partially or entirely suspended, or measures derogating the guarantees embodied in the Constitution may be taken to the extent required by the exigencies of the situation, as long as obligations under international law are not violated.

(As amended on May 7, 2004; Act No. 5170) Even under the circumstances indicated in the first paragraph, the individual's right to life, the integrity of his/her corporeal and spiritual existence shall be inviolable except where death occurs through acts in conformity with law of war; no one shall be compelled to reveal his/her religion, conscience, thought or opinion, nor be accused on account of them; offences and penalties shall not be made retroactive; nor shall anyone be held guilty until so proven by a court ruling.

V. Status of aliens

ARTICLE 16- The fundamental rights and freedoms in respect to aliens may be restricted by law compatible with international law.

CHAPTER TWO

Rights and Duties of the Individual

I. Personal inviolability, corporeal and spiritual existence of the individual

ARTICLE 17- Everyone has the right to life and the right to protect and improve his/her corporeal and spiritual existence.

The corporeal integrity of the individual shall not be violated except under medical necessity and in cases prescribed by law; and shall not be subjected to scientific or medical experiments without his/her consent.

No one shall be subjected to torture or mal-treatment; no one shall be subjected to penalties or treatment incompatible with human dignity.

(As amended on May 7, 2004; Act No. 5170, April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771) The act of killing in case of self-defence and, when permitted by law as a compelling measure to use a weapon, during the execution of warrants of capture and arrest, the prevention of the escape of lawfully arrested or convicted persons, the quelling of riot or insurrection, or carrying out the orders of authorized bodies during state of emergency, do not fall within the scope of the provision of the first paragraph.

II. Prohibition of forced labour

ARTICLE 18- No one shall be forced to work. Forced labour is prohibited.

Work required of an individual while serving a sentence or under detention provided that the form and conditions of such labour are prescribed by law; services required from citizens during a state of emergency; and physical or intellectual work necessitated by the needs of the country as a civic obligation shall not be considered as forced labour.

III. Personal liberty and security

ARTICLE 19- Everyone has the right to personal liberty and security.

No one shall be deprived of his/her liberty except in the following cases where procedure and conditions are prescribed by law:

Execution of sentences restricting liberty and the implementation of security measures decided by courts; arrest or detention of an individual in line with a court ruling or an obligation upon him designated by law; execution of an order for the purpose of the educational supervision of a minor, or for bringing him/her before the competent authority; execution of measures taken in conformity with the relevant provisions of law for the treatment, education or rehabilitation of a person of unsound mind, an alcoholic, drug addict, vagrant, or a person spreading contagious diseases to be carried out in institutions when such persons constitute a danger to the public; arrest or detention of a person who enters or attempts to enter illegally into the country or for whom a deportation or extradition order has been issued.

Individuals against whom there is strong evidence of having committed an offence may be arrested by decision of a judge solely for the purposes of preventing escape, or preventing the destruction or alteration of evidence, as well as in other circumstances prescribed by law and necessitating detention. Arrest of a person without a decision by a judge may be executed only when a person is caught in flagrante delicto or in cases where delay is likely to thwart the course of justice; the conditions for such acts shall be defined by law.

Individuals arrested or detained shall be promptly notified, in all cases in writing, or orally when the former is not possible, of the grounds for their arrest or detention and the charges against them; in cases of offences committed collectively this notification shall be made, at the latest, before the individual is brought before a judge.

(As amended on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771) The person arrested or detained shall be brought before a judge within at latest forty-eight hours and in case of offences committed collectively within at most four days, excluding the time required to send the individual to the court nearest to the place of arrest. No one can be deprived of his/her liberty without the decision of a judge after the expiry of the 9 above specified periods. These periods may be extended during a state of emergency or in time of war.

(As amended on October 3, 2001; Act No. 4709) The next of kin shall be notified immediately when a person has been arrested or detained.

Persons under detention shall have the right to request trial within a reasonable time and to be released during investigation or prosecution. Release may be conditioned by a guarantee as to ensure the presence of the person at the trial proceedings or the execution of the court sentence.

Persons whose liberties are restricted for any reason are entitled to apply to the competent judicial authority for speedy conclusion of proceedings regarding their situation and for their immediate release if the restriction imposed upon them is not lawful.

(As amended on October 3, 2001; Act No. 4709) Damage suffered by persons subjected to treatment other than these provisions shall be compensated by the State in accordance with the general principles of the compensation law.

IV. Privacy and protection of private life

A. Privacy of private life

ARTICLE 20- Everyone has the right to demand respect for his/her private and family life. Privacy of private or family life shall not be violated. (Sentence repealed on May 3, 2001; Act No. 4709)

(As amended on October 3, 2001; Act No. 4709) Unless there exists a decision duly given by a judge on one or several of the grounds of national security, public order, prevention of crime, protection of public health and public morals, or protection of the rights and freedoms of others, or unless there exists a written order of an agency authorized by law, in cases where delay is prejudicial, again on the above-mentioned grounds, neither the person, nor the private papers, nor belongings of an individual shall be searched nor shall they be seized. The decision of the competent authority shall be submitted for the approval of the judge having jurisdiction within twenty-four hours. The judge shall announce his decision within forty-eight hours from the time of seizure; otherwise, seizure shall automatically be lifted.

(Paragraph added on September 12, 2010; Act No. 5982) Everyone has the right to request the protection of his/her personal data. This right includes being informed of, having access to and requesting the correction and deletion of his/her personal data, and to be informed whether these are used in consistency with envisaged objectives. Personal data can be processed only in cases envisaged by law or by the person's explicit consent. The principles and procedures regarding the protection of personal data shall be laid down in law.

B. Inviolability of the domicile

ARTICLE 21- (As amended on October 3, 2001; Act No. 4709)

The domicile of an individual shall not be violated. Unless there exists a decision duly given by a judge on one or several of the grounds of national security, public order, prevention of crime, protection of public health and public morals, or protection of the rights and freedoms of others, or unless there exists a written order of an agency authorized by law in cases where delay is prejudicial, again on these grounds, no domicile may be entered or searched or the property seized therein. The decision of the competent authority shall be submitted for the approval of the judge having jurisdiction within twenty-four hours. The judge shall announce his decision within forty-eight hours from the time of seizure; otherwise, seizure shall be automatically lifted.

C. Freedom of communication

ARTICLE 22- (As amended on October 3, 2001; Act No. 4709)

Everyone has the freedom of communication. Privacy of communication is fundamental.

Unless there exists a decision duly given by a judge on one or several of the grounds of national security, public order, prevention of crime, protection of public health and public morals, or protection of the rights and freedoms of others, or unless there exists a written order of an agency authorized by law in cases where delay is prejudicial, again on the above-mentioned grounds, communication shall not be impeded nor its privacy be violated. The decision of the competent authority shall be submitted for the approval of the judge having jurisdiction within twenty-four hours. The judge shall announce his decision within forty-eight hours from the time of seizure; otherwise, seizure shall be automatically lifted.

Public institutions and agencies where exceptions may be applied are prescribed in law.

V. Freedom of residence and movement

ARTICLE 23- Everyone has the freedom of residence and movement.

Freedom of residence may be restricted by law for the purpose of preventing crimes, promoting social and economic development, achieving sound and orderly urbanization, and protecting public property.

Freedom of movement may be restricted by law for the purpose of investigation and prosecution of an offence, and prevention of crimes.

(As amended on October 3, 2001; Act No. 4709, and as amended on September 12, 2010; Act No. 5982) A citizen's freedom to leave the country may be restricted only by the decision of a judge based on a criminal investigation or prosecution.

Citizens shall not be deported, or deprived of their right of entry into the homeland.

VI. Freedom of religion and conscience

ARTICLE 24- Everyone has the freedom of conscience, religious belief and conviction.

Acts of worship, religious rites and ceremonies shall be conducted freely, as long as they do not violate the provisions of Article 14.

No one shall be compelled to worship, or to participate in religious rites and ceremonies, or to reveal religious beliefs and convictions, or be blamed or accused because of his religious beliefs and convictions.

Religious and moral education and instruction shall be conducted under state supervision and control. Instruction in religious culture and morals shall be one of the compulsory lessons in the curricula of primary and secondary schools. Other religious education and instruction shall be subject to the individual's own desire, and in the case of minors, to the request of their legal representatives.

No one shall be allowed to exploit or abuse religion or religious feelings, or things held sacred by religion, in any manner whatsoever, for the purpose of personal or political interest or influence, or for even partially basing the fundamental, social, economic, political, and legal order of the State on religious tenets.

VII. Freedom of thought and opinion

ARTICLE 25- Everyone has the freedom of thought and opinion.

No one shall be compelled to reveal his/her thoughts and opinions for any reason or purpose; nor shall anyone be blamed or accused because of his/her thoughts and opinions.

VIII. Freedom of expression and dissemination of thought

ARTICLE 26- Everyone has the right to express and disseminate his/her thoughts and opinions by speech, in writing or in pictures or through other media, individually or collectively. This freedom includes the liberty of receiving or imparting information or ideas without interference by official authorities. This provision shall not preclude subjecting transmission by radio, television, cinema, or similar means to a system of licensing.

(As amended on October 3, 2001; Act No. 4709) The exercise of these freedoms may be restricted for the purposes of national security, public order, public safety, safeguarding the basic characteristics of the Republic and the indivisible integrity of the State with its territory and nation, preventing crime, punishing offenders, withholding information duly classified as a state secret, protecting the reputation or rights and private and family life of others, or protecting professional secrets as prescribed by law, or ensuring the proper functioning of the judiciary.

(Repealed on October 3, 2001; Act No. 4709)

Regulatory provisions concerning the use of means to disseminate information and thoughts shall not be deemed as the restriction of freedom of expression and dissemination of thoughts as long as the transmission of information and thoughts is not prevented.

(Paragraph added on October 3, 2001; Act No. 4709) The formalities, conditions and procedures to be applied in exercising the freedom of expression and dissemination of thought shall be prescribed by law.

IX. Freedom of science and the arts

ARTICLE 27- Everyone has the right to study and teach, express, and disseminate science and the arts, and to carry out research in these fields freely.

The right to disseminate shall not be exercised for the purpose of changing the provisions of articles 1, 2 and 3 of the Constitution.

The provision of this article shall not preclude regulation by law of the entry and distribution of foreign publications in the country.

X. Provisions relating to the press and publication

A. Freedom of the press

ARTICLE 28- The press is free, and shall not be censored. The establishment of a printing house shall not be subject to prior permission or the deposit of a financial guarantee.

(Repealed on October 3, 2001; Act No. 4709)

The State shall take the necessary measures to ensure freedom of the press and information.

In the limitation of freedom of the press, the provisions of articles 26 and 27 of the Constitution shall apply.

Anyone who writes any news or articles which threaten the internal or external security of the State or the indivisible integrity of the State with its territory and nation, which tend to incite offence, riot or insurrection, or which refer to classified state secrets or has them printed, and anyone who prints or transmits such news or articles to others for the purposes above, shall be held responsible under the law relevant to these offences.

Distribution may be prevented as a precautionary measure by the decision of a judge, or in case delay is deemed prejudicial, by the competent authority explicitly designated by law. The authority preventing the distribution shall notify a competent judge of its decision within twenty-four hours at the latest. The order preventing distribution shall become null and void unless upheld by a competent judge within forty-eight hours at the latest.

No ban shall be placed on the reporting of events, except by the decision of judge issued within the limits specified by law, to ensure proper functioning of the judiciary.

Periodical and non-periodical publications may be seized by a decision of a judge in cases of ongoing investigation or prosecution of crimes specified by law; or by order of the competent authority explicitly designated by law, in situations where delay may constitute a prejudice with respect to the protection of the indivisible integrity of the State with its territory and nation, national security, public order or public morals and for the prevention of crime. The competent authority issuing the order to seize shall notify a competent judge of its decision within twenty-four hours at the latest; the order to seize shall become null and void unless upheld by a judge within forty-eight hours at the latest.

General provisions shall apply when seizing and confiscating periodicals and non-periodicals for reasons of criminal investigation and prosecution.

Periodicals published in Türkiye may be temporarily suspended by court ruling if found to contain material which contravenes the indivisible integrity of the State with its territory and nation, the fundamental principles of the Republic, national security and public morals. Any publication which clearly bears the characteristics of being a continuation of a suspended periodical is prohibited; and shall be seized by decision of a judge.

B. Right to publish periodicals and non-periodicals

ARTICLE 29- Publication of periodicals or non-periodicals shall not be subject to prior authorization or the deposit of a financial guarantee.

Submission of the information and documents specified by law to the competent authority designated by law is sufficient to publish a periodical. If these information and documents are found to contravene the laws, the competent authority shall apply to the court for suspension of publication.

The principles regarding the publication, the conditions of publication and the financial resources of periodicals, and the profession of journalism shall be regulated by law. The law shall not impose any political, economic, financial, and technical conditions obstructing or making difficult the free dissemination of news, thoughts, or opinions.

Periodicals shall have equal access to the means and facilities of the State, other public corporate bodies, and their agencies.

C. Protection of printing facilities

ARTICLE 30- (As amended on May 7, 2004; Act No. 5170)

A printing house and its annexes, duly established as a press enterprise under law, and press equipment shall not be seized, confiscated, or barred from operation on the grounds of having been used in a crime.

D. Right to use media other than the press owned by public corporations

ARTICLE 31- Individuals and political parties have the right to use mass media and means of communication other than the press owned by public corporations. The conditions and procedures for such use shall be regulated by law.

(As amended on October 3, 2001; Act No. 4709) The law shall not impose restrictions preventing the public from receiving information or accessing ideas and opinions through these media, or preventing public opinion from being freely formed, on the grounds other than national security, public order, or the protection of public morals and health.

E. Right of rectification and reply

ARTICLE 32- The right of rectification and reply shall be accorded only in cases where personal reputation and honour is injured or in case of publications of unfounded allegation and shall be regulated by law.

If a rectification or reply is not published, the judge decides, within seven days of appeal by the individual involved, whether or not this publication is required.

XI. Rights and freedoms of assembly

A. Freedom of association

ARTICLE 33- (As amended on October 3, 2001; Act No. 4709)

Everyone has the right to form associations, or become a member of an association, or withdraw from membership without prior permission.

No one shall be compelled to become or remain a member of an association.

Freedom of association may be restricted only by law on the grounds of national security, public order, prevention of commission of crime, public morals, public health and protecting the freedoms of other individuals.

The formalities, conditions, and procedures to be applied in the exercise of freedom of association shall be prescribed by law.

Associations may be dissolved or suspended from activity by the decision of a judge in cases prescribed by law. However, where it is required for, and a delay constitutes a prejudice to, national security, public order, prevention of commission or continuation of a crime, or an arrest, an authority may be vested with power by law to suspend the association from activity. The decision of this authority shall be submitted for the approval of the judge having jurisdiction within twenty-four hours. The judge shall announce his/her decision within forty-eight hours; otherwise, this administrative decision shall be annulled automatically.

Provisions of the first paragraph shall not prevent imposition of restrictions on the rights of armed forces and security forces officials and civil servants to the extent that the duties of civil servants so require.

The provisions of this article shall also apply to foundations.

B. Right to hold meetings and demonstration marches

ARTICLE 34- (As amended on October 3, 2001; Act No. 4709)

Everyone has the right to hold unarmed and peaceful meetings and demonstration marches without prior permission.

The right to hold meetings and demonstration marches shall be restricted only by law on the grounds of national security, public order, prevention of commission of crime, protection of public health and public morals or the rights and freedoms of others.

The formalities, conditions, and procedures to be applied in the exercise of the right to hold meetings and demonstration marches shall be prescribed by law.

XII. Right to property

ARTICLE 35- Everyone has the right to own and inherit property.

These rights may be limited by law only in view of public interest.

The exercise of the right to property shall not contravene public interest.

XIII. Provisions on the protection of rights

A. Freedom to claim rights

ARTICLE 36- (As amended on October 3, 2001; Act No. 4709) Everyone has the right of litigation either as plaintiff or defendant and the right to a fair trial before the courts through legitimate means and procedures.

No court shall refuse to hear a case within its jurisdiction.

B. Principle of natural judge

ARTICLE 37- No one may be tried by any judicial authority other than the legally designated court.

Extraordinary tribunals with jurisdiction that would in effect remove a person from the jurisdiction of his legally designated court shall not be established.

C. Principles relating to offences and penalties

ARTICLE 38- No one shall be punished for any act which does not constitute a criminal offence under the law in force at the time committed; no one shall be given a heavier penalty for an offence other than the penalty applicable at the time when the offence was committed.

The provisions of the above paragraph shall also apply to the statute of limitations on offences and penalties and on the results of conviction.

Penalties, and security measures in lieu of penalties, shall be prescribed only by law.

No one shall be considered guilty until proven guilty in a court of law.

No one shall be compelled to make a statement that would incriminate himself/herself or his/her legal next of kin, or to present such incriminating evidence.

(Paragraph added on October 3, 2001; Act No. 4709) Findings obtained through illegal methods shall not be considered evidence.

Criminal responsibility shall be personal.

(Paragraph added on October 3, 2001; Act No. 4709) No one shall be deprived of his/her liberty merely on the ground of inability to fulfil a contractual obligation.

(Paragraph added on October 3, 2001; Act No. 4709, and repealed on May 7, 2004; Act No. 5170)

(As amended on May 7, 2004; Act No. 5170) Neither death penalty nor general confiscation shall be imposed as punishment.

The administration shall not impose any sanction resulting in restriction of personal liberty. Exceptions to this provision may be introduced by law regarding the internal order of the armed forces.

(As amended on May 7, 2004; Act No. 5170) No citizen shall be extradited to a foreign country because of an offence, except under obligations resulting from being a party to the International Criminal Court.

XIV. Right to prove an allegation

ARTICLE 39- In libel and defamation suits involving allegations against persons in the public service in connection with their functions or services, the defendant has the right to prove the allegations. A plea for presenting proof shall not be granted in any other case, unless finding out whether the allegation is true or not would serve the public interest, or unless the plaintiff consents.

XV. Protection of fundamental rights and freedoms

ARTICLE 40- Everyone whose constitutional rights and freedoms have been violated has the right to request prompt access to the competent authorities.

(Paragraph added on October 3, 2001; Act No. 4709) The State is obliged to indicate in its proceedings, the legal remedies and authorities the persons concerned should apply and time limits of the applications.

Damages incurred to any person through unlawful treatment by public officials shall be compensated for by the State as per the law. The state reserves the right of recourse to the official responsible.

CHAPTER THREE

Social and Economic Rights and Duties

I. Protection of the family, and children's rights³

ARTICLE 41- (Paragraph added on October 3, 2001; Act No. 4709) Family is the foundation of the Turkish society and based on the equality between the spouses.

³ The phrase "and children's rights" was added by the fourth Article of Act No. 5982 dated September 12, 2010.

The State shall take the necessary measures and establish the necessary organization to protect peace and welfare of the family, especially mother and children, and to ensure the instruction of family planning and its practice.

(Paragraph added on September 12, 2010; Act No. 5982)
Every child has the right to protection and care and the right to have and maintain a personal and direct relation with his/her mother and father unless it is contrary to his/her high interests.

(Paragraph added on September 12, 2010; Act No. 5982)
The State shall take measures for the protection of the children against all kinds of abuse and violence.

II. Right and duty of education

ARTICLE 42- No one shall be deprived of the right of education.

The scope of the right to education shall be defined and regulated by law.

Education shall be conducted along the lines of the principles and reforms of Atatürk, based on contemporary scientific and educational principles, under the supervision and control of the State. Educational institutions contravening these principles shall not be established.

The freedom of education does not relieve the individual from loyalty to the Constitution.

Primary education is compulsory for all citizens of both sexes and is free of charge in state schools.

The principles governing the functioning of private primary and secondary schools shall be regulated by law in keeping with the standards set for the state schools.

(Paragraph added on February 2, 2008; Act No. 5735, and annulled by the decision of the Constitutional Court dated June 5, 2008 numbered E. 2008/16, K. 2008/116)

The State shall provide scholarships and other means of assistance to enable students of merit lacking financial means to continue their education. The State shall take necessary measures to rehabilitate those in need of special education so as to render such people useful to society.

Training, education, research, and study are the only activities that shall be pursued at institutions of education. These activities shall not be obstructed in any way.

No language other than Turkish shall be taught as a mother tongue to Turkish citizens at any institution of education. Foreign languages to be taught in institutions of education and the rules to be followed by schools conducting education in a foreign language shall be determined by law. The provisions of international treaties are reserved.

III. Public interest

A. Utilization of the coasts

ARTICLE 43- The coasts are under the authority and disposal of the State.

In the utilization of sea coasts, lake shores or river banks, and of the coastal strip along the sea and lakes, public interest shall be taken into consideration with priority.

The width of coasts and coastal strips according to the purpose of utilization and the conditions of utilization by individuals shall be determined by law.

B. Land ownership

ARTICLE 44- The State shall take the necessary measures to maintain and develop efficient land cultivation, to prevent its loss through erosion, and to provide land to farmers with insufficient land of their own, or no land. For this purpose, the law may define the size of appropriate land units, according to different agricultural regions and types of farming. Provision of land to farmers with no or insufficient land shall not lead to a fall in production, or to the depletion of forests and other land and underground resources.

Lands distributed for this purpose shall neither be divided nor be transferred to others, except through inheritance, and shall be cultivated only by the farmers to whom the lands have been distributed, and their heirs. In the event of loss of these conditions, the principles relating to the recovery by the State of the land thus distributed shall be prescribed by law.

C. Protection of agriculture, animal husbandry, and persons engaged in these activities

ARTICLE 45- The State facilitates farmers and livestock breeders in acquiring machinery, equipment and other inputs in order to prevent improper use and destruction of agricultural land, meadows and pastures and to increase crop and livestock production in accordance with the principles of agricultural planning.

The State shall take necessary measures for the utilization of crop and livestock products, and to enable producers to be paid the real value of their products.

D. Expropriation

ARTICLE 46- (As amended on October 3, 2001; Act No. 4709)

The State and public corporations shall be entitled, where the public interest requires, to expropriate privately owned real estate wholly or in part and impose administrative servitude on it, in accordance with the principles and procedures prescribed by law, provided that the actual compensation is paid in advance.

The compensation for expropriation and the amount regarding its increase rendered by a final judgment shall be paid in cash and in advance. However, the procedure to be applied for compensation for expropriated land for the purposes of carrying out agriculture reform, major energy and irrigation projects, and housing and resettlement schemes, afforestation, and protecting the coasts, and tourism shall be regulated by law. In the cases where the law may allow payment in instalments, the payment period shall not exceed five years, whence payments shall be made in equal instalments.

Compensation for the land expropriated from the small farmer who cultivates his/her own land shall be paid in advance in all cases.

An interest equivalent to the highest interest paid on public claims shall apply in the instalments envisaged in the second paragraph and expropriation costs not paid for any reason.

E. Nationalization and privatization⁴

ARTICLE 47- Private enterprises performing services of public nature may be nationalized in exigencies of public interest.

Nationalization shall be carried out on the basis of real value. The methods and procedures for calculating real value shall be prescribed by law.

(Paragraph added on August 13, 1999; Act No. 4446) Principles and rules concerning the privatization of enterprises and assets owned by the State, state economic enterprises, and other public corporate bodies shall be prescribed by law.

(Paragraph added on August 13, 1999; Act No. 4446) Those investments and services carried out by the State, state economic enterprises and other public corporate bodies, which could be performed by or delegated to persons or corporate bodies through private law contracts shall be determined by law.

IV. Freedom of work and contract

ARTICLE 48- Everyone has the freedom to work and conclude contracts in the field of his/her choice. Establishment of private enterprises is free.

The State shall take measures to ensure that private enterprises operate in accordance with national economic requirements and social objectives and in security and stability.

⁴ The phrase “and privatization” was added by the first Article of Act No. 4446 dated August 13, 1999.

V. Provisions relating to labour

A. Right and duty to work

ARTICLE 49- Everyone has the right and duty to work.

(As amended on October 3, 2001; Act No. 4709) The State shall take the necessary measures to raise the standard of living of workers, and to protect workers and the unemployed in order to improve the general conditions of labour, to promote labour, to create suitable economic conditions for prevention of unemployment and to secure labour peace.

(Repealed on October 3, 2001; Act No. 4709)

B. Working conditions and right to rest and leisure

ARTICLE 50- No one shall be required to perform work unsuited to his/her age, sex, and capacity.

Minors, women, and physically and mentally disabled persons, shall enjoy special protection with regard to working conditions.

All workers have the right to rest and leisure.

Rights and conditions relating to paid weekends and holidays, together with paid annual leave, shall be regulated by law.

C. Right to organize unions

ARTICLE 51- (As amended on October 3, 2001; Act No. 4709)

Employees and employers have the right to form unions and higher organizations, without prior permission, and they also possess the right to become a member of a union and to freely withdraw from membership, in order to safeguard and develop their economic and social rights and the interests of their members in their labour relations. No one shall be forced to become a member of a union or to withdraw from membership.

The right to form a union shall be solely restricted by law on the grounds of national security, public order, prevention of commission of crime, public health, public morals and protecting the rights and freedoms of others.

The formalities, conditions and procedures to be applied in exercising the right to form union shall be prescribed by law.

(Repealed on September 12, 2010; Act No. 5982)

The scope, exceptions and limits of the rights of civil servants who do not have a worker status are prescribed by law in line with the characteristics of their services.

The regulations, administration and functioning of unions and their higher bodies shall not be inconsistent with the fundamental characteristics of the Republic and principles of democracy.

D. Activities of unions

ARTICLE 52- (Repealed on July 23, 1995; Act No. 4121)

VI. Collective labour agreement, right to strike, and lockout

A. Rights of collective labour agreement and collective agreement⁵

ARTICLE 53- Workers and employers have the right to conclude collective labour agreements in order to regulate reciprocally their economic and social position and conditions of work.

⁵ The phrase “and collective agreement” was added by the sixth Article of Act No. 5982 dated September 12, 2010.

The procedure to be followed in concluding collective labour agreements shall be regulated by law.

(Paragraph added on July 23, 1995; Act No. 4121, and repealed on September 12, 2010; Act No. 5982)

(Repealed on September 12, 2010; Act No. 5982)

(Paragraph added on September 12, 2010; Act No. 5982)
Public servants and other public employees have the right to conclude collective agreements.

(Paragraph added on September 12, 2010; Act No. 5982) The parties may apply to the Public Servants Arbitration Board if a disagreement arises during the process of collective agreement. The decisions of the Public Servants Arbitration Board shall be final and have the force of a collective agreement.

(Paragraph added on September 12, 2010; Act No. 5982)
The scope of and the exceptions to the right of collective agreement, the persons to benefit from and the form, procedure and entry into force of collective agreement and the extension of the provisions of collective agreement to those retired, as well as the organization and operating procedures and principles of the Public Servants Arbitration Board and other matters shall be laid down in law.

B. Right to strike, and lockout

ARTICLE 54- Workers have the right to strike during the collective bargaining process if a disagreement arises. The procedures and conditions governing the exercise of this right and the employer's recourse to a lockout, the scope of, and the exceptions to them shall be regulated by law.

The right to strike and lockout shall not be exercised in a manner contrary to the rules of goodwill, to the detriment of society, and in a manner damaging national wealth.

(Repealed on September 12, 2010; Act No. 5982)

The circumstances and workplaces in which strikes and lockouts may be prohibited or postponed shall be regulated by law.

In cases where a strike or a lockout is prohibited or postponed, the dispute shall be settled by the Supreme Arbitration Board at the end of the period of postponement. The disputing parties may apply to the Supreme Arbitration Board by mutual agreement at any stage of the dispute. The decisions of the Supreme Arbitration Board shall be final and have the force of a collective labour agreement.

The organization and functions of the Supreme Arbitration Board shall be regulated by law.

(Repealed on September 12, 2010; Act No. 5982)

Those who refuse to go on strike shall in no way be barred from working at their workplace by strikers.

VII. Provision of fair wage

ARTICLE 55- Wages shall be paid in return for work.

The state shall take the necessary measures to ensure that workers earn a fair wage commensurate with the work they perform and that they enjoy other social benefits.

(As amended on October 3, 2001; Act No. 4709) In determining the minimum wage, the living conditions of the workers and the economic situation of the country shall also be taken into account.

VIII. Health, the environment and housing

A. Health services and protection of the environment

ARTICLE 56- Everyone has the right to live in a healthy and balanced environment.

It is the duty of the State and citizens to improve the natural environment, to protect the environmental health and to prevent environmental pollution.

The State shall regulate central planning and functioning of the health services to ensure that everyone leads a healthy life physically and mentally, and provide cooperation by saving and increasing productivity in human and material resources.

The State shall fulfil this task by utilizing and supervising the health and social assistance institutions, in both the public and private sectors.

In order to establish widespread health services, general health insurance may be introduced by law.

B. Right to housing

ARTICLE 57- The State shall take measures to meet the need for housing within the framework of a plan that takes into account the characteristics of cities and environmental conditions, and also support community housing projects.

IX. Youth and sports

A. Protection of the youth

ARTICLE 58- The State shall take measures to ensure the education and development of the youth into whose keeping our independence and our Republic are entrusted, in the light of positive science, in line with the principles and reforms of Atatürk, and in opposition to ideas aiming at the destruction of the indivisible integrity of the State with its territory and nation.

The State shall take necessary measures to protect youth from addiction to alcohol and drugs, crime, gambling, and similar vices, and ignorance.

B. Development of sports and arbitration⁶

ARTICLE 59- The State shall take measures to develop the physical and mental health of Turkish citizens of all ages, and encourage the spread of sports among the masses.

The state shall protect successful athletes.

(Paragraph added on March 17, 2011; Act No. 6214) The decisions of sport federations relating to administration and discipline of sportive activities may be challenged only through compulsory arbitration. The decisions of Board of Arbitration are final and shall not be appealed to any judicial authority.

X. Social security rights

A. Right to social security

ARTICLE 60- Everyone has the right to social security.

The State shall take the necessary measures and establish the organisation for the provision of social security.

B. Persons requiring special protection in the field of social security

ARTICLE 61- The State shall protect the widows and orphans of martyrs of war and duty, together with invalid and war veterans, and ensure that they enjoy a decent standard of living.

⁶ The phrase “and arbitration” was added by the first Article of Act No. 6214 dated March 17, 2011.

The State shall take measures to protect the disabled and secure their integration into community life.

The aged shall be protected by the State. State assistance to, and other rights and benefits of the aged shall be regulated by law.

The State shall take all kinds of measures for social resettlement of children in need of protection.

To achieve these aims the State shall establish the necessary organizations or facilities, or arrange for their establishment.

C. Turkish citizens working abroad

ARTICLE 62- The State shall take the necessary measures to ensure family unity, the education of the children, the cultural needs, and the social security of Turkish citizens working abroad, and to safeguard their ties with the home country and to help them on their return home.

XI. Protection of historical, cultural and natural assets

ARTICLE 63- The State shall ensure the protection of the historical, cultural and natural assets and wealth, and shall take supportive and promotive measures towards that end.

Any limitations to be imposed on such privately owned assets and wealth and the compensation and exemptions to be accorded to the owners of such, because of these limitations, shall be regulated by law.

XII. Protection of arts and artists

ARTICLE 64- The State shall protect artistic activities and artists. The State shall take the necessary measures to protect, promote and support works of art and artists, and encourage the spread of appreciation for the arts.

XIII. The extent of social and economic duties of the State⁷

ARTICLE 65- (As amended on October 3, 2001; Act No. 4709)

The State shall fulfil its duties as laid down in the Constitution in the social and economic fields within the capacity of its financial resources, taking into consideration the priorities appropriate with the aims of these duties.

CHAPTER FOUR

Political Rights and Duties

I. Turkish citizenship

ARTICLE 66- Everyone bound to the Turkish State through the bond of citizenship is a Turk.

The child of a Turkish father or a Turkish mother is a Turk. (Sentence repealed on October 3, 2001; Act No. 4709)

Citizenship can be acquired under the conditions stipulated by law, and shall be forfeited only in cases determined by law.

No Turk shall be deprived of citizenship, unless he/she commits an act incompatible with loyalty to the motherland.

Recourse to the courts in appeal against the decisions and proceedings related to the deprivation of citizenship shall not be denied.

⁷ The heading of this Article, which was stipulated as “XIII. Limits of social and economic rights”, was amended by the twenty second Article of Act No. 4709 dated October 3, 2001.

II. Right to vote, to be elected and to engage in political activity

ARTICLE 67- In conformity with the conditions set forth in the law, citizens have the right to vote, to be elected, to engage in political activities independently or in a political party, and to take part in a referendum.

(As amended on July 23, 1995; Act No. 4121) Elections and referenda shall be held under the direction and supervision of the judiciary, in accordance with the principles of free, equal, secret, direct, universal suffrage, and public counting of the votes. However, the law determines applicable measures for Turkish citizens abroad to exercise their right to vote.

(As amended on May 17, 1987; Act No. 3361, and on July 23, 1995; Act No. 4121) All Turkish citizens over eighteen years of age shall have the right to vote in elections and to take part in referenda.

The exercise of these rights shall be regulated by law.

(As amended on July 23, 1995; Act No. 4121, and on October 3, 2001; Act No. 4709) Privates and corporals at arms, cadets, and convicts in penal execution institutions excluding those convicted of negligent offences shall not vote. The necessary measures to be taken to ensure the safety of voting and the counting of the votes in penal execution institutions and prisons shall be determined by the Supreme Board of Election; such voting is held under the on-site direction and supervision of authorized judge.

(Paragraph added on July 23, 1995; Act No. 4121) The electoral laws shall be drawn up so as to reconcile the principles of fair representation and stability of government.

(Paragraph added on October 3, 2001; Act No. 4709) Amendments to the electoral laws shall not apply to the elections to be held within one year from the entry into force date of the amendments.

III. Provisions relating to political parties

A. Forming parties, membership and withdrawal from membership in a party

ARTICLE 68- (As amended on July 23, 1995; Act No. 4121)

Citizens have the right to form political parties and duly join and withdraw from them. One must be over eighteen years of age to become a member of a party.

Political parties are indispensable elements of democratic political life.

Political parties shall be formed without prior permission, and shall pursue their activities in accordance with the provisions set forth in the Constitution and laws.

The statutes and programs, as well as the activities of political parties shall not be contrary to the independence of the State, its indivisible integrity with its territory and nation, human rights, the principles of equality and rule of law, sovereignty of the nation, the principles of the democratic and secular republic; they shall not aim to promote or establish class or group dictatorship or dictatorship of any kind, nor shall they incite citizens to crime.

Judges and prosecutors, members of higher judicial organs including those of the Court of Accounts, civil servants in public institutions and organizations, other public servants who are not considered to be labourers by virtue of the services they perform, members of the armed forces and students who are not yet in higher education, shall not become members of political parties.

The membership of the teaching staff at higher education to political parties is regulated by law. This law shall not allow those members to assume responsibilities outside the central organs of the political parties and it also sets forth the regulations which the teaching staff at higher education institutions shall observe as members of political parties in the higher education institutions.

The principles concerning the membership of students at higher education to political parties are regulated by law.

The State shall provide the political parties with adequate financial means in an equitable manner. The principles regarding aid to political parties, as well as collection of dues and donations are regulated by law.

B. Principles to be observed by political parties

ARTICLE 69- (As amended on July 23, 1995; Act No. 4121)

The activities, internal regulations and operation of political parties shall be in line with democratic principles. The application of these principles is regulated by law.

Political parties shall not engage in commercial activities.

The income and expenditure of political parties shall be consistent with their objectives. The application of this rule is regulated by law. The auditing of acquisitions, revenue and expenditure of political parties by the Constitutional Court in terms of conformity to law as well as the methods of audit and sanctions to be applied in case of inconformity to law shall be indicated in law. The Constitutional Court shall be assisted by the Court of Accounts in performing its task of auditing. The judgments rendered by the Constitutional Court because of the auditing shall be final.

The dissolution of political parties shall be decided finally by the Constitutional Court after the filing of a suit by the office of the Chief Public Prosecutor of the High Court of Appeals.

The permanent dissolution of a political party shall be decided when it is established that the statute and program of the political party violate the provisions of the fourth paragraph of Article 68.

The decision to dissolve a political party permanently owing to activities violating the provisions of the fourth paragraph of Article 68 may be rendered only when the Constitutional Court determines that the party in question has become a centre for the execution of such activities. (Sentence added on October 3, 2001; Act No. 4709) A political party shall be deemed to become the centre of such actions only when such actions are carried out intensively by the members of that party or the situation is shared implicitly or explicitly by the grand congress, general chairpersonship or the central decision-making or administrative organs of that party or by the group's general meeting or group executive board at the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye or when these activities are carried out in determination by the abovementioned party organs directly.

(Paragraph added on October 3, 2001; Act No. 4709) Instead of dissolving it permanently in accordance with the above-mentioned paragraphs, the Constitutional Court may rule the concerned party to be deprived of state aid wholly or in part with respect to intensity of the actions brought before the court.

A party which has been dissolved permanently shall not be founded under another name.

The members, including the founders of a political party whose acts or statements have caused the party to be dissolved permanently shall not be founders, members, directors or supervisors in any other party for a period of five years from the date of publication of the Constitutional Court's final decision with its justification for permanently dissolving the party in the Official Gazette.

Political parties that accept aid from foreign states, international institutions and persons and corporate bodies of non-Turkish nationality shall be dissolved permanently.

(As amended on October 3, 2001; Act No. 4709) The foundation and activities of political parties, their supervision and dissolution, or their deprivation of state aid wholly or in part as well as the election expenditures and procedures of the political parties and candidates, are regulated by law in accordance with the above-mentioned principles.

IV. Right to enter public service

A. Entry into public service

ARTICLE 70- Every Turk has the right to enter public service.

No criteria other than the qualifications for the office concerned shall be taken into consideration for recruitment into public service.

B. Declaration of assets

ARTICLE 71- Declaration of assets by persons entering public service and the frequency of such declarations shall be determined by law. Those serving in the legislative and executive organs shall not be exempted from this requirement.

V. National service

ARTICLE 72- National service is the right and duty of every Turk. The manner in which this service shall be performed, or considered as performed, either in the armed forces or in public service, shall be regulated by law.

VI. Duty to pay taxes

ARTICLE 73- Everyone is under obligation to pay taxes according to his financial resources, in order to meet public expenditure.

An equitable and balanced distribution of the tax burden is the social objective of fiscal policy.

Taxes, fees, duties, and other such financial obligations shall be imposed, amended, or revoked by law.

(As amended on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771) The President of the Republic may be empowered to amend the percentages of exemption, exceptions and reductions in taxes, fees, duties and other such financial obligations, within the minimum and maximum limits prescribed by law.

VII. Right of petition, right to information and appeal to the Ombudsperson⁸

ARTICLE 74- (As amended on October 3, 2001; Act No. 4709) Citizens and foreigners resident in Türkiye, with the condition of observing the principle of reciprocity, have the right to apply in writing to the competent authorities and to the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye with regard to the requests and complaints concerning themselves or the public.

(As amended on October 3, 2001; Act No. 4709) The result of the application concerning himself/herself shall be made known to the petitioner in writing without delay.

(Repealed on September 12, 2010; Act No. 5982)

(Paragraph added on September 12, 2010; Act No. 5982) Everyone has the right to obtain information and appeal to the Ombudsperson.

(Paragraph added on September 12, 2010; Act No. 5982) The Institution of the Ombudsperson established under the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye examines complaints on the functioning of the administration.

⁸ The phrase “right to information and appeal to the Ombudsperson” was added by the eighth Article of Act No. 5982 dated September 12, 2010.

(Paragraph added on September 12, 2010; Act No. 5982)
The Chief Ombudsperson shall be elected by the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye for a term of four years by secret ballot. In the first two ballots, a two-thirds majority of the total number of members, and in the third ballot an absolute majority of the total number of members shall be required. If an absolute majority cannot be obtained in the third ballot, a fourth ballot shall be held between the two candidates who have received the greatest number of votes in the third ballot; the candidate who receives the greatest number of votes in the fourth ballot shall be elected.

(Paragraph added on September 12, 2010; Act No. 5982)
The way of exercising these rights referred to in this article, the establishment, duties, functioning of the Ombudsperson Institution and its proceedings after the examination and the procedures and principles regarding the qualifications, elections and personnel rights of the Chief Ombudsperson and ombudspersons shall be laid down in law.

PART THREE

Fundamental Organs of the Republic

CHAPTER ONE

Legislative Power

I. The Grand National Assembly of Türkiye

A. Composition

ARTICLE 75- (As amended on May 17, 1987; Act No. 3361, on July 23, 1995; Act No. 4121, April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771)

The Grand National Assembly of Türkiye shall be composed of six hundred deputies elected by universal suffrage.

B. Eligibility to be a deputy

ARTICLE 76- (As amended on October 13, 2006; Act No.5551, April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771) Every Turk over the age of eighteen is eligible to be a deputy.

(As amended on December 27, 2002; Act No. 4777, April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771) Persons who have not completed primary education, who have been deprived of legal capacity, who are neither exempt nor deferred from military service, who are banned from public service, who have been sentenced to a prison term totalling one year or more excluding involuntary offences, or to a heavy imprisonment; those who have been convicted for dishonourable offences such as embezzlement, corruption, bribery, theft, fraud, forgery, breach of trust, fraudulent bankruptcy; and persons convicted of smuggling, conspiracy in official bidding or purchasing, of offences related to the disclosure of state secrets, of involvement in acts of terrorism, or incitement and encouragement of such activities, shall not be elected as a deputy, even if they have been granted amnesty.

Judges and prosecutors, members of the higher judicial organs, lecturers at institutions of higher education, members of the Council of Higher Education, employees of public institutions and agencies who have the status of civil servants, other public employees not regarded as labourers on account of the duties they perform, and members of the armed forces shall not stand for election or be eligible to be a deputy unless they resign from Office.

C. Election term of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye and the President of the Republic⁹

ARTICLE 77- (As amended on October 21, 2007; Act No.5678 April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771)

Elections for the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye and presidential elections shall be held every five years and on the same day.

A deputy whose term of office expires is eligible for re-election.

If the required majority cannot be obtained in the first ballot of a presidential election, a second ballot shall be held in compliance with the procedure of Article 101.

D. Deferment of elections and by-elections¹⁰

ARTICLE 78- If holding new elections is deemed impossible because of war, the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye may decide to defer elections for a year.

If the grounds do not disappear, the deferment may be repeated in compliance with the procedure for deferment.

By-elections shall be held when vacancies arise in the membership of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye. By-elections shall be held once in every election term and cannot be held unless thirty months elapse after the general election. However, in cases where the number of vacant seats reaches five per cent of the total number of seats, by-elections decided to be held within three months.

⁹ The heading of this Article, which was stipulated as “C. Election term of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye” was amended by the fourth Article of Act No. 6771 dated April 16, 2017.

¹⁰ The heading of this Article, which was stipulated as “D. Deferment of elections for the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye and by-elections” was amended by the sixteenth Article of Act No. 6771 dated April 16, 2017.

By-elections shall not be held within one year before general elections.

(Paragraph added on December 27, 2002; Act No. 4777)
Apart from the above specified situations, if all the seats of a province or electoral district fall vacant in the Assembly, a by-election shall be held on the first Sunday after ninety days following the vacancy. The third paragraph of Article 127 of the Constitution shall not apply for elections held per this paragraph.

E. General administration and supervision of elections

ARTICLE 79- Elections shall be held under the general administration and supervision of the judicial organs.

(As amended on October 21, 2007; Act No. 5678) The Supreme Board of Election shall execute all the functions to ensure the fair and orderly conduct of elections from the beginning to the end, carry out investigations and take final decisions, during and after the elections, on all irregularities, complaints and objections concerning the electoral matters, and receive the electoral records of the members of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye and presidential election. No appeal shall be made to any authority against the decisions of the Supreme Board of Election.

The functions and powers of the Supreme Board of Election and other electoral boards shall be determined by law.

The Supreme Board of Election shall be composed of seven regular members and four substitutes. Six of the members shall be elected by the General Board of High Court of Appeals, and five of the members shall be elected by the General Board of Council of State from amongst their own members, by the vote of the absolute majority of the total number of members through secret ballot. These members shall elect a chairperson and a vice-chairperson from amongst themselves, by absolute majority and secret ballot.

Amongst the members elected to the Supreme Board of Election by the High Court of Appeals and by the Council of State, two members from each group shall be designated by lot as substitute members. The Chairperson and Vice-Chairperson of the Supreme Board of Election shall not take part in this procedure.

(As amended on October 21, 2007; Act No. 5678) The general conduct and supervision of a referendum on laws amending the Constitution and of election of the President of the Republic by people shall be subject to the same provisions relating to the election of deputies.

F. Provisions relating to membership

1. Representing the nation

ARTICLE 80- Members of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye shall not represent their own constituencies or constituents, but the nation as a whole.

2. Oath-taking

ARTICLE 81- Members of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye, on assuming office, shall take the following oath:

“I swear upon my honour and integrity, before the great Turkish Nation, to safeguard the existence and independence of the state, the indivisible integrity of the country and the nation, and the absolute sovereignty of the nation; to remain loyal to the supremacy of law, to the democratic and secular republic, and to Atatürk’s principles and reforms; not to deviate from the ideal according to which everyone is entitled to enjoy human rights and fundamental freedoms under the notion of peace and prosperity in society, national solidarity and justice, and loyalty to the Constitution.”

3. Activities incompatible with membership

ARTICLE 82- Members of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye shall not hold office in state departments and other public corporate bodies and their subsidiaries; in corporations and enterprises where there is direct or indirect participation of the State or public corporate bodies; in the enterprises and corporations where the State and other public corporate bodies take part directly or indirectly; in the executive and supervisory boards of public benefit associations whose private resources of revenues and privileges are provided by law; of the foundations receiving subsidies from the state and enjoying tax exemption; of the professional organizations having the characteristics of public institutions and trade unions; and in the executive and supervisory boards of aforementioned enterprises and corporations which they have a share and in their higher bodies. Nor shall they be representatives, accept any contracted engagement of the boards stated above directly or indirectly, serve as a representative, or perform as an arbitrator therein.

Members of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye shall not be entrusted with any official or private duties involving proposal, recommendation, appointment, or approval by the executive organ. (Sentence repealed on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771)

Other duties and activities incompatible with membership in the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye shall be regulated by law.

4. Parliamentary immunity

ARTICLE 83- Members of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye shall not be liable for their votes and statements during parliamentary proceedings, for the views they express before the Assembly, or, unless the Assembly decides otherwise, on the proposal of the Bureau for that sitting, for repeating or revealing these outside the Assembly.

A deputy who is alleged to have committed an offence before or after election shall not be detained, interrogated, arrested or tried unless the Assembly decides otherwise. This provision shall not apply in cases where a member is caught in flagrante delicto requiring heavy penalty and in cases subject to Article 14 of the Constitution as long as an investigation has been initiated before the election. However, in such situations the competent authority has to notify the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye of the case immediately and directly.

The execution of a criminal sentence imposed on a member of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye either before or after his election shall be suspended until he ceases to be a member; the statute of limitations does not apply during the term of membership.

Investigation and prosecution of a re-elected deputy shall be subject to the Assembly's lifting the immunity anew.

Political party groups in the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye shall not hold debates or take decisions regarding parliamentary immunity.

5. Loss of membership

ARTICLE 84- (As amended on July 23, 1995; Act No. 4121)

The loss of membership of a deputy who has resigned shall be decided upon by the Plenary of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye after the Bureau of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye attests to the validity of the resignation.

The loss of membership, through a final judicial sentence or deprivation of legal capacity, shall take effect after the Plenary has been notified of the final court decision on the matter.

The loss of membership of a deputy who insists on holding a position or carrying out a service incompatible with membership according to Article 82 shall be decided by the Plenary through secret voting, upon the submission of a report drawn up by the authorized committee setting out the factual situation.

Loss of membership of a deputy who fails to attend Parliamentary proceedings without excuse or leave of absence for five sessions, in a period of one month shall be decided upon by the Plenary with a majority of the total number of members after the Bureau of the Assembly determines the situation.

(Repealed on September 12, 2010; Act No. 5982)

6. Application for annulment

ARTICLE 85- (As amended on July 23, 1995; Act No. 4121)

If the parliamentary immunity of a deputy has been lifted or if the loss of membership has been decided according to the first, third or fourth paragraphs of Article 84, the deputy in question or another deputy may, within seven days from the date of the decision of the Plenary, appeal to the Constitutional Court, for the decision to be annulled on the grounds that it is contrary to the Constitution, law or the Rules of Procedure. The Constitutional Court shall make the final decision on the appeal within fifteen days.

7. Salaries and travel allowances

ARTICLE 86- (As amended on November 21, 2001; Act No. 4720) Salaries, travel allowances and retirement procedures of the members of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye shall be regulated by law. The monthly amount of the salary shall not exceed the salary of the most senior civil servant; the travel allowance shall not surpass half of that salary. The members of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye and retired members are affiliated with the Pension Fund of the Turkish Republic, and the affiliation of those whose membership have expired continue upon their request.

(As amended on November 21, 2001; Act No. 4720)
The salaries and allowances to be paid to the members of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye shall not necessitate the termination of pensions and similar payments entitled by the Pension Fund of the Turkish Republic.

A maximum of three months' salaries and travel allowances may be paid in advance.

II. Duties and powers of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye

A. General

ARTICLE 87- (As amended on October 3, 2001; Act No. 4709, and on May 7, 2004; Act No. 5170, and on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771) The duties and powers of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye are to enact, amend, and repeal laws; to debate and adopt the budget bills and final accounts bills; to decide to issue currency and declare war; to approve the ratification of international treaties, to decide with the majority of three-fifths of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye to proclaim amnesty and pardon; and to exercise the powers and carry out the duties envisaged in the other articles of the Constitution.

B. Introduction and deliberation of bills

ARTICLE 88- (As amended on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771) Deputies are empowered to introduce bills.

(As amended on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771) The procedure and principles regarding the deliberation of bills in the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye shall be regulated by the Rules of Procedure.

C. Promulgation of laws by the President of the Republic

ARTICLE 89- The President of the Republic shall promulgate the laws adopted by the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye within fifteen days.

(As amended on October 3, 2001; Act No. 4709) The President of the Republic shall send the laws that he deems, in whole or in part, unsuitable for promulgation, along with the justification, back to the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye for reconsideration in the same period. In case of being partially deemed unsuitable by the President of the Republic, the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye may discuss only those articles. Budget laws shall not be subject to this provision.

(As amended on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771) If the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye adopts the law sent back for reconsideration without any amendment with absolute majority, the law shall be promulgated by the President of the Republic; if the Assembly makes a new amendment to the law, the President of the Republic may send the amended law back for reconsideration.

Provisions relating to constitutional amendments are reserved.

D. Ratification of international treaties

ARTICLE 90- The ratification of treaties concluded with foreign states and international organisations on behalf of the Republic of Türkiye shall be subject to adoption by the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye by a law approving the ratification.

Agreements regulating economic, commercial or technical relations, and covering a period of no more than one year, may be put into effect through promulgation, provided they do not entail any financial commitment by the State, and provided they do not interfere with the status of individuals or with the property rights of Turks abroad. In such cases, these agreements shall be brought to the knowledge of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye within two months of their promulgation.

Implementation agreements based on an international treaty, and economic, commercial, technical, or administrative agreements, which are concluded depending on the authorization as stated in the law, shall not require approval of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye. However, economic, commercial agreements or agreements relating to the rights of individuals concluded under the provision of this paragraph shall not be put into effect unless promulgated.

Agreements resulting in amendments to Turkish laws shall be subject to the provisions of the first paragraph.

International agreements duly put into effect have the force of law. No appeal to the Constitutional Court shall be made with regard to these agreements, on the grounds that they are unconstitutional. (Sentence added on May 7, 2004; Act No. 5170) In the case of a conflict between international agreements, duly put into effect, concerning fundamental rights and freedoms and the laws due to differences in provisions on the same matter, the provisions of international agreements shall prevail.

E. Authorization to issue decrees having the force of law

ARTICLE 91- (Repealed on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771)

F. Declaration of state of war and authorization to deploy the armed forces

ARTICLE 92- The power to authorize the declaration of a state of war in cases deemed legitimate by international law and except where required by international treaties to which Türkiye is a party or by the rules of international courtesy to send the Turkish Armed Forces to foreign countries and to allow foreign armed forces to be stationed in Türkiye, is vested in the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye.

If the country is subjected to sudden armed aggression, while the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye is adjourned or in recess, and it thus becomes imperative to decide immediately on the use of the armed forces, the President of the Republic can decide on the use of the Turkish Armed Forces.

III. Provisions relating to the activities of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye

A. Convening and recess

ARTICLE 93- (As amended on July 23, 1995; Act No. 4121) The Grand National Assembly of Türkiye shall convene of its own accord on the first day of October each year.

(As amended on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771) The Assembly may be in recess for a maximum of three months in a legislative year; during adjournment or recess it may be summoned by the President of the Republic.

The Speaker of the Assembly may also summon the Assembly either on his own initiative or at the written request of one fifth of the members.

The Grand National Assembly of Türkiye convened during an adjournment or recess shall not adjourn or go into recess again before having given priority consideration to the matter requiring the summons.

B. Bureau of the Assembly

ARTICLE 94- The Bureau of the Assembly of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye shall be composed of the Speaker, vicespeakers, secretaries, and quaestors elected from among members of the Assembly.

The Bureau of the Assembly shall be so composed as to ensure proportionate representation to the number of members of each political party group in the Assembly. Political party groups shall not nominate candidates for the Office of the Speaker.

(As amended on September 12, 2010; Act No. 5982) Two elections to the Bureau of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye shall be held in one legislative term. The term of office of those elected in the first round is two years and the term of office of those elected in the second round shall continue until the end of that legislative term.

(As amended on October 3, 2001; Act No. 4709) The candidates from among the members of the Assembly for the Office of the Speaker of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye shall be announced, within five days of the convening of the Assembly, to the Bureau of the Assembly. Election of the Speaker shall be held by secret ballot. In the first two ballots, a two-thirds majority of the total number of members, and in the third ballot an absolute majority of the total number of members is required. If an absolute majority cannot be obtained in the third ballot, a fourth ballot shall be held between the two candidates who have received the highest number of votes in the third ballot; the member who receives the greatest number of votes in the fourth ballot shall be elected as Speaker. The election of the Speaker shall be completed within five days after the expiry of the period for the nomination of candidates.

The quorum required for election, the number of ballots and its procedure, the number of vice-speakers, secretaries and quaestors, shall be determined by the Rules of Procedure.

The Speaker and vice-speakers of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye cannot participate, within or outside the Assembly, in the activities of the political party or party group in which they are a member; nor in parliamentary debates, except in cases required by their functions; the Speaker and the vice-speaker who is presiding over the session shall not vote.

C. Rules of Procedure, political party groups and security affairs

ARTICLE 95- The Grand National Assembly of Türkiye shall carry out its activities in accordance with the provisions of the Rules of Procedure drawn up by itself.

The provisions of the Rules of Procedure shall be drawn up in such a way as to ensure the participation of each political party group in all the activities of the Assembly in proportion to its number of members. Political party groups shall be constituted only if they have at least twenty members.

All security and administrative services of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye regarding all buildings, installations, annexes and lands shall be organised and directed by the Office of the Speaker of the Assembly. Sufficient forces to ensure security and other such services shall be allocated to the Office of the Speaker of the Assembly by the relevant authorities.

D. Quorums and majority for decisions

ARTICLE 96- (As amended on October 21, 2007; Act No. 5678) The Grand National Assembly of Türkiye shall convene with at least one-third of the total number of members for all its affairs, including elections it holds. Unless otherwise stipulated in the Constitution, the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye shall take decisions by an absolute majority of those present; however, the majority for decision can, under no circumstances, be less than one plus a quarter of the total number of members.

(Repealed on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771)

E. Publicity and publication of debates

ARTICLE 97- Debates held in the Plenary of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye shall be public and shall be published verbatim in the Journal of Minutes.

The Grand National Assembly of Türkiye may hold closed sittings in accordance with the provisions of the Rules of Procedure; the publication of debates of such sittings shall be subject to the decision of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye.

Public debates in the Assembly may be freely published through all means, unless a decision to the contrary is adopted by the Assembly upon a proposal of the Bureau.

IV. Ways of obtaining information and supervision by the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye¹¹

ARTICLE 98- (As amended on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771)

The Grand National Assembly of Türkiye shall exercise its powers of obtaining information and supervision by means of parliamentary inquiry, general debate, parliamentary investigation and written question.

A parliamentary inquiry is an examination conducted to obtain information on a specific subject.

A general debate is the consideration of a specific subject relating to the community and the activities of the State at the Plenary of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye.

A parliamentary investigation is an investigation made under the paragraphs V, VI and VII of the Article 106 concerning the deputies of the President of the Republic and the ministers.

A written question is a question asked by deputies to the deputies of the President of the Republic or ministers in a written form, which is to be answered no later than fifteen days.

¹¹ The other heading of this Article, which was stipulated as “A. General” was removed by sixth Article of Act No. 6771 dated April 16, 2017.

The form of presentation, content, and scope of the motions concerning parliamentary inquiry, general debate and written question and the procedures for answering, debating and inquiring them, shall be regulated by the Rules of Procedure.

B. Censure

ARTICLE 99- (Repealed on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771)

C. Parliamentary investigation

ARTICLE 100- (Repealed on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771)

CHAPTER TWO

The Executive Power

I. President of the Republic

A. Candidacy and election¹²

ARTICLE 101- (As amended on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771)

The President of the Republic shall be elected directly by the public from among Turkish citizens over forty years of age who are eligible to be a deputy and have completed higher education.

The President of the Republic's term of office shall be five years. A person may be elected as the President of the Republic for two terms at most.

The President of the Republic may be nominated by political party groups, political parties which received at least five percent of valid votes on their own or collectively in the latest parliamentary elections or at least one hundred thousand voters.

The President-elect's membership of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye shall cease.

In presidential elections conducted by universal suffrage, the candidate who receives the absolute majority of the valid votes shall be elected President of the Republic. If absolute majority cannot be obtained in the first ballot, the second ballot shall be held on the second Sunday following this ballot. Two candidates who received the greatest number of votes in the first ballot run for the second ballot, and the candidate who receives majority of valid votes shall be elected President of the Republic.

If one of the candidates who gains the right to run for the second ballot is unable to participate in the election for any reason, the second ballot shall be conducted by substituting the vacant candidacy in conformity with the ranking in the first ballot. If only one candidate remains for the second ballot, this ballot shall be conducted as a referendum. If the candidate receives the majority of the valid votes, he/she shall be elected President of the Republic. If that candidate fails to receive the majority of the valid votes in the election, only the presidential election shall be renewed.

If the presidential election is not completed, the term of office of the incumbent President of the Republic shall continue until the President-elect assumes the office.

The other procedures and principles concerning the presidential elections shall be regulated by law.

B. Election

ARTICLE 102- (Repealed on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771)

C. Oath-taking

ARTICLE 103- On assuming office, the President of the Republic shall take the following oath before the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye:

“In my capacity as President of the Republic, I swear upon my honour and integrity before the Great Turkish Nation and before history to safeguard the existence and independence of the state, the indivisible integrity of the country and the nation, and the absolute sovereignty of the nation, to abide by the Constitution, the rule of law, democracy, the principles and reforms of Atatürk, and the principles of the secular republic, not to deviate from the ideal according to which everyone is entitled to enjoy human rights and fundamental freedoms under conditions of national peace and prosperity and in a spirit of national solidarity and justice, and do my utmost to preserve and exalt the glory and honour of the Republic of Türkiye and perform without bias the functions that I have assumed.”

D. Duties and powers

ARTICLE 104- (As amended on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771) The President of the Republic is the head of the State. The executive power shall be vested in the President of the Republic.

The President of the Republic, in his/her capacity as the Head of State, shall represent the Republic of Türkiye and the unity of the Turkish Nation; he/she shall ensure the implementation of the Constitution, and orderly and harmonious functioning of the organs of the State.

He/she shall deliver the opening speech of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye on the first day of the legislative year, if he/she deems it necessary.

He/she shall give message to the Assembly regarding domestic and foreign policies of the country.

He/she shall promulgate laws.

He/she shall send laws back to the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye to be reconsidered.

He/she shall appeal to the Constitutional Court for the annulment of all or certain provisions of laws and the Rules of Procedure of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye on the grounds that they are unconstitutional in form or in content.

He/she shall appoint and dismiss the deputies of the President of the Republic and the ministers.

He/she shall appoint and dismiss the high ranking executives, and shall regulate the procedure and principles governing the appointment thereof by presidential decree.

He/she shall accredit representatives of the Republic of Türkiye to foreign states and shall receive the representatives of foreign states appointed to the Republic of Türkiye.

He/she shall ratify and promulgate international treaties.

He/she shall submit laws regarding amendment to the Constitution to referendum, if he/she deems it necessary.

He/she shall determine national security policies and take necessary measures.

He/she shall represent the Office of Commander-in-Chief of the Turkish Armed Forces on behalf of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye.

He/she shall decide on the use of the Turkish Armed Forces.

He/she shall commute or remit the sentences imposed on persons, on grounds of chronic illness, disability or old age.

The President of the Republic may issue presidential decrees on the matters regarding executive power. The fundamental rights, individual rights and duties included in the first and second chapters and the political rights and duties listed in the fourth chapter of the second part of the Constitution shall not be regulated by a presidential decree. No presidential decree shall be issued on the matters which are stipulated in the Constitution to be regulated exclusively by law. No presidential decree shall be issued on the matters explicitly regulated by law. In the case of a discrepancy between provisions of the presidential decrees and the laws, the provisions of the laws shall prevail. A presidential decree shall become null and void if the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye enacts a law on the same matter.

The president of the Republic may issue by-laws in order to ensure the implementation of laws, provided that they are not contrary thereto.

Decrees and by-laws shall come into effect on the date of publication in the Official Gazette, unless a later effective date is determined.

The President of the Republic shall also exercise powers of election and appointment, and perform the other duties conferred on him/her by the Constitution and laws.

E. Criminal liability of the President of the Republic¹³

ARTICLE 105- (As amended on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771)

Absolute majority of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye may table a motion requesting that the President of the Republic be investigated on allegations of a crime. The Grand National Assembly of Türkiye shall debate the motion in one month at the latest and may decide to launch an investigation with three-fifths of the total number of its members by secret ballot.

If an investigation is decided to be launched, it shall be conducted by a committee of fifteen members, chosen by lot, for each political party in the Assembly, separately from among three times the candidates nominated for each seat reserved to party groups in proportion to their strength. The committee shall submit its report on the conclusion of the investigation to the Office of the Speaker within two months. If the investigation is not completed within the time allotted, the committee shall be granted a further and final period of one month.

The report shall be distributed within ten days from the date of its submission to the Office of the Speaker, and it shall be debated in the Plenary within ten days following its distribution. The Grand National Assembly of Türkiye may decide to refer the report to the Supreme Criminal Tribunal with two-thirds of the total number of its members by secret ballot. The trial of the Supreme Criminal Tribunal shall be completed within three months, if not completed within this period, an additional period of three-months shall be granted for once only, and the trial shall be finalized within the time allotted.

The President of the Republic who is under an investigation cannot decide to hold an election.

The mandate of the President of the Republic who is convicted by the Supreme Criminal Tribunal of a crime that prevents from being elected shall end.

The provisions of this article shall also apply after the termination of the term of office of the President of the Republic to the crimes alleged to have been committed during the term of his/her office.

F. Deputies of the President of the Republic, acting for the President of the Republic and ministers¹⁴

ARTICLE 106- (As amended on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771)

The President of the Republic may appoint one or more deputies after being elected.

If the presidential office becomes vacant for any reason, the presidential election shall be held within forty-five days. The Deputy President of the Republic of Türkiye shall act as and exercise the powers of the President of the Republic until the next President of the Republic is elected. If one year or less remains for the general election, the election for the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye shall be renewed together with the presidential election. If more than one year remains for the general election, the President of the Republic of Türkiye shall continue to serve until the election date of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye. This period shall not be counted of the presidential term with respect to the President of the Republic who completed the remaining period. Both elections shall be held together on the date of the general elections of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye.

In cases where the President of the Republic is temporarily absent from his/her duties on account of illness or travelling abroad, the deputy president acts as the President of the Republic and exercises his/her powers.

The deputies of the President of the Republic and the ministers shall be appointed from among those who are eligible to be a deputy and removed from office by the President of the Republic. The deputies of the President of the Republic and the ministers shall take oath before the Turkish Grand National Assembly as stated in the Article 81. If a member of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye is appointed as a deputy president or minister, he/she shall lose his/her membership.

The deputies of the President of the Republic and the ministers are accountable to the President of the Republic. Absolute majority of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye may table a motion requesting that the Deputies of President of the Republic and ministers be investigated on allegations of perpetration of a crime regarding their duties. The Assembly shall debate the motion within one month at the latest and may decide to launch an investigation with three-fifth majority of the total number of its members by secret ballot.

If an investigation is decided to be launched, it shall be conducted by a committee of fifteen members, chosen by lot, for each political party in the Assembly, separately from among three times the candidates nominated for each seat reserved to party groups in proportion to their strength. The committee shall submit its report on the conclusion of the investigation to the Office of the Speaker within two months. If the investigation is not completed within the time allotted, the committee shall be granted a further and final period of one month.

The report shall be distributed within ten days from the date of its submission to the Office of the Speaker, and it shall be debated in the Plenary within ten days following its distribution. The Grand National Assembly of Türkiye may decide to refer the report to the Supreme Criminal Tribunal with two-thirds of the total number of its members by secret ballot. The trial of the Supreme Criminal Tribunal shall be completed within three months, if not completed within this period, an additional period of three-months shall be granted for once only, and the trial shall be finalized within the time allotted.

The provisions of the paragraphs V, VI and VII shall also apply after the termination of their duties with respect to the crimes alleged to have been committed regarding their duties during their term of office.

The deputies of the President of the Republic or ministers who are convicted of a crime by the Supreme Criminal Tribunal for a crime that prevents them from being elected shall lose their mandate.

The deputies of the President of the Republic and the ministers shall enjoy legislative immunity regarding the offenses not related to their duties.

The establishment, abolition, the duties and powers, the organizational structure of the ministries, and the establishment of their central and provincial organizations shall be regulated by the presidential decree.

III. Administration of State of Emergency¹⁶

ARTICLE 119- (As amended on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771)

In the event of war, the emergence of a situation necessitating war, mobilization, an uprising, strong rebellious actions against the motherland and the Republic, widespread acts of violence of internal or external origin threatening the indivisibility of the country and the nation, emergence of widespread acts of violence aimed at the destruction of the Constitutional order or of fundamental rights and freedoms, serious deterioration of public order because of acts of violence, occurrence of natural disasters, outbreak of dangerous epidemic diseases or emergence of a serious economic crisis; the President of the Republic may declare state of emergency in one region or nationwide for a period not exceeding six months.

The decision to declare state of emergency shall be published in the Official Gazette on the date of the decision and shall be submitted for approval to the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye on the same day.

If the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye is in recess, it shall be immediately summoned; The Assembly may reduce or extend the period of, or lift, the state of emergency.

¹⁶ The heading of this Article, which was stipulated as “I. Declaration of state of emergency because of natural disaster or serious economic crisis” was amended and the other headings, which were stipulated as “III. Extraordinary administration procedures” and “A. States of emergency” were removed by the twelfth Article of Act No. 6771 dated April 16, 2017.

The Grand National Assembly of Türkiye may extend the period for a maximum of four months each time at the request of the President of the Republic. In the event of war, four-month limit shall not apply.

The financial, material and labour obligations to be imposed on citizens, the manner of restriction and temporary suspension of fundamental rights and freedoms in line with the principles of the Article 15, and the provisions to be applied and actions to be carried out in the event of state of emergency shall be regulated by law.

In the event of state of emergency, the President of the Republic may issue presidential decrees on matters necessitated by the state of emergency, notwithstanding the limitations set forth in the second sentence of the seventeenth paragraph of the Article 104. Such decrees which have the force of law shall be published in the Official Gazette, and shall be submitted for approval to the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye on the same day.

Except in the case of inability of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye to convene due to war or force majeure events, presidential decrees issued during the state of emergency shall be debated and decided in the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye within three months. Otherwise presidential decrees issued during the state of emergency shall be annulled automatically.

2. Declaration of state of emergency because of widespread acts of violence and serious deterioration of public order

ARTICLE 120- (Repealed on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771)

3. Rules regarding the states of emergency

ARTICLE 121- (Repealed on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771)

B. Martial law, mobilization and state of war

ARTICLE 122- (Repealed on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771)

IV. Administration

A. Fundamentals of the administration

1. Integrity of the administration and public legal personality

ARTICLE 123- The administration is a whole with its formation and functions, and shall be regulated by law.

The organization and functions of the administration are based on the principles of centralization and decentralization.

(As amended on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771) Public corporate bodies shall be established by law, or by presidential decree.

2. By-laws

ARTICLE 124- (As amended on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771) The President of the Republic, the ministries, and public corporate bodies may issue by-laws in order to ensure the implementation of laws and presidential decrees relating to their jurisdiction, as long as they are not contrary to these laws and decrees.

The law shall designate which by-laws are to be published in the Official Gazette.

B. Judicial review

ARTICLE 125-Recourse to judicial review shall be available against all actions and acts of administration. (Sentences added on August 13, 1999; Act No. 4446) In concession, conditions and contracts concerning public services and national or international arbitration may be suggested to settle the disputes arising from them. Only those disputes involving an element of foreignness may be submitted to international arbitration.

(Sentence added on September 12, 2010; Act No. 5982) (As amended on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771) Recourse to judicial review shall be available against all decisions taken by the Supreme Military Council regarding expulsion from the armed forces except acts regarding promotion and retiring due to lack of tenure.

Time limit to file a lawsuit against an administrative act begins from the date of written notification of the act.

(As amended on September 12, 2010; Act No. 5982) Judicial power is limited to the review of the legality of administrative actions and acts, and in no case may it be used as a review of expediency. No judicial ruling shall be passed which restricts the exercise of the executive function in accordance with the forms and principles prescribed by law, which has the quality of an administrative action and act, or which removes discretionary powers.

A justified decision regarding the suspension of execution of an administrative act may be issued, should its implementation result in damages which are difficult or impossible to compensate for and, at the same time, the act would be clearly unlawful.

(As amended on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771)The law may restrict the issuing of an order on suspension of execution of an administrative act in cases of state of emergency, mobilization and state of war, or on the grounds of national security, public order and public health.

The administration shall be liable to compensate for damages resulting from its actions and acts.

C. Establishment of the administration

1. Central administration

ARTICLE 126- In terms of central administrative structure, Türkiye is divided into provinces on the basis of geographical situation, economic conditions, and public service requirements; provinces are further divided into lower levels of administrative districts.

The administration of the provinces is based on the principle of devolution of powers.

Central administrative organizations comprising several provinces may be established to ensure efficiency and coordination of public services. The functions and powers of these organizations shall be regulated by law.

2. Local administrations

ARTICLE 127- Local administrations are public corporate bodies established to meet the common local needs of the inhabitants of provinces, municipal districts and villages, whose principles of constitution and decision-making organs elected by the electorate are determined by law.

The formation, duties and powers of the local administrations shall be regulated by law in accordance with the principle of local administration.

(As amended on July 23, 1995; Act No. 4121) The elections for local administrations shall be held every five years in accordance with the principles set forth in Article 67. (Sentence repealed on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771) Special administrative arrangements may be introduced by law for larger urban centres.

Loss of status and objections regarding the acquisition of the status of elected organs of local administrations shall be decided by judiciary. However, as a provisional measure until the final court judgment, the Minister of Internal Affairs may remove from Office those organs of local administration or their members against whom an investigation or prosecution has been initiated on grounds of offences related to their duties.

The central administration has the power of administrative tutelage over the local administrations in the framework of principles and procedures set forth by law with the objective of ensuring the functioning of local services in conformity with the principle of the integrity of the administration, securing uniform public service, safeguarding the public interest and meeting local needs properly.

(As amended on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771) The formation of local administrative bodies into a union with the permission of the President of the Republic for the purpose of performing specific public services; and the functions, powers, financial and security arrangements of these unions, and their reciprocal ties and relations with the central administration, shall be regulated by law. These administrative bodies shall be allocated financial resources in proportion to their functions.

D. Provisions relating to public servants

1. General principles

ARTICLE 128- The fundamental and permanent functions required by the public services that the State, state economic enterprises and other public corporate bodies assigned to perform in accordance with principles of general administration, shall be carried out by public servants and other public employees.

The qualifications, appointments, duties and powers, rights and responsibilities, salaries and allowances of public servants and other public officials, and other matters related to their status shall be regulated by law. (Sentence added by September 12, 2010; Act No. 5982) However, provisions on collective agreement concerning financial and social rights are reserved.

The procedure and principles governing the training of high rank administrators shall be specially regulated by law.

2. Duties and responsibilities, and guarantees in disciplinary proceedings

ARTICLE 129- Public servants and other public officials are obliged to carry out their duties with loyalty to the Constitution and the laws.

Public servants, other public officials and members of public professional organizations or their higher bodies shall not be subjected to disciplinary penalties without being granted the right of defence.

(As amended on September 12, 2010; Act No. 5982)
Disciplinary decisions shall not be exempt from judicial review.

Provisions concerning the members of the armed forces, judges and prosecutors are reserved.

Compensation suits concerning damages arising from faults committed by public servants and other public officials in the exercise of their duties shall be filed only against the administration in accordance with the procedure and conditions prescribed by law, as long as the compensation is resorted to them.

Prosecution of public servants and other public officials for alleged offences shall be subject, except in cases prescribed by law, to the permission of the administrative authority designated by law.

E. Institutions of higher education and their higher bodies

1. Institutions of higher education

ARTICLE 130- For the purpose of training manpower to meet the needs of the nation and the country under a system of contemporary education principles, universities comprising several units and having scientific autonomy and public legal personality shall be established by the State and by law, to educate at different levels based on secondary education, to conduct research, to issue publications, to act as consultants, and to serve the country and humanity.

Institutions of higher education may be established, under the supervision and control of the State, by foundations in accordance with the procedures and principles set forth in the law as long as they do not pursue profit.

The law shall provide for a balanced geographical distribution of universities throughout the country.

Universities, members of the teaching staff and their assistants may freely engage in all kinds of scientific research and publication. However, this shall not include the liberty to engage in activities against the existence and independence of the State, and against the integrity and indivisibility of the nation and the country.

Universities and units attached to them are under the supervision and inspection of the State and their security is ensured by the State.

University presidents shall be elected and appointed by the President of the Republic, and faculty deans by the Council of Higher Education, in accordance with the procedures and provisions of the law.

The administrative and supervisory organs of the universities and the teaching staff may not for any reason whatsoever be removed from their office by authorities other than those of the competent organs of the universities or by the Council of Higher Education.

(As amended on October 29, 2005; Act No. 5428) The budgets drawn up by universities, after being examined and approved by the Council of Higher Education shall be submitted to the Ministry of National Education, and shall be put into effect and supervised in conformity with the principles applied to central government budget.

The establishment of institutions of higher education, their organs, their functioning and elections, their duties, authorities and responsibilities, the procedures to be followed by the state in the exercise of the right to supervise and inspect the universities, the duties of the teaching staff, their titles, appointments, promotions and retirement, the training of the teaching staff, the relations of the universities and the teaching staff with public institutions and other organizations, the level and duration of education, admission of students into institutions of higher education, attendance requirements and fees, principles relating to assistance to be provided by the State, disciplinary and penalty matters, financial affairs, personnel rights, rules to be abided by the teaching staff, the assignment of the teaching staff in accordance with inter-university requirements, the pursuance of training and education in freedom and under guarantee and in accordance with the requirements of contemporary science and technology, and the use of financial resources provided by the State to the Council of Higher Education and the universities, shall be regulated by law.

Institutions of higher education established by foundations shall be subject to the provisions set forth in the Constitution for institutions of higher education established by the State, as regards the academic activities, recruitment of teaching staff and security, except for financial and administrative matters.

2. Superior bodies of higher education

ARTICLE 131- The Council of Higher Education shall be established to plan, organize, administer, and supervise education provided by institutions of higher education, to Orient teaching activities, education and scientific research, to ensure the establishment and development of these institutions in conformity with the objectives and principles set forth by law, to ensure the effective use of the resources allotted to the universities, and to plan for the training of the teaching staff.

(As amended on May 7, 2004; Act No. 5170, April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771) The Council of Higher Education is composed of members appointed by the President of the Republic from among candidates who are nominated by universities, and in accordance with the numbers, qualifications and election procedures prescribed by law, priority being given to those who have served successfully as faculty members or university presidents, and of members directly appointed by the President of the Republic.

The organization, functions, authority, responsibilities and operating principles of the Council shall be regulated by law.

3. Institutions of higher education subject to special provisions

ARTICLE 132- Institutions of higher education attached to the Turkish Armed Forces and to the national police organization are subject to the provisions of their respective special laws.

F. Radio and Television Supreme Council, institutions of radio and television, and public affiliated news agencies¹⁷

ARTICLE 133- (As amended on July 8, 1993; Act No. 3913) Radio and television stations shall be established and operated freely in conformity with rules to be determined by law.

(Paragraph added on June 21, 2005; Act No. 5370) The Radio and Television Supreme Council, established for the purpose of regulation and supervision of radio and television activities, is composed of nine members. The members are elected, on the basis of number of members allocated to each political party group, by the Plenary of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye from among the candidates, twice the number of which is nominated by political party groups in proportion to their number of members. The formation, duties and powers of the Radio and Television Supreme Council, and qualifications, election procedures and term of office of its members shall be regulated by law.

The unique radio and television institution established by the State as a public corporate body and the news agencies which receive aid from public corporate bodies shall be autonomous and their broadcasts shall be impartial.

G. The Atatürk High Institution of Culture, Language and History

ARTICLE 134- (As amended on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771) The “Atatürk High Institution of Culture, Language and History” shall be established as a public corporate body, under the moral aegis of Atatürk, under the supervision of and with the support of the President of the Republic, attached to the minister designated by the President of the Republic, and composed of the Atatürk Research Centre, the Turkish Language Institution, the Turkish History Institution and the Atatürk Culture Centre, in order to conduct scientific research, to produce publications and to disseminate information on the thought, principles and reforms of Atatürk, Turkish culture, Turkish history and the Turkish language.

The financial interests bequeathed by Atatürk in his will to the Turkish Language Institution and Turkish History Institution are reserved and shall be allocated to them accordingly.

The establishment, organs, operating procedures and personnel matters of the Atatürk High Institution of Culture, Language and History, and its authority over the institutions within it, shall be regulated by law.

H. Professional organizations having the characteristics of public institutions

ARTICLE 135- Professional organizations having the characteristics of public institutions and their higher bodies are public corporate bodies established by law, with the objectives of meeting the common needs of the members of a given profession, to facilitate their professional activities, to ensure the development of the profession in keeping with common interests, to safeguard professional discipline and ethics in order to ensure integrity and trust in relations among its members and with the public; their organs shall be elected by secret ballot by their members in accordance with the procedure set forth in the law, and under judicial supervision.

Persons employed in principal and permanent positions in public institutions, or in state economic enterprises shall not be required to become members of public professional organizations.

(As amended on July 23, 1995; Act No. 4121) These Professional organizations shall not engage in activities outside the aims for which they are established.

(As amended on July 23, 1995; Act No. 4121) Political parties shall not nominate candidates in elections for the organs and higher bodies of these professional organizations.

(As amended on July 23, 1995; Act No. 4121) The rules concerning the administrative and financial supervision of these professional organizations by the State shall be prescribed by law.

(As amended on July 23, 1995; Act No. 4121) The responsible organs of professional organizations which engage in activities beyond their objectives shall be dissolved by court decision at the request of the authority designated by law or the public prosecutor, and new organs shall be elected in their place.

(As amended on July 23, 1995; Act No. 4121) However, where it is required for and delay constitutes a prejudice to national security, public order, prevention of commission or continuation of a crime, or an arrest, an authority may be vested with power by law to suspend the professional organizations and their higher bodies from activity. The decision of this authority shall be submitted for the approval of the judge having jurisdiction within twenty-four hours. The judge shall announce his/her decision within forty-eight hours; otherwise, this administrative decision shall be annulled automatically.

I. Presidency of Religious Affairs

ARTICLE 136- The Presidency of Religious Affairs, which is within the general administration, shall exercise its duties prescribed in its particular law, in accordance with the principles of secularism, removed from all political views and ideas, and aiming at national solidarity and integrity.

J. Unlawful order

ARTICLE 137- (As amended on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771) If a person employed in any position or status in public services finds an order given by his/her superior to be contrary to the provisions of by-laws, presidential decree, laws, or the Constitution, he/she shall not carry it out, and shall inform the person giving the order of this inconsistency. However, if his/her superior insists on the order and renews it in writing, his/her order shall be executed; in this case the person executing the order shall not be held responsible.

An order which in itself constitutes an offence shall under no circumstances be executed; the person who executes such an order shall not evade responsibility.

Exceptions designated by law relating to the execution of military duties and the protection of public order or public security in urgent situations are reserved.

CHAPTER THREE

Judicial Power

I. General provisions

A. Independence of the courts

ARTICLE 138- Judges shall be independent in the discharge of their duties; they shall give judgment in accordance with the Constitution, laws, and their personal conviction conforming to the law.

No organ, authority, office or individual may give orders or instructions to courts or judges relating to the exercise of judicial power, send them circulars, or make recommendations or suggestions.

No questions shall be asked, debates held, or statements made in the Legislative Assembly relating to the exercise of judicial power concerning a case under trial.

Legislative and executive organs and the administration shall comply with court decisions; these organs and the administration shall neither alter them in any respect, nor delay their execution.

II. Higher courts

A. Constitutional Court

1. Formation

ARTICLE 146- (As amended on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771) The Constitutional Court shall be composed of fifteen members.

The Grand National Assembly of Türkiye shall elect, by secret ballot, two members from among three candidates to be nominated by and from among the president and members of the Court of Accounts, for each vacant position, and one member from among three candidates nominated by the heads of the bar associations from among self-employed lawyers. In this election to be held in the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye, for each vacant position, two thirds majority of the total number of members shall be required for the first ballot, and absolute majority of total number of members shall be required for the second ballot. If an absolute majority cannot be obtained in the second ballot, a third ballot shall be held between the two candidates who have received the greatest number of votes in the second ballot; the member who receives the greatest number of votes in the third ballot shall be elected.

(As amended on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771) The President of the Republic shall appoint three members from High Court of Appeals, two members from Council of State from among three candidates to be nominated, for each vacant position, by their respective general assemblies, from among their presidents and members; three members, at least two of whom being law graduates, from among three candidates to be nominated for each vacant position by the Council of Higher Education from among members of the teaching staff who are not members of the Council, in the fields of law, economics and political sciences; four members from among high level executives, self-employed lawyers, first category judges and public prosecutors or rapporteurs of the Constitutional Court having served as rapporteur at least five years.

(As amended on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771) In the elections to be held in the respective general assemblies of the High Court of Appeals, Council of State, the Court of Accounts and the Council of Higher Education for nominating candidates for membership of the Constitutional Court, three persons obtaining the greatest number of votes shall be considered to be nominated for each vacant position. In the elections to be held for the three candidates nominated by the heads of bar associations from among self-employed lawyers, three persons obtaining the greatest number of votes shall be considered to be nominated.¹⁹

¹⁹ The phrase "... one member shall vote for only one candidate; ..." following the phrase "for each vacant position" in the first sentence of this paragraph before the amendments made by sixteenth Article of Act No. 6771, and the phrase "each head of bar shall vote for only one candidate, and ..." following the phrase "in the election to be held" in the second sentence of the same paragraph were annulled by the decision of the Constitutional Court dated July 7, 2010 numbered E. 2010/49, K. 2010/87 (Official Gazette numbered 27659 of August 1, 2010.)

To qualify for appointments as members of the Constitutional Court, members of the teaching staff shall be required to possess the title of professor or associate professor; lawyers shall be required to have practiced as a lawyer for at least twenty years; high level executives shall be required to have completed higher education and to have worked for at least twenty years in public service, and first category judges and public prosecutors with at least twenty years of work experience including their period of candidacy, provided that they all shall be over the age of forty five.

The Constitutional Court shall elect a president and two deputy presidents from among its members for a term of four years by secret ballot and by an absolute majority of the total number of its members. Those whose term of office ends may be re-elected.

The members of the Constitutional Court shall not assume other official and private duties, apart from their fundamental duties.

2. Term of office of the members and termination of membership²⁰

ARTICLE 147- (As amended on September 12, 2010; Act No.5982) The members of the Constitutional Court shall be elected for a term of twelve years. A member shall not be re-elected. The members of the Constitutional Court shall retire when they are over the age of sixty-five. The appointment of the members to another office whose term of office expires prior to their mandatory age of retirement and matters regarding their personnel status shall be laid down in law.

²⁰ The heading of this Article, which was stipulated as "2. Termination of membership", was amended by the seventeenth Article of Act No. 5982 dated September 12, 2010.

Membership in the Constitutional Court shall terminate automatically if a member is convicted of an offence requiring his/her dismissal from the judicial profession, and by a decision of an absolute majority of the total number of members of the Constitutional Court if it is definitely established that he/she is unable to perform his/her duties on account of ill-health.

3. Functions and powers

ARTICLE 148- (As amended on September 12, 2010; Act No. 5982, and on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771) The Constitutional Court shall examine the constitutionality, in respect of both form and substance, of laws, presidential decrees and the Rules of Procedure of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye, and decide on individual applications. Constitutional amendments shall be examined and verified only with regard to their form. However, presidential decrees issued during a state of emergency or in time of war shall not be brought before the Constitutional Court alleging their unconstitutionality as to form or substance.

The verification of laws as to form shall be restricted to consideration of whether the requisite majority was obtained in the last ballot; the verification of constitutional amendments shall be restricted to consideration of whether the requisite majorities were obtained for the proposal and in the ballot, and whether the prohibition on debates under expedited procedure was observed. Verification as to form may be requested by the President of the Republic or by one-fifth of the members of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye. Applications for annulment on the grounds of defect in form shall not be made after ten days have elapsed from the date of promulgation of the law; and it shall not be appealed by other courts to the Constitutional Court on the grounds of defect in form.

(Paragraph added on September 12, 2010; Act No. 5982) Everyone may apply to the Constitutional Court on the grounds that one of the fundamental rights and freedoms within the scope of the European Convention on Human Rights which are guaranteed by the Constitution has been violated by public authorities. In order to make an application, ordinary legal remedies must be exhausted.

(Paragraph added on September 12, 2010; Act No. 5982) In the individual application, judicial review shall not be made on matters required to be taken into account during the process of legal remedies.

(Paragraph added on September 12, 2010; Act No. 5982) Procedures and principles concerning the individual application shall be regulated by law.

(As amended on September 12, 2010; Act No. 5982, and on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771) The Constitutional Court in its capacity as the Supreme Criminal Tribunal shall try, for offences relating to their functions, the President of the Republic, the Speaker of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye, the deputies of the President of the Republic, the ministers, the presidents and members of the Constitutional Court, High Court of Appeals and Council of State, the chief public prosecutors of High Court of Appeals and Council of State, the Deputy Chief Public Prosecutor, the president and members of Council of Judges and Prosecutors and Court of Accounts.

(Paragraph added on September 12, 2010; Act No. 5982) (As amended on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771) The Chief of General Staff, the commanders of the Land, Naval and Air Forces shall be tried as well in the Supreme Criminal Tribunal for offences regarding their duties.

The Chief Public Prosecutor of the High Court of Appeals or Deputy Chief Public Prosecutor of the High Court of Appeals shall act as prosecutor in the Supreme Criminal Tribunal.

(As amended on September 12, 2010; Act No. 5982) Application for judicial review may be made against the decisions of the Supreme Criminal Tribunal. Decisions taken by the General Assembly regarding the application shall be final.

The Constitutional Court shall also perform the other duties given to it by the Constitution.

4. Procedure of functioning and trial

ARTICLE 149- (As amended on September 12, 2010; Act No. 5982)

(As amended on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771) The Constitutional Court consists of two sections and the General Assembly. The sections convene under the chairpersonship of the deputy president with the participation of four members. The General Assembly shall convene with the participation of at least ten members under the chairpersonship of the President of the Constitutional Court or a deputy president designated by the President. The sections and the General Assembly shall take decisions by absolute majority. Committees may be established to examine the admissibility of the individual applications.

The General Assembly shall hear the cases and applications concerning political parties, actions for annulment and objection, and trials where the Constitutional Court acts as the Supreme Criminal Tribunal; the sections shall take the decision on individual applications.

Annulment of constitutional amendments, dissolution of political parties, or their deprivation from state aid, shall be decided with a two-thirds majority of members attending the meeting.

Applications for annulment on the grounds of defect in form shall be examined and decided with priority by the Constitutional Court.

The formation of the Constitutional Court, trial procedures of the General Assembly and the sections, disciplinary matters of the President, the deputy presidents, and members shall be regulated by law; principles of functioning of the Court, formation of the sections and committees, and the division of labour shall be set out by the internal regulations to be drawn up by the Court.

The Constitutional Court shall examine cases without holding a hearing, except where it acts as the Supreme Criminal Tribunal. Nonetheless, it may be decided to hold a hearing for individual applications. When it deems necessary, the Court may also call on those concerned and those having knowledge relevant to the case, to hear their oral explanations, and in lawsuits on dissolution of a political party, the Court shall hear the defence of the chairperson of the political party or of a proxy appointed by the chairperson, after hearing the Chief Public Prosecutor of the High Court of Appeals.

5. Annulment action

ARTICLE 150- (As amended on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771) The President of the Republic, the two political party groups having the largest number of members in the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye, and at least one-fifth of the total number of members of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye shall have the right to apply for annulment action directly to the Constitutional Court, based on the assertion of the unconstitutionality, in form and in substance, of laws, of presidential decrees, of Rules of Procedure of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye or of certain articles or provisions thereof. (Sentence repealed on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771).

6. Time limit for annulment action

ARTICLE 151- (As amended on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771) The right to apply for annulment directly to the Constitutional Court shall lapse sixty days after publication in the Official Gazette of the contested law, presidential decree, or the Rules of Procedure.

7. Claim of unconstitutionality before other courts

ARTICLE 152- (As amended on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771) If a court hearing a case finds that the law or the presidential decree to be applied is unconstitutional, or if convinced of the seriousness of a claim of unconstitutionality submitted by one of the parties, it shall postpone the consideration of the case until the Constitutional Court decides on the issue.

If the trial court is not convinced of the seriousness of the claim of unconstitutionality, such a claim, together with the court judgment, shall be decided upon by the competent authority of appeal.

The Constitutional Court shall decide on the matter and declare its judgment within five months of receiving the contention. If no decision is reached within this period, the trial court shall conclude the case under legal provisions in force. However, if the trial court receives the decision of the Constitutional Court until the judgment on the merits of the case is final, the trial court is obliged to comply with it.

No claim of unconstitutionality shall be made with regard to the same legal provision until ten years elapse after publication in the Official Gazette of the decision of the Constitutional Court dismissing the application on its merits.

8. Decisions of the Constitutional Court

ARTICLE 153- The decisions of the Constitutional Court are final. Decisions of annulment shall not be made public without a written justification.

(As amended on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771) In the course of annulling the whole, or a provision, of laws or presidential decrees, the Constitutional Court shall not act as a lawmaker and pass judgment leading to new implementation.

(As amended on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771) Laws, presidential decrees, or the Rules of Procedure of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye or provisions thereof, shall cease to have effect from the date of publication in the Official Gazette of the annulment decision. Where necessary, the Constitutional Court may also decide on the date on which the annulment decision shall come into effect. That duration shall not be more than one year from the date of publication of the decision in the Official Gazette.

(As amended on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771) In the event of the postponement of the date on which an annulment decision is to come into effect, the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye shall debate and decide with priority on the bill, designed to fill the legal void arising from the annulment decision.

Annulment decisions cannot be applied retroactively.

Decisions of the Constitutional Court shall be published immediately in the Official Gazette, and shall be binding on the legislative, executive, and judicial organs, on the administrative authorities, and on persons and corporate bodies.

B. High Court of Appeals

ARTICLE 154- The High Court of Appeals is the last instance for reviewing decisions and judgments given by civil courts that are not referred by law to other civil judicial authority. It shall also be the first and last instance court for dealing with specific cases prescribed by law.

(As amended on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771) Members of the High Court of Appeals shall be appointed by the Council of Judges and Prosecutors from among first category judges and public prosecutors of the civil judiciary, or those considered members of this profession, by secret ballot and by an absolute majority of the total number of members.

The First President, first deputy presidents and heads of departments shall be elected by the General Assembly of the High Court of Appeals from among its own members, for a term of four years, by secret ballot and by an absolute majority of the total number of members; they may be re-elected at the end of their term of office.

The Chief Public Prosecutor and the Deputy Chief Public Prosecutor of the High Court of Appeals shall be appointed by the President of the Republic for a term of four years from among five candidates nominated for each office by the General Assembly of the High Court of Appeals from among its own members by secret ballot. They may be re-elected at the end of their term of office.

The organization and the functioning of the High Court of Appeals, the qualifications and procedures of the election of its president, deputy presidents, heads of departments, members, Chief Public Prosecutor and Deputy Chief Public Prosecutor shall be regulated by law in accordance with the principles of the independence of courts and the security of tenure of judges.

C. Council of State

ARTICLE 155- The Council of State is the last instance for reviewing decisions and judgments given by administrative courts and not referred by law to other administrative courts. It shall also be the first and last instance for dealing with specific cases prescribed by law.

(As amended on August 13, 1999; Act No. 4446; on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771) The Council of State shall try administrative cases, give its opinion within two months on the conditions and the contracts under which concessions are granted concerning public services, settle administrative disputes, and discharge other duties prescribed by law.

(As amended on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771) Three-fourths of the members of the Council of State shall be appointed by the Council of Judges and Prosecutors from among the first category administrative judges and public prosecutors, or those considered to be of this profession; and the remaining quarter by the President of the Republic from among officials meeting the requirements designated by law.

The President, Chief Public Prosecutor, deputy presidents, and heads of departments of the Council of State shall be elected by the General Assembly of the Council of State from among its own members for a term of four years by secret ballot and by an absolute majority of the total number of members. They may be re-elected at the end of their term of office.

The organization and functioning of the Council of State, the qualifications and procedures of election of its President, Chief Public Prosecutor, deputy presidents, heads of departments, and members, shall be regulated by law in accordance with the principles of specific nature of the administrative jurisdiction, and of the independence of the courts and the security of tenure of judges.

Those concerned may file, only for once, a request for reconsideration of a final decision of the Court of Accounts within fifteen days of the date of written notification of the decision. No applications for judicial review of such decisions shall be filed in administrative courts.

In case of conflict between the decisions of the Council of State and the Court of Accounts, regarding taxes, similar financial obligations and duties, the decision of Council of State shall prevail.

(Paragraph added on October 29, 2005; Act No. 5428)
Auditing and final decision on the accounts and acts of local administrations shall be conducted by the Court of Accounts.

The establishment, functioning, auditing procedures, qualifications, appointments, duties and powers, rights and obligations and other personnel matters of the members and guarantees of the President and the members of the Court shall be regulated by law.

(Paragraph repealed on May 7, 2004; Act No. 5170)

PART FOUR

Financial and Economic Provisions

CHAPTER ONE

Financial Provisions

I. Budget

A. Budget and final accounts²⁴

ARTICLE 161- (As amended on October 29, 2005; Act No. 5428, April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771)

²⁴ The heading of this Article, which was stipulated as “A. Preparation and implementation of the budget” was amended by the fifteenth Article of Act No. 6771 dated April 16, 2017.

The expenditure of the State and of public corporations other than state economic enterprises shall be determined by annual budgets.

The beginning of the fiscal year and the preparation, implementation and control of the central government budget and the special periods and procedures for investments as well as works and services expected to last more than one year shall be regulated by law. No provisions other than those pertaining to the budget shall be included in the Budget Act.

The President of the Republic shall submit budget bill to the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye at least seventy-five days before the beginning of the fiscal year. The budget bill shall be debated at the Committee on Budget. The budget bill adopted by the Committee within fifty-five days shall thereafter be debated and adopted by the Plenary before the beginning of the fiscal year.

If the budget law cannot be put into force within due period, the provisional budget law shall be enacted. If the provisional budget law cannot also be enacted, the budget of the previous year shall be applied increasingly as per the revaluation rate until the new budget law is adopted.

Members of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye may express their opinions in the Plenary on budgets of public administrations during the debates on each budget, but shall not make proposals that entail an increase in expenditure or a decrease in revenue.

Budgets of the public administrations and the motions for amendments shall be read out and voted without further debate in the Plenary.

The appropriation granted by the central government budget shall indicate the limit of expenditure allowed. No provision shall be included in the Budget Act to the effect that the limit of expenditure may be exceeded by presidential decree.

In motions of amendment entailing an increase in appropriations under the budget of the current fiscal year and bills entailing financial burden in the budgets of the current or following fiscal year, the financial resources to meet the stated expenditure shall be indicated.

Central government final accounts bills shall be submitted to the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye by the President of the Republic within six months of the end of the relevant fiscal year. The Court of Accounts shall submit its statement of general conformity to the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye within seventy-five days of the submission of the final accounts bill to which it is related.

The submission of the final accounts bills and the statement of general conformity to the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye shall not preclude the auditing and trial of the accounts for the relevant fiscal year that have not been concluded by the Court of Accounts, and shall not mean that a final decision has been taken on these accounts.

The final accounts bill shall be debated and adopted together with the budget bill of the new fiscal year.

B. Debate on the budget

ARTICLE 162- (Repealed on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771)

C. Principles governing budgetary amendments

ARTICLE 163- (Repealed on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771)

D. Final accounts

ARTICLE 164- (Repealed on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771)

E. Scrutiny of state economic enterprises

ARTICLE 165- The principles governing the scrutiny of the accounts of public institutions and partnerships where more than half of the capital directly or indirectly belongs to the State, by the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye, shall be regulated by law.

CHAPTER TWO

Economic Provisions

I. Planning; Economic and Social Council²⁵

ARTICLE 166- Planning the economic, social and cultural development, in particular the rapid, balanced and harmonious development of industry and agriculture throughout the country and the efficient use of national resources by taking inventory of and evaluating them, and the establishment of the necessary organization for this purpose are the duties of the State.

Measures to increase national savings and production, to ensure stability in prices and balance in external payments, to promote investment and employment shall be included in the plan; in investments, public interests and necessities shall be taken into account and the efficient use of resources shall be proposed. Development activities shall be realized according to this plan.

The procedure and principles governing the preparation of development plans, their approval by the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye, their implementation and revision, and the prevention of amendments disrupting the unity of the plan shall be regulated by law.

(Paragraph added on September 12, 2010; Act No. 5982; as amended on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771) The Economic and Social Council shall be established to provide the President of the Republic with consultative opinions in the formulation of economic and social policies. The establishment and functioning of the Economic and Social Council shall be laid down in law.

II. Supervision of markets and regulation of foreign trade

ARTICLE 167- The State shall take measures to ensure and promote the sound and orderly functioning of the markets for money, credit, capital, goods and services; and shall prevent the formation of monopolies and cartels in the markets, emerged in practice or by agreement.

(As amended on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771) In order to regulate foreign trade for the benefit of the economy of the country, President of the Republic may be empowered by law to introduce additional financial impositions on imports, exports and other foreign trade transactions, except taxes and similar impositions, or to lift them.

III. Exploration and exploitation of natural resources

ARTICLE 168- Natural wealth and resources shall be under the authority and at the disposal of the State. The right to explore and exploit these belongs to the State. The State may delegate this right to persons or corporate bodies for a certain period. Of the natural wealth and resources, those to be explored and exploited by the state in partnership with persons or corporate bodies, and those to be directly explored and exploited by persons or corporate bodies shall be subject to the explicit permission of the law. The conditions to be observed in such cases by persons and corporate bodies, the procedure and principles governing supervision and control by the State, and the sanctions to be applied shall be prescribed by law.

IV. Forests and the forest villagers

A. Protection and development of forests

ARTICLE 169- The State shall enact the necessary legislation and take the measures required for the protection and extension of forests. Burnt forest areas shall be reforested; other agricultural and stockbreeding activities shall not be allowed in such areas. All forests shall be under the care and supervision of the State.

The ownership of state forests shall not be transferred. State forests shall be managed and exploited by the State in accordance with the law. Ownership of these forests shall not be acquired by prescription, nor shall servitude other than that in the public interest be imposed in respect of such forests.

Acts and actions that might damage forests shall not be permitted. No political propaganda that might lead to the destruction of forests shall be made; no amnesties or pardons specifically for offences against forests shall be granted. Offences committed with the intention of burning or destroying forests or reducing forest areas shall not be included within the scope of amnesties or pardons.

The reducing of forest areas shall be prohibited, except in respect of areas whose preservation as forests is considered scientifically and technically useless but conversion into agricultural land has been found to be definitely advantageous, and in respect of fields, vineyards, orchards, olive groves or similar areas which technically and scientifically ceased to be forest before December 31, 1981 and whose use for agricultural or stockbreeding purposes has been found advantageous, and in respect of built-up areas in the vicinity of cities, towns or villages.

B. Protection of forest villagers

ARTICLE 170- Measures shall be introduced by law to secure cooperation between the State and the inhabitants of villages located in or near forests in the supervision and exploitation of forests for the purpose of ensuring conservation of forests and their integrity, and improving the living conditions of these inhabitants; the law shall also regulate the exploitation of areas which technically and scientifically ceased to be forests before December 31, 1981; the identification of areas whose preservation as forest is considered scientifically and technically useless, their exclusion from forest boundaries and their improvement by the State for the purpose of settling all or some of the inhabitants of forest villages in them, and their allocation to these villages.

The State shall take measures to facilitate the acquisition of equipment and other inputs by these inhabitants.

The land owned by villagers resettled outside a forest shall immediately be reforested as a State forest.

V. Developing cooperativism

ARTICLE 171- The State shall take measures, in keeping with national economic interests, to ensure the development of cooperativism, which shall be primarily aiming at increase in production and protection of consumers.

(Repealed on July 23, 1995; Act No. 4121)

VI. Protection of consumers, tradespeople and artisans

A. Protection of consumers

ARTICLE 172- The State shall take measures to protect and inform consumers; shall encourage their initiatives to protect themselves.

B. Protection of tradespeople and artisans

ARTICLE 173- The State shall take measures to protect and support tradespeople and artisans.

PART FIVE

Miscellaneous Provisions

I. Preservation of Reform Laws

ARTICLE 174- No provision of the Constitution shall be construed or interpreted as rendering unconstitutional the Reform Laws indicated below, which aim to raise Turkish society above the level of contemporary civilization and to safeguard the secular character of the Republic, and whose provisions were in force on the date of the adoption of the Constitution by referendum:

1. Act No. 430 of March 3, 1340 (1924) on the Unification of the Educational System,

2. Act No. 671 of November 25, 1341 (1925) on the Wearing of Hats,

3. Act No. 677 of November 30, 1341 (1925) on the Closure of Dervish Monasteries and Tombs, the Abolition of the Office of Keeper of Tombs and the Abolition and Prohibition of Certain Titles,

4. The principle of civil marriage according to which the marriage act shall be concluded in the presence of the competent official, adopted with the Turkish Civil Code No. 743 of February 17, 1926, and Article 110 of the Code,

5. Act No. 1288 of May 20, 1928 on the Adoption of International Numerals,

6. Act No. 1353 of November 1, 1928 on the Adoption and Application of the Turkish Alphabet,

7. Act No. 2590 of November 26, 1934 on the Abolition of Titles and Appellations such as Efendi, Bey or Pasha,

8. Act No. 2596 of December 3, 1934 on the Prohibition of the Wearing of Certain Garments.

Provisional Articles

PROVISIONAL ARTICLE 1- On the duly proclamation of the adoption of the Constitution as the Constitution of the Republic of Türkiye by referendum, the Chairperson of the Council of National Security and Head of State at the time of the referendum, shall assume the title of President of the Republic and shall exercise the constitutional functions and powers of the President of the Republic for a period of seven years. The oath taken as Head of State on September 18, 1980 shall remain valid. At the end of the period of seven years, the election for the Presidency of the Republic shall be held in accordance with the provisions set forth in the Constitution.

The President of the Republic shall also hold the chairpersonship of the Council of National Security formed on December 12, 1980, under Act No. 2356, until the convening of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye and the formation of the Bureau following the first general elections.

If the Presidency of the Republic falls vacant for any reason before the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye convenes and assumes its functions at the end of the first general elections, the most senior member of the National Security Council shall act as President of the Republic and exercise all his constitutional functions and powers until the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye convenes and elects a new President of the Republic in accordance with the Constitution.

PROVISIONAL ARTICLE 2- The Council of National Security formed on December 12, 1980 under Act No. 2356 shall continue to exercise its functions under Act No. 2324 on the Constitutional Order and Act No. 2485 on the Constituent Assembly until the convening of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye and the formation of the Bureau following the first general elections held under the Political Parties Act and the Elections Act prepared in accordance with the Constitution.

After the adoption of the Constitution, Article 3 of Act No. 2356 relating to the procedure for winning a seat on the Council of National Security that falls vacant for any reason shall cease to apply.

After the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye has convened and assumed its functions, the Council of National Security shall become the Presidential Council for a period of six years, and the members of the Council of National Security shall acquire the title of members of the Presidential Council. The oath they took on September 18, 1980 as members of the Council of National Security shall remain valid. Members of the Presidential Council shall enjoy the rights and immunities conferred by the Constitution on members of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye. The legal existence of the Presidential Council shall terminate on the expiry of the period of six years.

The functions of the Presidential Council shall be as follows:

a) To examine laws adopted by the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye and submitted to the President of the Republic concerning: the fundamental rights and freedoms and duties set forth in the Constitution, the principle of secularism, the preservation of the reforms of Atatürk, national security and public order, the Turkish Radio and Television Corporation, international treaties, the sending of armed forces to foreign countries and the admission of foreign forces in Türkiye, emergency rule, martial law and the state of war, and other laws deemed necessary by the President of the Republic, within the first ten days of the period of fifteen days granted to the President of the Republic for his consideration;

b) On the request of the President of the Republic and within the period specified by him:

To consider and give an opinion on matters relating to the renewal of general elections, the exercise of emergency rule and the measures to be taken during a state of emergency, the management and supervision of the Turkish Radio and Television Corporation, the training of the youth and the conduct of religious affairs;

c) According to the request of the President of the Republic, to consider and investigate matters relating to internal or external security and such other matters deemed necessary, and to submit its findings to the President of the Republic.

PROVISIONAL ARTICLE 3- On the convening of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye and the formation of the Bureau following the first general elections held in accordance with the Constitution:

a) Act No. 2324 of October 27, 1980 on the Constitutional Order,

b) Act No. 2356 of December 12, 1980 on the Council of National Security,

c) Act No. 2485 of June 29, 1981 on the Constituent Assembly, shall cease to have effect and the legal existence of the Council of National Security and the Consultative Assembly shall terminate.

PROVISIONAL ARTICLE 4- (Repealed on September 6, 1987; Act No. 3361)

PROVISIONAL ARTICLE 5- On the tenth day following proclamation of the results of the first general elections by the Supreme Board of Election, the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye shall convene of its own accord at the building of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye in Ankara at 15.00 hours. The eldest deputy shall preside this session. At this session, the deputies shall take their oaths.

PROVISIONAL ARTICLE 6- Until the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye, formed in accordance with the Constitution, adopts the Rules of Procedure, which shall govern its sessions and proceedings, those provisions of the Rules of Procedure of the National Assembly that were in force before September 12, 1980, and that are not contrary to the Constitution shall apply.

PROVISIONAL ARTICLE 7- The present Council of Ministers shall continue in office until the convening of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye and the formation of the new Council of Ministers following the first general elections.

PROVISIONAL ARTICLE 8- Laws relating to the formation, duties, powers and functioning of the new organs, institutions and agencies established under the Constitution and other laws whose introduction or amendment is provided for in the Constitution, shall be enacted during the period of Constituent Assembly, starting from the date of the adoption of the Constitution; laws that cannot be dealt with during this period shall be enacted within the year following the first session of the newly elected Grand National Assembly of Türkiye.

PROVISIONAL ARTICLE 9- Within a period of six years following the formation of the Bureau of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye, which is to convene after the first general elections, the President of the Republic may send back to the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye any constitutional amendments. In this case, the re-submission of the constitutional amendment in its unchanged form to the President of the Republic by the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye is only possible with a three-fourths majority of the votes of the total number of members.

PROVISIONAL ARTICLE 10- Local elections shall be held within a year of the first session of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye.

PROVISIONAL ARTICLE 11- Regular and substitute members of the Constitutional Court who were in office on the date of the adoption of the Constitution by referendum shall continue to hold office and exercise their functions. The members previously elected by the Constitutional Court to specific offices shall retain the status thus acquired.

No election shall be held to fill the vacant seats of the regular members of the Constitutional Court until the number of these members falls to eleven, nor shall an election be held to fill the vacant seats of substitute members until the total number of regular and substitute members falls to fifteen. Until the Constitutional Court adapts to the new system, the principles and order of precedence set forth in the Constitution shall be observed in the elections which are to be held because the number of regular members has fallen below eleven, or because the total number of regular and substitute members as fallen below fifteen.

Until the number of regular members of the Constitutional Court falls to eleven, the quorum prescribed by Act No. 44 of April 22, 1962, shall be observed in all cases and proceedings.

PROVISIONAL ARTICLE 12- Persons appointed by the Head of State as regular and substitute members of the High Council of Judges and Prosecutors from among the members of the High Court of Appeals and the Council of State under Provisional Article 1 of Act No. 2461 of May 13, 1981, on the High Council of Judges and Prosecutors; as Chief Public Prosecutor and Deputy Chief Public Prosecutor in accordance with the Provisional Article appended to Act No. 1730 on the High Court of Appeals under Act No. 2483 of June 25, 1981; and as President, Chief Public Prosecutor, deputy presidents and heads of division of the Council of State under Provisional Article 14, paragraph 2 of Act No. 2575 of January 6, 1982 on the Council of State shall continue to exercise their functions until the end of the term of office for which they were elected.

The provisions of the provisional articles of Act No. 2576 of 6 January 1982 concerning the appointment of the presidents and members of administrative courts shall also remain in force.

PROVISIONAL ARTICLE 13- The elections of one regular and one substitute member to be elected to the High Council of Judges and Prosecutors from among the members of the High Court of Appeals shall take place in twenty days following the entry into force of the Constitution.

Until the elected members assume the office, the quorum for meetings of the Council shall be met with the participation of substitute members.

PROVISIONAL ARTICLE 14- The obligation of the unions to deposit their revenues in the state banks shall be fulfilled within two years of the entry into force of the Constitution, at the latest.

PROVISIONAL ARTICLE 15- (Repealed on September 12, 2010; Act No. 5982)

PROVISIONAL ARTICLE 16- Persons who fail to participate in the referendum on the Constitution without valid legal or actual reasons despite being entitled to vote and being included in the register of electors and the polling station register compiled for the referendum, shall neither participate nor stand for election in general elections, by-elections, local elections or referendums for a period of five years following the referendum on the Constitution.

PROVISIONAL ARTICLE 17- (Added on May 10, 2007; Act No. 5659)

In the first general elections held after the entry into force of this Act on the addition of a provisional article to the Turkish Constitution, the last paragraph of Article 67 of the Constitution shall not be applied to the provisions of Parliamentary Elections Act No. 2839, dated June 10, 1983, concerning the inclusion of independent candidates on joint ballot paper.

PROVISIONAL ARTICLE 18- (Added on September 12, 2010; Act No. 5982)

The current substitute members of the Constitutional Court shall acquire the status of regular members on the date of entry into force of this Act.

Within thirty days of the date of entry into force of this Act, the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye shall elect one member each from among three candidates nominated by the General Assembly of the Court of Accounts and the heads of bar associations.

In order to nominate candidates for the election of the members to be held by the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye:

a) The President of the Court of Accounts shall announce the beginning of the application process for candidacy within five days of the date of entry into force of this Act. be examined and finalized and the definitive list of candidates shall be announced within two days following the expiry of the objection period. Judges and public prosecutors working in provinces or districts shall vote in elections to be held, under the direction and supervision of the provincial election boards, in each province and district on the second Sunday following the date of announcement of the definitive list by the Supreme Board of Election. The provincial election boards shall establish ballot box committees according to the number of judges and public prosecutors that are to vote in that province. Provincial election boards shall decide on complaints and objections about proceedings, measures, and decisions of the ballot box committees. Candidates shall not conduct campaigns; they may post their résumé on an internet site allocated for this purpose within the framework of the principles and procedures defined by the Supreme Board of Election. The candidates obtaining the greatest number of votes are elected as regular and substitute members respectively. The Supreme Board of Election shall determine other matters concerning the ballot papers. The Supreme Board of Election may have the ballot papers printed or may have these printed through provincial election boards as it may deem appropriate. In the elections to be held, the provisions of the Act No. 298, Basic Rules on Elections and Voting Registers, dated April 4, 1961, that are not in conflict with this subparagraph shall apply.³²

³² The eleventh sentence in the this subparagraph "Each electorate shall vote for only one candidate in this elections." was annulled by the decision of the Constitutional Court dated July 7, 2010 numbered E. 2010/49, K. 2010/87 (Official Gazette numbered 27659 of August 1, 2010).

e) Three regular and two substitute members shall be elected by civil judges and public prosecutors under the direction and supervision of the Supreme Board of Election from among civil judges and public prosecutors who are first category judges and have not lost the qualifications for being first category judges. In the elections, in provinces where there are regional administrative courts, held under the direction and supervision of the provincial election boards, judges and public prosecutors working in these regional administrative courts and in courts subject to authority of those courts shall vote. The provisions of subparagraph (d) shall apply to these elections as well.

The regular members of the High Council of Judges and Prosecutors elected in accordance with subparagraphs (a), (ç), (d) and (e) of the first paragraph, shall begin to hold office on the working day following the date of entry into force of this Act.

Regular and substitute members of the High Council of Judges and Prosecutors elected from the High Court of Appeals and Council of State, incumbent on date of entry into force of this Act, shall continue their duties until the end of their term of office. The members elected in accordance with subparagraph (b) of the first paragraph shall replace, in sequence, the members elected from High Court of Appeals whose term of office have expired, and the members elected in accordance with subparagraph (c) of the first paragraph shall replace, in sequence, the members elected from Council of State whose terms of office have expired.

The term of office of the members elected according to subparagraph (b) and (c) of the first paragraph and who took office in accordance with the third paragraph ends when the term of office of those elected in accordance with subparagraph (a), (ç), (d) and (e) of the first paragraph expires.

Regular members elected to the High Council of Judges and Prosecutors shall have the same financial, social and pension rights determined for the Head of Chamber of the High Court of Appeals in the relevant legislation, until the necessary arrangements are made in related laws. Furthermore, regular members of the Council, except for the President, shall receive additional compensation on a monthly basis in the amount to be calculated by multiplying the index of 30000 by the coefficient applied to salaries of civil servants.

Until arrangements are made in the relevant laws, the High Council of Judges and Prosecutors:

a) Shall operate in the form of a board in accordance with legal provisions in force as long as they are not contrary to the provisions of the Constitution,

b) Shall convene under the presidency of the Minister of Justice within one week following the date of holding office of the regular members in accordance with the second paragraph and shall elect a temporary deputy chairperson,

c) Shall convene with at least fifteen members and take decisions by the absolute majority of the total number of members,

ç) The secretariat functions shall be conducted by the Ministry of Justice.

Until inspectors of the Council and judiciary inspectors are appointed, the existing judiciary inspectors shall carry out their duties under the title of inspector of the Council and judiciary inspector.

The provisions of this Article shall be applied until the necessary arrangements are made in the relevant laws.

PROVISIONAL ARTICLE 20- (Added on May 20, 2016; Act No. 6718)

The deputies about whom a file concerning the lifting of parliamentary immunity has been submitted, by the date of adoption of this article in the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye, to the Ministry of Justice, the Prime Ministry, the Office of the Speaker of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye or to the Office of the Joint Committee composed of the members of the Committee on the Constitution and the Committee on Justice by the authorities competent to investigate or permit investigations or prosecutions and the offices of public prosecutors and the courts, shall be exempt, with respect to such file, from the first sentence of the second paragraph of the Article 83 of the Constitution.

Within fifteen days of the effective date of this article, the files concerning the lifting of parliamentary immunity at the Ministry of Justice, the Prime Ministry, the Office of the Speaker of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye, the Office of the Joint Committee composed of the members of the Committee on the Constitution and the Committee on Justice shall be returned to the competent authority for the execution of the necessary procedure.

PROVISIONAL ARTICLE 21- (Added on April 16, 2017; Act No. 6771)

A) General election for the 27th legislative term of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye and the presidential election shall be held together on 3/11/2019. Members of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye and the President of the Republic shall continue to serve until the election is held. If the Assembly decides to hold an election, general election for the 27th legislative term of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye and the presidential election shall be held together.

B) No later than six months after the promulgation of this Act, the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye shall adopt the Rules of Procedure and other statutory regulations required by the amendments made by this Act. The amendments determined to be regulated by presidential decree shall be regulated by the President of the Republic no later than six months.

C) According to the regulation made in the 159th article of the Constitution, members of the Council of Judges and Prosecutors shall be elected within thirty days at the latest and commence their duty on the workday following the fortieth day after the effective date of this Act. The applications shall be submitted to the Office of the Speaker within five days of the effective date of this Article. The Office of the Speaker shall refer the applications to the Joint Committee composed of the members of the Committee on the Constitution and the Committee on Justice. The Joint Committee shall designate three candidates for each membership by a two-thirds majority of the total number of its members within ten days. If the election cannot be finalized by two-thirds majority in the first ballot, the second and third ballot shall be held; then the candidate who receives the votes of the three-fifth majority of the total number of members shall have been elected. If no candidate receives the vote of three-fifth majority, the process of nomination shall be completed by drawing names from among the candidates twice the number of members who have received the most votes in the third ballot. The Plenary of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye shall complete the election within fifteen days observing the same procedures and quorums. The members of existing High Council of Judges and Public Prosecutors shall continue to hold Office and work in accordance with the provisions of the laws in force until the new members assume office. From among the members whose term of office has expired and who have not been reelected to the Council of Judges and Prosecutors; those having been elected out of civil judges and prosecutors shall be elected by the Council of Judges and Prosecutors, at their request, to the membership of High Court of Appeals and those having been elected out of administrative judges and prosecutors to the membership of Council of State; those having been elected out of teaching staff and lawyers shall be appointed to the membership of the Council of State by the President of the Republic. Such elections and appointments shall be made irrespective of availability of vacant positions; new membership cadres by the number of members so elected or appointed shall be supplemented to the cadres of the Court of Appeals and Council of State.

D) The members of the High Military Court of Appeals and the High Military Administrative Court who have been elected to the membership of the Constitutional Court shall continue their membership until their office terminates for any reason.

E) The High Military Court of Appeals, The High Military Administrative Court and the military courts shall be abolished as of the effective date of this Act.

Within four months of the effective date of this Act; the President, the Attorney-General, the Vice-President and the members of the High Military Court of Appeals and the High Military Administrative Court who belong to the military judge class and other military judges (except reserve officers), taking into account their preferences and acquisitions;

a) may be appointed as judges or public prosecutors in the civil or administrative judiciary by the Council of Judges and Prosecutors.

b) Judges and prosecutors who are similar to civil or administrative judges in terms of salary, supplementary indicator, appropriation, judicial benefit, supplementary payment, financial and social rights and benefits, and with respect to the other rights and obligations by continuing to apply the provisions of the legislation in force as of the effective date of this Act, shall be appointed by the Ministry of National Defense to the legal services staff of the Ministry or to the Chief of the General Staff. The procedures and principles relating to the compensation to be paid to those who are entitled to pension and quit their offices at their own will before they reach the age limit shall be regulated by law.

Among the files in process at the abolished military judicial offices; those in the legal remedy stage shall be sent to the High Court of Appeals or the Council of State; and other files to the competent civil or administrative judicial authorities according to their relevance within four months.

F) The decrees having the force of law, regulations, by-laws issued by the Prime Ministry and the Council of Ministers and other administrative regulations that are in force as of the effective date of this Act shall remain in force unless they are repealed. The articles 152 and 153 shall continue to be applied to the decrees having the force of law that are in force.

G) The powers granted to the Prime Minister and the Council of Ministers by laws and other regulations shall be exercised by the President of the Republic, until amendments are made to the relevant legislation.

H) The last paragraph of the Article 67 of the Constitution shall not apply to the first election of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye and the presidential election which will be held simultaneously after the effective date of this Act.

PART SEVEN
Final Provisions

I. Amending the Constitution, participation in elections and referenda

ARTICLE 175- (As amended on May 17, 1987; Act No. 3361) Amendment to the Constitution shall be proposed in writing by at least one-third of the total number of members of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye. Bills to amend the Constitution shall be debated twice in the Plenary. The adoption of a bill for an amendment shall require a three-fifths majority of the total number of members of the Assembly by secret ballot.

The consideration and adoption of bills for the amendments to the Constitution shall be subject to the provisions governing the consideration and adoption of laws, with the exception of the conditions set forth in this Article.

The President of the Republic may send back the laws on the amendments to the Constitution to the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye for reconsideration. If the Assembly readopts, by a two-thirds majority of the total number of members, the law sent back by the President of the Republic without any amendment, the President of the Republic may submit the law to referendum.

If a law on the amendment to the Constitution is adopted by a three-fifths or less than two-thirds majority of the total number of members of the Assembly and is not sent back by the President of the Republic to the Assembly for reconsideration, it shall be published in the Official Gazette and be submitted to referendum.

A law on the Constitutional amendment adopted by a two-thirds majority of the total number of members of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye directly or upon the sending back of the law by the President of the Republic or its articles deemed necessary may be submitted to a referendum by the President of the Republic. A law on the amendment to the Constitution or the related articles that are not submitted to referendum shall be published in the Official Gazette.

Entry into force of the laws on the amendment to the Constitution submitted to referendum shall require the affirmative vote of more than half of the valid votes cast.

The Grand National Assembly of Türkiye, in adopting the law on the Constitutional amendment shall also decide on which provisions shall be submitted to referendum together and which shall be submitted individually, in case the law is submitted to referendum.

Every measure including fines shall be taken by law to secure participation in referenda, general elections, by-elections and local elections.

II. Preamble and headings of articles

ARTICLE 176- The preamble, which states the basic views and principles the Constitution is based on, shall form an integral part of the Constitution.

The headings of articles merely indicate the subject matter of the articles, their order, and the connections between them. These headings shall not be regarded as a part of the text of the Constitution.

III. Entry into force of the Constitution

ARTICLE 177- On its adoption by referendum and its publication in the Official Gazette, this Constitution shall become the Constitution of the Republic of Türkiye and shall come into force in its entirety, subject to the following exceptions and the provisions relating to entry into force of these exceptions:

a) The provisions of Part Two Chapter II relating to personal liberty and security, the press and publication, and the right and freedom of assembly.

The provisions of Chapter III relating to labour, collective labour agreements, the right to strike, and lockout.

These provisions shall come into force when the relevant laws are promulgated, or when the existing laws are amended, and in any case, at the latest, when the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye assumes its functions. However, until their entry into force, existing laws and the decrees and decisions of the Council of National Security shall apply.

b) The provisions of Part Two relating to political parties and the right to engage in political activities, shall come into force on the promulgation of the new Political Parties Act, which is to be prepared in accordance with these provisions.

The provisions on right to vote and to be elected shall come into force on the promulgation of the Elections Act also to be prepared in accordance with these provisions.

c) The provisions of Part Three, relating to legislative power:

These provisions shall come into force on the proclamation of the results of the first general elections. However, the provisions relating to the functions and powers of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye which take place in this section shall be exercised by the Council of National Security until the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye assumes its functions; the provisions of Act No. 2485 of June 29, 1981 on the Constituent Assembly being reserved.

d) The provisions of Part Three relating to the functions and powers of the President of the Republic and to the State Supervisory Council under the heading “President of the Republic”; to regulations, National Defence, procedures governing emergency rule under the heading “Council of Ministers”; to all other provisions under the heading “Administration”, except local administration, and except the Atatürk High Institution of Culture, Language and History; and all the provisions relating to the judiciary, except the State Security Courts, shall come into force on publication in the Official Gazette of the adoption by referendum of the Constitution. The provisions concerning the President of the Republic and the Council of Ministers which have not gone into effect shall come into force when the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye assumes its functions; the provisions relating to local administrations and to the State Security Courts shall come into force on the promulgation of the relevant laws.

e) If new legislation, or amendments to existing legislation are required in connection with the constitutional provisions which are to come into force on the proclamation of the adoption by referendum of the Constitution or in connection with existing or future institutions, organizations and agencies, the procedure to be followed shall be subject to those provisions of existing laws which are not unconstitutional, or to the provisions of the Constitution, in accordance with Article 11 of the Constitution.

f) The provision of second paragraph of Article 164 regulating the procedure for the consideration of final accounts bill shall come into force in 1984.

PART ONE

General Provisions and Definitions

Term, legislative year, session and sitting

ARTICLE 1- A legislative term, which is the period between the two general elections, is five years, unless it is extended in accordance with the Constitution, or the elections are renewed.

A legislative year is the period that starts on October 1st and ends on September 30th.

A session is the meeting of the Plenary on a certain day.

A sitting is each part of a session between suspensions.

Total number of members

ARTICLE 2- The total number of members is six hundred. Vacancy in the membership of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye does not change the total number of members.

However, for the elections prescribed in this Rules of Procedure, the number calculated by subtracting the number of vacant seats from the total number of members is taken as the basis for calculation of the percentage ratios of the political party groups and members that are not affiliated with political party groups.

First meeting, oath-taking, and taking office

ARTICLE 3- The Plenary of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye convenes without summons at 2 p.m. on the third day following the announcement of the final results of general elections by the Supreme Board of Election. In this session, the ceremony for the oath-taking of deputies is conducted first.

Oath-taking is conducted by each deputy exactly reading out the text in the Constitution at the rostrum.

Deputies take oath in the alphabetical order of their electoral district, last name, and names.

Deputies absent at the oath-taking ceremony or those, who are elected deputy in by-election, take oath at the beginning of the first session they participate.

Deputies take office by taking oath. Deputies, who refrain from taking oath, shall not benefit from the rights arising from the title of deputy.

Deputies of the President of the Republic and ministers take oath at the first session held after the date of their appointment.

Commencement of legislative year

ARTICLE 4- The Grand National Assembly of Türkiye, except for the case written in the Article 3, convenes on the first day of every October without summons.

Recess

ARTICLE 5- Recess is postponement of the activities of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye for a certain period.

The Grand National Assembly of Türkiye goes into recess on July 1st, unless a different decision is taken by the Plenary, upon the proposal of the Board of Spokespersons.

Duration of recess for one legislative year shall not be more than three months.

Adjournment

ARTICLE 6- Adjournment is the postponement of the activities of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye for not more than fifteen days.

The Grand National Assembly of Türkiye takes an adjournment decision after taking the opinion of the Board of Spokespersons through the voting of the proposal at the Plenary.

Meeting during recess or adjournment

ARTICLE 7- If summoned by the President of the Republic or by the Speaker of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye during adjournment or recess, the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye shall convene on specified date and time.

The Speaker of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye may summon the Assembly directly, as he/she may deem necessary. The Speaker fulfils a request for summons in a reasoned motion signed by one-fifth of the members in seven days at the latest.

In summons, it is mandatory to denote the date and time of the meeting and the subject matter that necessitates the meeting.

In case the session is opened with quorum, the Speaker first has the summons read and the subject matter of the meeting is discussed. Once the required proceedings for the subject are completed, the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye goes back to recess or adjournment unless the Assembly decides to continue its activities. The summons is dismissed if quorum is not met.

PART TWO

Composition of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye

CHAPTER ONE

Bureau of the Assembly

Provisional Bureau

ARTICLE 8- Starting from the first sitting of the first session of legislative term the oldest deputy performs as the Interim Speaker until the Speaker is elected. The second oldest member acts as the Interim Vice-Speaker.

The youngest six members perform as secretaries temporarily.

Composition of the Bureau

ARTICLE 9- The Bureau of the Assembly shall be composed of a Speaker; four vice-speakers; seven secretaries; and three quaestors.

When necessary, the Plenary may increase the number of the secretaries or quaestors upon the proposal of the Board of Spokespersons.

Election of the Speaker and term of office

ARTICLE 10- Two elections are held for the Office of the Speaker in the course of a legislative term. Term of office for the first elected Speaker is two years, and term of office for the second elected Speaker is three years.

Political party groups shall not nominate candidates for the Office of the Speaker.

The candidates for the Speaker of Grand National Assembly of Türkiye are submitted to the Bureau within five days starting after the first meeting of the Assembly following the general elections or starting ten days before the end of the term of office of the Speaker for the election of the second term, and the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye convenes on its own on the election day. The Speaker is elected by secret ballot. Two-thirds of the total number of members for the first two ballots and absolute majority of the total number of members for the third ballot are required. In case absolute majority cannot be obtained in the third ballot, a fourth voting takes place between the two candidates who got the most votes in the third ballot; the candidate receiving the highest number of votes in the fourth ballot is elected as the Speaker. The election of the Speaker is concluded within five days following the end of the period for nomination.

Representation of party groups in the Bureau

ARTICLE 11- The Speaker of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye determines the percentages of political party groups over the total number of party groups and the number of positions in the Bureau per each political party group according to these percentages and submits them to the Board of Spokespersons.

The positions in the Bureau for the vice-speakers, two of which are reserved for the political party group having the absolute majority in the National Assembly of Türkiye, are allocated to the party groups starting from the one with highest percentage.

The positions for the secretaries and quaestors are decided by the Plenary after consulting with the Board of Spokesperson.

Political party groups submit their candidates for the positions awarded to them. The election is completed with the voting of the list of candidates by the Plenary through voting by show of hands.

Two elections are held for the vice-speakers, secretaries, and quaestors of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye in a legislative term. Term of office for the first elected members is two years, and term of office for the second elected members is three years. In case of vacancy of any of these positions for any reason, the new member of Bureau completes the term of office of the former.

Vacancy in the Bureau

ARTICLE 12- In case of vacancy of the Speaker, the oldest vice-speaker becomes the Interim Speaker.

In case of vacancy of the other members of the Bureau, the duties and powers of the Bureau remain as it is until the vacancy is filled.

Vacancy is filled in the shortest time.

The office in the Bureau of a member whose membership of his/her political party ends, or whose political party no longer has the right to form a group in the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye automatically ends. In this case, the provision in the paragraph above is applied.

In case a change occurs in the percentages of the political party groups in the Plenary and the new percentages do not correspond to the number of members and positions owned by the political party groups in the Bureau, the Speaker determines this situation. Thereupon, necessary action is taken in accordance with the Article 11.

Duties of the Bureau

ARTICLE 13- The Bureau performs the duties designated by laws and the Rules of Procedure.

In case it is claimed that a significant mistake was made in a voting or election in the Plenary, the Speaker may start a procedural debate and make the correction, if necessary, through voting. If the mistake is noticed after the session, the Speaker summons the Bureau and decides on the action to be taken.

The Speaker may take the opinion of the Bureau for the duties designated for him, if he deems necessary.

The quorum for meeting of the Bureau is the absolute majority of the total number of members and the quorum for decision is the absolute majority of the members present.

However, for the complaints concerning the tasks undertaken by members of the Bureau individually, the quorum for meeting is the total number of members of the Bureau excluding the member about whom a complaint has been made.

The Bureau shall not convene or take decisions without the presence of the Speaker or the Vice-Speaker assigned by the Speaker.

Duties of the Speaker

ARTICLE 14- The duties of the Speaker are as follows:

1. To represent the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye outside the Assembly;
2. To preside over the Plenary Meetings;
3. To oversee the recording of minutes and preparation of the Journal of Minutes;

4. To chair the Bureau and to draw up the agenda of the Bureau;
5. To chair the Board of Spokespersons;
6. To oversee the committees of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye; to warn the chairpersons and members of the committees and inform the Plenary in case of a backlog in the committees;
7. To implement the decisions of the Bureau;
8. To execute and scrutinize the administrative and financial affairs and the security services of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye;
9. To make arrangements and publications to promote the Assembly and its works throughout the country and abroad, through the “Culture, Art and Publications Board of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye” to be established within the Bureau;
10. To perform the duties given to him/her by the Constitution, the laws, and the Rules of Procedure.

When the Speaker has an excuse or is out of Ankara while the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye is meeting, the Speaker delegates one of the vice-speakers in writing to perform the Speaker’s duties.

The Speaker resides in the official residence reserved for the Office of the Speaker.

Duties of the vice-speakers

ARTICLE 15- The duty of the vice-speaker is to preside over the Plenary Meetings on behalf of the Speaker and to oversee the preparation of the minutes and the Journal of Minutes concerning the sittings chaired by the vice-speaker.

The Speaker decides which sessions or sittings are to be chaired by the vice-speakers.

Duties of the secretaries

ARTICLE 16- The duties of the secretary members are as follows:

1. To supervise the recording of the minutes;
2. To draw up summary of the minutes;
3. To read out documents in the Plenary;
4. To call the roll;
5. To count votes;
6. To oversee the elections to be conducted in order and integrity;
7. To record the order of speech.

Duties of quaestors

ARTICLE 17- The duties of the quaestors are as follows:

1. To assist the Speaker of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye, in carrying out the administrative and financial affairs and the security services, in accordance with the Speaker's directions;
2. To conduct special ceremonies;
3. To present proposals for the budget of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye to the Speaker;
4. To hand out regular and special entrance cards.

Quaestors are the executive agents of the Office of the Speaker in maintaining peace and order, assuring transparency and freedom of the meetings and calling the police into action when necessary; they perform their duty and authority in collective responsibility; they reside in Ankara in turn during recess or adjournment, and the Speaker decides on the order of their turn.

CHAPTER TWO

Political Party Groups and Board of Spokespersons

Establishment of political party groups

ARTICLE 18- Political parties with twenty deputies at least have the right to establish groups in the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye.

Political party groups present their internal regulations after initial formation and the list containing the names, last names and electoral district of the deputies of the group to the Office of the Speaker at the beginning of each legislative term.

The same procedure is followed for the changes, as soon as possible.

Board of Spokespersons

ARTICLE 19- The Board of Spokespersons is established under chairpersonship of the Speaker of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye or the vice-speaker assigned by the Speaker with the chairpersons or vice-chairpersons of the political party groups.

The Board of Spokespersons performs the duties designated by the Rules of Procedure and gives advisory opinion upon the request of the Speaker.

The vice-speakers may be invited to the Board of Spokespersons if necessary.

The Speaker calls the Board of Spokespersons to meeting when he deems it necessary or upon the request of a political party group chairperson within twenty-four hours at the latest.

In all occasions bound in the Rules of Procedure to the decisions, proposals, or opinions of the Board of Spokespersons, if the Board of Spokespersons cannot convene in the first call or provide a decision, proposal, or opinion unanimously, the Speaker or the political party groups may individually bring their request to the Plenary directly. In this case, the voting for the request is included in the presentations of the Office of the Speaker in the agenda of the first session. The proposals of the Board of Spokespersons are voted without deliberations. In case of a group proposal, a deputy from the group presenting the proposal may explain the justification of the proposal within five minutes. After explanation, one deputy from each other groups may take the floor for three minutes. The Plenary takes a decision by show of hands on the proposals of the Board of Spokespersons and groups.

CHAPTER THREE

Committees

Committee names

ARTICLE 20- List of Standing Committees:

1. The Committee on the Constitution
2. The Committee on Justice
3. The Committee on National Defence
4. The Committee on Internal Affairs
5. The Committee on Foreign Affairs
6. The Committee on National Education, Culture, Youth, and Sport
7. The Committee on Public Works, Reconstruction, Transportation, and Tourism
8. The Committee on Environment
9. The Committee on Health, Family, Labour, and Social Affairs
10. The Committee on Agriculture, Forestry, and Rural Affairs
11. The Committee on Industry, Trade, Energy, Natural Resources, Information and Technology
12. The Committee on Auditing of Accounts of the Assembly
13. The Committee on Petitions
14. The Committee on Plan and Budget
15. The Committee on State Economic Enterprises
16. The Committee on Human Rights Inquiry

The number of members of each committee except those enumerated in subparagraphs (14) and (15) are determined by the Plenary through show of hands on the proposal of the Boards of Spokespersons.

Two elections are held for the committees in the course of a legislative term. Term of office of the first elected members is two years, and three years for those elected in the second term. The members continue to serve until election of the new members.

Representation of the party groups in the committees

ARTICLE 21- The Speaker determines the number of committee members allocated to each political party group in accordance with the percentages specified in the first provision of the Article 11.

A political party group can relinquish its allocated seats in any committee.

The political party groups notify of their candidates to the Office of the Speaker in a prescribed period. Elections for all committees are completed upon approval by the Plenary of lists of the candidates submitted by their groups through voting by show of hands.

Members of the Bureau of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye cannot serve in the Committees of the Assembly.

A political party group may notify another name out of its allocated quota instead of a member elected by the Plenary. In this case, the Plenary makes an election by show of hands.

Vacancy in the committee membership

ARTICLE 22- In case of vacancy in a committee membership the committee shall continue to perform its duties and powers until the new members are elected.

The vacancy is filled as soon as possible.

Committee membership of a deputy who ceases to be a member of a political party, or whose party loses its right to form a group in the Assembly, ends automatically.

In case a change occurs in the percentages of the political party groups in the Plenary and the new percentages do not correspond to the number of members owned by the political party groups in the committees, the Speaker determines this situation. Thereupon, necessary action is taken in accordance with the Article 21.

Referral to committees, primary and secondary committees

ARTICLE 23- The Office of the Speaker decides on the committees in which private members' bills or Presidential decrees issued in relation to the state of emergency during the state of emergency should be debated, and designates the committees as primary and secondary, during referral of the matter to the committees.

The committee whose report will constitute the basic document for the Plenary debates is called the primary committee. Secondary committees are those that present their opinions on the parts or articles of the matter, within the remit of the committee.

The matter is referred to the primary committee and other committees simultaneously by the Office of the Speaker.

If the aspects and articles on which the secondary committees are supposed to express their opinions are not specified in the referral, the secondary committees will present their views on topics they deem related to them.

The failure of the secondary committees to submit their report within the prescribed period does not constitute an obstacle for the primary committee to conclude its report.

Election of the chairperson, vice-chairperson, spokesperson and secretary

ARTICLE 24- Upon completion of the election of the members, the committees are called for meeting by the Speaker of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye.

In the meetings, each committee elects its chairperson, vicechairperson, spokesperson, and secretary.

Quorum for this election is the absolute majority of total number of the committee members. The election is conducted by secret ballot. The vote of the absolute majority of the members present is required to be elected.

If necessary, special spokespersons or a special secretary is elected for a certain subject by the vote of the absolute majority of the members present in the meeting upon the proposal of chairperson.

Working of committees during recess and adjournment

ARTICLE 25- Upon the proposal of the Speaker, the Plenary determines the committees that will work during the recess and adjournment.

Summoning of committees

ARTICLE 26- Committees are called for meetings by their chairpersons.

The call is announced at least two days before the meeting, unless otherwise is necessary. The agenda drawn up by the chairperson is also included in this call. However, the committee has the final say over the agenda and decides on the subjects of the agenda as offered by the members.

This call and the agenda are announced to the committee members, the Office of Presidency of the Republic, party groups, the relevant committees and the first signatory among the members of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye whose bill is included into the agenda, and posted on the institutional website and electronic notice board on the same day.

The chairperson also calls the committee for a meeting upon the proposed agenda of one-third of the members.

Chairperson, quorum and majority for decision

ARTICLE 27- The chairperson presides over the committee. In the absence of the chairperson, and the vice-chairperson, the spokesperson presides over the committee.

Committees convene with one-third of its total number of members and decide by the absolute majority of the members present.

Attendance in committees

ARTICLE 28- Members are obliged to attend the committee meetings. Committee attendance lists are presented to the Office of the Speaker and to the offices of political party groups.

The member who fails to attend committee meetings three times in a row or in one-third of the meetings in a year, without leave or any valid excuse, may be withdrawn from the committee by his/her political party.

The vacant position emerged thusly is filled as soon as possible.

Taking the floor in committees

ARTICLE 29- The floor is given in sequence of request.

The chairperson and in case of attending in committee, deputies of the President of the Republic, ministers, deputy ministers, and high ranking executives may speak notwithstanding order of speech. The chairperson gives the floor to the experts invited by the committee as he may deem necessary.

Representation of the Executive in committees and inviting experts

ARTICLE 30- Deputies of the President of the Republic, ministers, deputy ministers, and high ranking executives may also attend committee meetings.

Committees may invite experts in order to consult their views.

Those entitled to attend the committee meetings

ARTICLE 31- Committee meetings are open to the members of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye, deputies of the President of the Republic, ministers, deputy ministers, and high ranking executives.

Members of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye and on behalf of the Executive, deputies of the President of the Republic, ministers, and deputy ministers may take the floor in the committees. However, no one may table a motion of amendments or vote except the committee members.

Every deputy may view and read documents of any committee, whether he/she is a member of that committee, or not.

Closed sittings of committees

ARTICLE 32- One-third of the members of the committees may request a closed sitting.

No one may attend the closed sitting other than members of the committee, deputies of the President of the Republic, and ministers as well as deputy ministers and high ranking executives whom the committee chairperson deems appropriate.

Holding a closed sitting means that there is a pledge that the discussions will be kept secret.

Minutes of committees

ARTICLE 33- Secretary of committee prepares a summary of the minutes of the debates and signs it together with the chairperson.

The members present in the sitting may add their written objections to the summary of the minutes, if they have any.

In the absence of the secretary of committee, the youngest member present acts as the secretary temporarily.

If the committee so decides, a full minute is recorded.

Taking and giving opinions

ARTICLE 34- If a committee views private members' bill referred to it within the remit of another committee, it may ask for the referral of the bills to that committee through a justification.

If a committee deems it necessary to take the opinion of another committee on a private members' bill or a particular matter referred to it, the committee may ask for the return of the bill after that particular committee debates on it.

If a committee considers giving its opinion beneficial on a private members' bill, or any particular matter referred to another committee, the committee may ask for the referral of the bill to itself.

In such cases, if the two relevant committees are of the same opinion, the Speaker acts accordingly and informs the Plenary.

In case of a conflict between the two committees, the matter is submitted by the Speaker to the Plenary and solved through debate.

Powers of committees, venue and time of meetings

ARTICLE 35- Committees may adopt or reject private members' bills referred to them either as such or by amending them; they may debate the ones that they consider relevant by combining them; and they meet in the halls assigned to them by the Office of the Speaker in the building of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye.

However, committees may not propose private members' bills, they may not be engaged in matters other than those assigned to them; they may not hold sessions during the meeting hours of the Plenary without the decision of the Bureau, and they may not submit private members' bills to the Plenary by dividing them into separate texts.

Committees may debate only the articles deemed unsuitable of the laws found partly unsuitable to promulgate and sent back to the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye by the President of the Republic for reconsideration. In this case, debate is held only on the articles which have been deemed unsuitable.

Waiting period

ARTICLE 36- Committees may start debating the matters referred to them only forty-eight hours after the date of referral. The document referred to the Committee may be distributed to the Committee members within working hours or working time of the Plenary through printing by the office of committee chairperson or by means of electronic communication channels. In this case, the prescribed period starts from the date of distribution.

Upon the recommendation of the Board of Spokespersons or in case of withdrawal or return of a part or the whole of private members' bill, the period mentioned in the paragraph above may be not applied.

Period of deliberation in committees

ARTICLE 37- Private members' bills shall be concluded in the committees within forty-five days from the date of their referral to the primary committees.

Owners of the private members' bills may ask bills to be included on the agenda of the Plenary at the end of this prescribed period. Upon this request, the committee, and the owner of the bill may take the floor up to five minutes. The Plenary votes by show of hands. These requests are processed once every week on Tuesday. A deputy may not table such a request more than once in a legislative year.

A matter referred by the Office of the Speaker also to secondary committees besides the primary committee shall be concluded within ten days by the secondary committees. This period may be shortened by the Office of the Speaker as it may be extended for ten days at most upon the application of the secondary committee.

Examination of compatibility with the Constitution

ARTICLE 38- The committees are responsible for examining the compatibility of private members' bill with the letter and spirit of the Constitution in the first place.

If a committee considers a private members' bill incompatible with the Constitution, it rejects the bill without debating the articles by stating the justifications.

Deferral

ARTICLE 39- (Repealed on October 9, 2018; Resolution No. 1200/25)

Informing the Prime Ministry

ARTICLE 40- (Repealed on October 9, 2018; Resolution No. 1200/25)

Correspondence with ministries

ARTICLE 41- Committees may directly correspond with any ministry and request necessary information from the ministries to conclude the matters referred to them.

Committee reports

ARTICLE 42- Committees draw up reports for the matters they conclude. The report is written by the chairperson, spokesperson or by the spokesperson elected for that particular matter. Views of the committee and the justifications of the amendments made by the committee are included in the report.

Committee members participating in the final vote sign the reports.

Committee members who have participated in the previous meetings but have been unable to participate in the final vote on the whole of private members' bills may sign the report by adding their dissenting opinion, if any. Non-attendance of these members in the last meeting is recorded in the notes.

The committee member who has signed the committee report cannot ask any questions to the spokesperson or make a statement contrary to the report in other committees or in the Plenary, except about the points in the committee report he/she has objected to or abstained from in writing.

Committee reports are printed and distributed to the deputies and added to the minutes of the first Plenary session in which the debate on the reports start.

Committee members who are opposed or abstain from, on the whole or in some part of the committee report, have the right to add their views to the report. These members are obliged to note the articles of the private members' bill that they oppose.

Even if the members concur with the report, they also have the right to add their views not included in the report. However, they should exercise this right within the time specified by the chairperson.

Reconsideration in the committees

ARTICLE 43- Before ending the debate over an item on the agenda, the committee may decide on the reconsideration of that particular point by the vote of the absolute majority of the members present.

After the committee completes the debate over an item on the agenda and before the report is submitted to the Office of the Speaker, reconsideration of the same is allowed only once, upon the justified and written demand by the absolute majority of the total number of committee members.

Adoption of former report

ARTICLE 44- In case a committee whose election is renewed does not notify the Office of the Speaker that it will take a new decision about a previously submitted report at the latest within a month after the division of duties, it is deemed to have adopted the former report.

Representation of the committees in the Plenary

ARTICLE 45- Committees are represented by their chairperson, vice-chairperson, or spokesperson(s) who have been particularly elected for that matter.

In case a number of committee members enough for quorum is not present at the seats reserved for the committees in the Plenary, the committee representative may ask rejection of the motions of amendment or withdrawal to the committee.

Order in the committee meetings

ARTICLE 46- The chairperson maintains the order in case the speeches are interrupted, offending remarks are uttered about personalities, and the order is disrupted. If necessary, he may suspend the meeting or postpone it by notifying the case to the Speaker to take the necessary action.

Committees' bulletin

ARTICLE 47- The Office of the Speaker publishes committees' bulletin twice a year. The current stages of the matters referred to the committees, withdrawn by the committees from the Plenary, or given back to the committees by the Plenary are stated in the bulletin. The bulletin is attached to the Plenary minutes.

Committee documents to be archived

ARTICLE 48- After the subject is concluded by the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye, the dossiers referred to the committees, along with the minutes of committees related to these matters, correspondence by the office of the committee, and motions are submitted to the Office of the Speaker in order to be archived.

PART THREE Activities of the Plenary

Agenda

ARTICLE 49- The agenda of the Plenary of Grand National Assembly of Türkiye is composed of the following sections:

1. Presentations of the Office of the Speaker to the Plenary
2. Items to be included in special agenda
3. Election
4. Items to be voted upon
5. Parliamentary investigation reports
6. Preliminary debates concerning the conduct of general debate and parliamentary inquiry
7. Private members' bills and other matters submitted by the committees

Upon the suggestion of the Board of Spokespersons and approval of the Plenary, a certain amount of time may be reserved on a certain weekday for the section 6.

A certain day of the week may be reserved for elections and votes for sections 3 and 4.

The order of debate for the matters in the agenda is determined in accordance with the date they are received by the Office of the Speaker.

In case deemed necessary by the Office of the Speaker, a proposal for the order of debate for the matters addressed in section 7 may be presented to the Plenary by the Board of Spokespersons. The requests of primary committees, and owners of the private members' bills on the subject matter are also discussed in the Board of Spokespersons.

The opinion of the Board of Spokespersons on the subject matter is submitted to the Plenary for approval.

When closing the session, the Speaker informs the Plenary about items in the agenda to be discussed in following session(s). This matter is also announced on the electronic notice board.

Unless a decision is taken by the Plenary after receiving the opinion of the Board of Spokespersons, any issue not announced by the Speaker in advance shall not be debated in the Plenary.

Special agenda

ARTICLE 50- The Board of Spokespersons may determine a special agenda, including one or more specific items to be concluded in certain period, and days for debating them, as the statutory provisions of the Constitution and Rules of Procedure require. These items follow the presentation of the Office of the Speaker in the special agenda. Items determined according to the general provisions follow the items of the special agenda.

Order paper

ARTICLE 51- Private members' bills, official communications and memoranda and committee reports and motions of written question, general debate, parliamentary inquiry and parliamentary investigation are published in the order paper. Those that are sent to the Plenary are separately stated in the order paper. The dates the Office of the Speaker receives them are also shown separately.

Order paper, except recess, Saturdays and Sundays, is daily published on the official website of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye and added to the minutes of first session.

Waiting period in the Plenary

ARTICLE 52- A committee report or any text sent to the Plenary, unless a decision to the contrary is taken, may not be debated before forty-eight hours have elapsed from the date of distribution.

The primary committee may ask the Plenary with a justification to include an item in the agenda, to prioritize one of the private members' bills, and the other matters coming from committees, and to make it the first item in this section before forty-eight hours have elapsed. In this case, the Plenary decides by a show of hands.

Acknowledgement, felicitation and entreaty

ARTICLE 53- Writings and telegraphs concerning matters such as felicitation, acknowledgement, appreciation, and entreaty are posted on the notice board and annexed to the minutes wholly, as a summary, or only by mentioning them.

The Bureau determines the situations where the Plenary is required to observe moment of silence.

Meeting days

ARTICLE 54- Unless it coincides with public holidays, the Plenary of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye meets on Tuesdays from 3 p.m. to 9 p.m. and on Wednesdays and Thursdays from 2 p.m. to 9 p.m. The television broadcasting to be made by means of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye shall be subject to sitting days and hours regulated hereby except for important and exceptional cases.

Upon the proposal of the Board of Spokespersons, the Plenary may change meeting week, day and hours and may decide to meet on other days as well.

Opening and closing of session

ARTICLE 55- The Speaker opens the sitting and closes it, if required. During the sitting, the Speaker and secretaries' seats in the rostrum shall not be left unseated.

When necessary, extension of the sitting may be decided by the Plenary as long as it is only valid for that session, and with the purpose of completion of works about to finish.

Dress code

ARTICLE 56- At the rostrum, the Speaker and secretaries on duty shall wear dark suits. In the Hall of the Plenary, deputies, ministers, civil servants of the Secretariat of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye, and other public officials, if male, are obliged to wear jacket, trousers and tie, and if female, jacket and skirt or jacket and trousers.

Dress code of ushers shall be determined by the Bureau.

Roll call

ARTICLE 57- If the Speaker hesitates while opening the session, he/she shall call the roll.

During the voting of memoranda and acts, twenty deputies might ask for a roll call by standing up or tabling a motion before the voting by show of hands is conducted.

The roll call is executed by pushing the electronic vote button or by presenting a signed paper. The Speaker presiding the session and other members of the Bureau of the Assembly shall be included in the meeting quorum.

If, as a result of the roll call, it is seen that at least one-third of the members are absent, the session shall be delayed for one hour at the latest. If the quorum is not present by then, the session is then closed.

Correction of minutes of the previous session

ARTICLE 58- If a deputy or minister asks his/her statement included in the minutes of the previous session to be corrected, he/she submits such request in written to the Speaker. This request is added to the session minutes.

Speech out of agenda

ARTICLE 59- In extraordinarily urgent circumstances considered necessary to be announced to the Plenary, three deputies at most are allowed to speak out of agenda, for a period not exceeding five minutes each, at the discretion of the Speaker.

In case the President of the Republic, deputies of the President of the Republic and ministers request to speak out of agenda in extraordinarily urgent circumstances, the Speaker meets this demand. Following the statement of the President of the Republic, deputies of the President of the Republic and ministers, each political party group is entitled to speak once for a period not exceeding ten minutes. One of the deputies from among those who are not affiliated with any political party group is also allowed to speak for a period not exceeding five minutes.

Taking the floor, speeches and written speeches

ARTICLE 60- No one has a right to speak unless his/her name is enrolled or he/she is granted leave to speak by the Speaker during the sitting.

Secretaries may not enroll demands of taking the floor except for the issues in the agenda or issues to be debated on a particular day pursuant to the Constitution, laws or the Rules of Procedure.

Speech is delivered addressing the Speaker and the Plenary from the rostrum.

The Speaker may let a deputy with a demand of a very short speech take the floor from his/her seat.

It is allowed to read a speech text from the rostrum or, with the permission of the Speaker, to have a secretary read it.

Any deputy who wants to ask a question to Committee during the debate shall do so at their seats.

Following speeches, questions are asked in turn.

Unless another time is specified in the Rules of Procedure, or the Plenary decides otherwise upon the proposal of Board of Spokespersons, time allotted for speeches on behalf of political party groups and committees is limited to twenty minutes, and ten minutes for deputies. Time allotted for the second round of speeches is half of the first.

Order of speech and changing the order of speech

ARTICLE 61- The floor is given in sequence of enrollment or requests.

The Plenary, if it deems necessary, may give the floor in favor of, against, or over the matter, in sequence.

The Speaker has the names of the deputies read out before the debate begins, according to the order of the speeches.

Priority of speech is given to the primary committees and political party groups. The priority belongs to the primary committee, and political party groups in sequence. Political party groups are given the floor in sequence of requests.

Spokespersons of party groups shall submit their credentials to the Office of the Speaker.

The last speech belongs to deputies.

A deputy may assign his/her turn to another deputy. A deputy who has assigned his/her turn to another deputy may speak in the turn of the deputy enjoying the waiver.

Representing the Executive

ARTICLE 62- The presentation speech on budget shall be performed by a deputy of the President of the Republic or a minister on behalf of the Executive.

Deputies of the President of the Republic and ministers may be present and express opinions on behalf of the Executive at the Plenary during the debates on budget bill and final accounts bill.

Deputies of the President of the Republic, ministers, or, in compulsory situations, deputy ministers or high ranking executives may attend the Plenary sessions in order to give a briefing upon the invitation by the Speaker in cases specified in the Article 119 of the Constitution.

The President of the Court of Accounts, a head of department, or a member authorized by the President may make a statement in the Plenary when the need arises.

Speech about procedure

ARTICLE 63- Issues regarding procedure, such as whether there is room for debate or not, calling the Speaker to comply with the agenda or working procedure of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye shall have priority of debate over other issues.

If a request is made for a debate on the procedure, at most two members are given the floor for a period not exceeding three minutes each in favour of or against the issue. If a vote is required because of the debate about the procedure, it shall be performed by show of hands.

Restriction of the Speaker to debates and vote

ARTICLE 64- The Speaker or vice-speaker presiding over the Plenary shall not reveal his/her opinion by any means on the matter in the agenda during the debate or vote.

The Speaker or vice-speaker(s) shall not intervene in the debates, except in cases when it is required for discharging of their duties; their personal right of defense is reserved.

The Speaker of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye has no right to vote.

Vice-speakers, if not presiding over the sittings, may vote and take the floor to reveal the intention of his/her vote.

If a secretary on duty at the rostrum wishes to attend the debates, he/she shall leave his/her place to another secretary.

Order in debates

ARTICLE 65- Interrupting speeches, making offensive remarks, and/or disrupting the order in the Plenary are prohibited behaviors.

The Speaker's interruption of the speeches

ARTICLE 66- Speech of a member at the rostrum may be interrupted solely by the Speaker to invite him/her to observe the Rules of Procedure or to stay on the subject.

If the member fails to stick to the subject despite being warned twice, preventing him/her from speaking on that subject in the same session may be proposed to the Plenary by the Speaker.

The Plenary votes by show of hands without debate.

Speech style

ARTICLE 67- Should one use unparliamentary language in the Plenary, the Speaker invites him/her immediately to avoid speaking in that manner, and to leave the rostrum if he/she refuses to comply. The Speaker may order him/her out for that session, if he/she deems it necessary.

If there is unparliamentary language in the letters and motions submitted to the Office of the Speaker, the Speaker will return the documents and motions to the owner for corrections to be made.

Noise and fighting

ARTICLE 68- The Speaker, if unable to maintain the order due to noise or fighting that arises during the debates will make every effort necessary to warn the Plenary that the session will be suspended, by standing up in the rostrum. If the noise or fighting continues despite the warning, he/she will suspend the session for an hour at most.

If the noise or fighting still continues at the resumption of the session, the Speaker will close the session.

Right of explanation

ARTICLE 69- Committees, political party groups or deputies about whom offensive remarks are made, or to whom an opinion which he/she has not stated is attributed, may make an explanation or respond.

The Speaker determines the duration of the explanation or response, which shall take place in the same sitting.

The deputy who requests to take the floor for the purpose of explanation or response informs the Speaker of the reason for his/her demand. Giving the floor is at the Speaker's discretion. If the deputy who has not been given the floor by the Speaker insists, the Plenary will decide by a show of hands without debate.

Closed sittings

ARTICLE 70- The Plenary of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye may hold closed sittings upon the written request of a political party group or twenty deputies.

When a motion on the closed sitting is given, everyone, excluding those who are entitled to participate in the closed sitting, is asked to leave the Plenary. Then, the justification of the motion is heard. It is explained by a spokesperson of a political party group, the first signatory of the motion, or another signatory designated by him/her. The Plenary votes by show of hands.

The minutes of the above-mentioned debate is kept by secretaries. However, if the Plenary deems it appropriate, sworn stenographers may keep the minutes.

Deputies of the President of the Republic, ministers, deputy ministers and high ranking executives may attend closed sittings in cases specified in the Article 62 according to the procedure specified in the same article.

No statement shall be made about the debate held in closed sitting by those who participated or are entitled to do so. The minutes are kept as state secret.

When the reason requiring the closed sitting ceases to exist, the Speaker will move to open the meeting. The Plenary decides by show of hands.

Minutes of closed sitting

ARTICLE 71- After the minutes of the closed sitting are consolidated, another closed sitting is held and the summary of the minutes of the previous closed sitting is read. Minutes are placed in an envelope with the summary, immediately sealed with wax by secretaries present, and then sent to the Assembly archives.

Minutes of the closed sitting and its summaries may be published after ten years have passed since the date of closed sitting. Upon the proposal of the Board of Spokespersons, the Plenary decides by show of hands as to the publishing of the minutes earlier or later than that.

Completion of debates

ARTICLE 72- If there is no other provision in the Rules of Procedure, all political party groups and two deputies have right to speak on every subject on behalf of themselves. After these speeches are made, if a motion is not tabled for the continuation of the debate, the Speaker announces that the debate is completed.

If a motion is tabled for the continuation of the debate and is adopted by show of hands by the Plenary, in accordance with the first paragraph, political party groups and deputies have a second right to speak.

PART FOUR

Law Making

Government bills and referral to the committees

ARTICLE 73- (Repealed on October 9, 2018; Resolution No. 1200/25)

Private members' bills

ARTICLE 74- There may be one or more signatures in private members' bills.

Private members' bills are submitted with justification to the Office of the Speaker.

Committees are entitled to have the owners of the bills complete their bills which do not meet the requirements.

Private members' bills are directly referred to the committees by the Speaker.

Withdrawal and espousal

ARTICLE 75- Owner of a private members' bill may withdraw his/her bill before being put on the agenda as long as the Plenary is informed.

However, if another deputy or primary committee espouses the withdrawn private members' bills, the deliberation continues.

If private members' bills have been put on the agenda, their withdrawal requires the decision of the Plenary.

Prohibition of reintroduction of rejected private members' bills

ARTICLE 76- Private members' bills rejected by the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye may not be reintroduced within the same legislative term unless one year elapses from the date of rejection.

Status of private members' bills in case elections are renewed

ARTICLE 77- Private members' bills that are not concluded in a legislative term are deemed null and void. However, the members of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye may renew these bills. After the debate on the whole of renewed bills, reports and texts of previous terms may be adopted by the committee with the condition of being expressed explicitly.

At the beginning of legislative term, motions of written question, parliamentary inquiry, general debate, and laws sent back by the President of the Republic for reconsideration belonging to the previous term are deemed null and void.

Decrees having the force of law in effect that have not been concluded in a legislative term are not deemed null and void and they are subject to the provisions governing private members' bills. The procedure regarding the repealed decrees having the force of law cannot be terminated unless they are submitted to the Plenary along with a report.

Status of private members' bills in case of the fall of government

ARTICLE 78- (Repealed on October 9, 2018; Resolution No. 1200/25)

Not reading the reports

ARTICLE 79- The reports of the primary committee regarding the adoption or rejection of the private members' bills and reports of inquiry, investigation and other committees are not read out while being debated in the Plenary. However, the Speaker announces the order numbers under which the reports have been printed and distributed.

Request of rejection in the report

ARTICLE 80- If the primary committee requests the rejection of a private members' bill in its report and the report is adopted, the bill is deemed rejected. If the report is not adopted, then it is returned to the committee.

Deliberation of private members' bills in the Plenary

ARTICLE 81- Private members' bills are debated in the Plenary in accordance with the process specified below:

- a) Debate is opened on the whole of the bill.
- b) Following the debates on the whole of the bill, a question-answer of twenty-minutes duration is held with the committee. Such duration is limited to ten minutes on articles of the bill.
- c) Moving to debate on the articles of the bill is voted.
- ç) The articles of the bill are debated.
- d) Whole of the bill is voted.

Excluding the constitutional amendments, if the whole of the bill is not subjected to open vote, it is voted by open ballot in case of a demand of twenty members, otherwise this voting and voting of the articles are conducted by show of hands.

Unless the Plenary decides otherwise upon the proposal of Board of Spokespersons, time allotted for speeches on the whole of the bills on behalf of political party groups and committees is limited to twenty minutes and ten minutes for deputies.

Duration of speeches on articles is half of this.

Bills are deemed rejected by the Plenary when moving to the debate on the articles of the bill is not accepted, or the bill as a whole is not adopted.

The Plenary may decide without debate to consider only the unsuitable articles for promulgation, before the commencement of the debates on the laws which have been deemed unsuitable for promulgation in part and sent back to the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye for reconsideration by the President of the Republic. In this case, debate is held only on the articles which have been deemed unsuitable. In cases when it is decided to debate the law as a whole, debate on the law is held pursuant to the above-mentioned paragraphs. Vote on the whole of the law is held in any case. The Plenary may adopt whole, or the articles that have been found unsuitable, of the law sent back for reconsideration with absolute majority of the total number of members. If absolute majority of the total number of members cannot be met at such votings, whole or voted article of the law shall be deemed rejected.

Vote on the text of the committee first

ARTICLE 82- If several motions have been tabled about an article of a bill and the article has been withdrawn to the committee with the motions of amendment, the committee, after debating the motions, may adopt the former text or draft a new one.

Owners of the motions may speak for a period not exceeding five minutes if they participate in the committee meeting.

If the committee requests with the absolute majority of total number of members that the text it adopted should be voted upon before the motions and by open vote, in the Plenary, the text of the committee is voted before the motions. If the text is adopted, it is deemed that the motions are rejected and the article is adopted.

Before open vote, owners of the motion have the right to speak for a period not exceeding five minutes.

Debating an article first

ARTICLE 83- The Plenary may decide on debating one article before another by show of hands.

Motions on unconstitutionality

Board of review and clerical errors

ARTICLE 85- The Office of the Speaker constitutes a board with a sufficient number of experts assigned for reviewing the private members' bills in terms of the letter of the Constitution and law-making technique. The board of review provides the committees with advisory service.

If it is claimed that there are typographical, structural and clerical errors in the text before the vote required for adoption of private members' bills by the Assembly, and the primary committee concur with the claims, the text is sent back to the primary committee. Articles which are corrected in this manner are voted upon again.

Last speeches

ARTICLE 86- If the deputies demand to reveal their votes from the rostrum before the final vote of the entire private members' bill, the Speaker gives the floor to one deputy in favor and another against. The speech shall be brief, clear and reasoned.

Motions of amendment

ARTICLE 87- If not specified otherwise in the laws or in the Rules of Procedure, deputies and primary committees may table a motion of amendment regarding rejection of an article in a private members' bill, returning the entire bill or one article therein to the committee, amendment of one of the articles or addition of a supplementary or provisional article to the text. Within this framework, deputies may table seven motions for each article, including the motions on unconstitutionality. The right of members of each political party group to table one motion is reserved. However, if this right is not used by the members of the related political party group, it may be used by the members of other political party groups or the independent members.

Motions of amendment may be submitted to the Office of the Speaker after printing and distribution of a private members' bill. However, motions of amendment tabled after the beginning of the debates on a private members' bill shall not be processed unless it bears the signatures of at least five members.

Motions of amendment constituting a new private members' bill by making an addition to laws or amending laws other than those within the scope of the bill being debated shall not be processed.

Motions of amendment closely related to an article of a law that is within the scope of a private members' bill being debated, but not included in the text of committee, shall be debated as a new article if the absolute majority of the committee accepts.

Provisions to be amended, repealed or added are stated explicitly in the motions of amendment. Motions are not processed, if they are conditional and not explicit.

Motions of amendment shall be tabled with justification. If the motions of amendment and their justifications include more than five hundred words, the owner of the motion shall enclose a summary including less than five hundred words in the motion.

The Speaker immediately informs the committee and the party groups about the motions of amendment.

Motions of amendment shall be read in order of contrariety of which afterwards they shall be processed. Of the motions having the same essence, the briefest, and, of other motions, only their signatories shall be read and processed together. Regarding the motions bearing more than five signatures, only the first five signatures shall be read and the motion shall be attached to the minutes.

The Speaker asks the committee whether it agrees with the motion or not. The committee may briefly explain its justification for not agreeing with the motion. Any motion disagreed upon by the committee may be explained by its owner for a period not exceeding five minutes. The owner of the motion shall not be given the floor on the motion the justifications of which he/she requests to be read.

Subsequently, the motions shall be voted separately by show of hands. The committee may request the return of a motion or related article with which the committee disagrees while the Plenary adopts. If the request of return is accepted, the committee draws up a new text in line with the motion or may request the adoption of its own text as it is. The decision of the Plenary is final.

Withdrawal of a text or an article

ARTICLE 88- The primary committee may request, for once, the withdrawal of the whole or private members' bill or its specific articles to the committee.

This request is met without debate. If the whole of private members' bill is withdrawn, all motions tabled in relation to the private members' bill shall be submitted to the primary committee; if specific articles of the bill are withdrawn, motions on those articles shall be submitted to the primary committee.

Reconsideration in the Plenary

ARTICLE 89- Before the final vote of the whole of a private members' bill, the primary committee may request, once, the reconsideration of a specific article through a reasoned motion.

After taking the opinion of the Board of Spokespersons, the Plenary decides on this request without debate by show of hands.

The provision of this Article shall not apply to the debates on constitutional amendments.

Private members' bills regarding the approval of the ratification of international treaties

ARTICLE 90- Treaties that, pursuant to the Constitution, are subject to adoption by the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye by a law approving the ratification shall be presented by the President of the Republic to the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye together with a general justification.

The Speaker shall publish such treaties on the order paper. From the date of publication of such treaties on the order paper, deputies may table private members' bill regarding approval of ratification of these treaties. This bill shall be processed as other private members' bills.

Expedited legislative process (Basic laws)

ARTICLE 91- a) Private members' bills amending and putting into force laws, including general principles, that systematically amend a particular branch of law, completely or comprehensively; relating to a considerable part of personal and social life; indicating the basic concepts of special laws to which the bill relates, ensuring that the special laws are implemented in harmony, necessitating the protection of integrity and relations between the articles in terms of areas it regulates; having been subjected to special debating and voting procedure in previous legislative process; and those bills amending the Rules of Procedure, completely or comprehensively, may be decided to be debated in the Plenary as chapters, and which articles will be included in chapters having no more than thirty articles upon the recommendation of the primary committee or the party groups, and the unanimous proposal of the Board of Spokespersons. In such a case, the chapters shall be debated separately, in line with the procedure on debating the articles without reading the articles and the articles in the chapter shall be voted separately.

Deputies and the primary committee may table motions of amendment. Deputies have the right to table two motions on the article, including the motions regarding unconstitutionality. However, the right of the deputies of each political party group to submit one motion is reserved.

Debates shall be initiated on the motions that the committee agrees to debate as a new article by absolute majority, on the articles that are to be reconsidered, and the number of motions that may be tabled is as stated above.

Other provisions are reserved.

b) If no unanimous decision is taken by the Board of Spokespersons, the Plenary may decide on the implementation of the legislative method stated in paragraph (a) upon the proposal of political party groups.

PART FIVE

Special Provisions

Private members' bills including amnesty or pardon

ARTICLE 92- The Plenary may adopt the bills including amnesty or pardon by the decision of the three-fifths of the total number of the members. The required majority shall be sought in the voting of articles related to amnesty or pardon of the said bills and also in the voting on the whole. If a motion of amendment including amnesty or pardon is adopted, vote on the motion shall be repeated by open ballot in order to ensure the three-fifths majority required for adoption.

Amendments to the Constitution

ARTICLE 93- Private members' bills amending the Constitution are subject to the common procedure, except they are debated twice in the Plenary.

The second debate shall not begin unless forty-eight hours elapses after the first debate.

During the second debate, only the motions of amendment tabled on articles shall be debated; and in the second debate, no motion of amendment shall be tabled to the articles to which no motion had been tabled in the first debate.

Adoption of private members' bills amending the Constitution

ARTICLE 94- The adoption of the articles in the first and second debates on bills amending the Constitution and of the bill as a whole at the end of the second debate, requires three-fifths majority of the total number of members by secret ballot.

If the vote of required majority is not obtained for an article during the first debate and also in the second, the article is rejected.

In case a motion of amendment to the bill is adopted, the vote on the motion shall be repeated by secret ballot in order to ensure the three-fifths majority required for adoption.

Decision to renew the elections

ARTICLE 95- Motions for renewal of elections shall be debated in the Committee on the Constitution, and the Committee report shall be voted by open ballot upon being debated in the Plenary before all items on the agenda. The Grand National Assembly of Türkiye may decide to renew the elections by three-fifth majority of the total number of its members.

PART SIX
Ways of Obtaining Information and Oversight

CHAPTER ONE
Written Question

Written Question

ARTICLE 96- A written question is a question, asked through a motion which shall be brief and not contain a justification, personal opinion or personal or private life issues, by deputies to the deputies of the President of the Republic or ministers to be answered in a written form.

A motion of written question shall be signed and submitted to the Office of the Speaker by only one deputy. No document may be attached to a motion of written question.

The Speaker publishes the motions that he/she considers to be in conformity with the Rules of Procedure on order paper, and forwards them to the relevant deputies of the President of the Republic or ministers.

Questions not to be posed

ARTICLE 97- Questions on the following matters shall not be accepted by the Office of the Speaker:

- a) Matters on which information can be easily acquired from another source,
- b) Matters solely for consultation purposes.

Putting oral questions on the agenda and answering

ARTICLE 98- (Repealed on October 9, 2018; Resolution No. 1200/25)

Answers to written questions

ARTICLE 99- Answers to written questions shall be submitted to the Office of the Speaker by a deputy of the President of the Republic or the related ministry. The Speaker immediately forwards the answer to the owner of the question. The answer, together with the question text, shall also be attached to the minutes of the session of the day the answer is received by the Office of the Speaker or to that of the next session.

Written questions shall be answered by a deputy of the President of the Republic or a minister within fifteen days at the latest after they are sent to. The written questions shall be communicated also during recess or adjournment in which case fifteen-day period shall start after the recess or adjournment.

If written questions are not answered within due period, it shall be announced in the order paper that the motion has not been answered within the due period and such case shall be communicated to the deputy of the President of the Republic or the minister.

Questions to the Office of the Speaker

ARTICLE 100- Written questions may be placed with the Office of the Speaker on the duties of the Speaker, the Bureau of the Assembly, members of the Bureau of the Assembly and the Board of Spokespersons regarding the activities of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye. These questions are answered by the Speaker or one of the vice-speakers designated by him/her.

CHAPTER TWO

General Debate

Definition of general debate

ARTICLE 101- General debate is the discussion on a certain matter concerning the society and the activities of the state held in the Plenary of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye.

Opening general debate

ARTICLE 102- Political party groups or at least twenty deputies may request opening of a general debate by tabling a motion to the Office of the Speaker. This request is immediately placed on the order paper, the deputies shall be informed of it.

If the text of the tabled motion contains more than five hundred words, owners of the motion shall attach a summary not exceeding five hundred words to the motion.

The Plenary decides whether to open a general debate or not.

During the debate in the Plenary, political party groups and the first signatory, or another signatory assigned by him/her, may take the floor. The Plenary decides on whether to open a general debate or not by show of hands.

Special agenda for general debate

ARTICLE 103- If it is decided that a general debate is to be opened, the day of general debate shall be determined by the Board of Spokespersons as a special agenda. The general debate shall not begin before forty-eight hours or after seven complete days elapse from the decision of opening a general debate.

The right to take the floor first during the general debate belongs to the political party group or groups that tabled the motion, to the first signatory, or to another signatory assigned by him/her.

General provisions apply to further discussions.

CHAPTER THREE

Parliamentary Inquiry

Definition and opening of parliamentary inquiry

ARTICLE 104- A parliamentary inquiry is an examination conducted to obtain information on a specific subject.

If the motion of a parliamentary inquiry contains more than five hundred words, the owners of the motion are obliged to attach a summary not exceeding five hundred words.

Provisions on opening general debate apply to opening parliamentary inquiry.

General debate shall be opened in the Plenary on the report of the parliamentary inquiry committee.

Parliamentary inquiry committee and its powers

ARTICLE 105- The duty to execute a parliamentary inquiry shall be assigned to a special committee to be elected according to general provisions.

Upon the proposal of the Speaker, the Plenary decides on the number of the members of the committee, its term of office, and whether it can work outside Ankara when the need arises. A one month final term shall be allocated to the committee if it fails to complete its inquiry in three months. If the committee fails again to conclude its activities within this term, a debate shall be opened in the Plenary within fifteen days from the end of this term on the reasons for not concluding the inquiry or the results achieved until then. The Plenary may consider this debate to be sufficient or establish a new committee.

The parliamentary inquiry committee has the authority to request information from, carry out inquiries at and to obtain information by inviting the relevant personnel of ministries; general and annexed budget administrations; local administrations; village and neighbourhood authorities; universities; Turkish Radio and Television Corporation; state economic enterprises; banks and organizations established by a special law or the authority granted by such laws; professional organizations having the characteristics of public institutions and associations working in favor of public interest.

State secrets and commercial secrets are excluded from the scope of parliamentary inquiry.

CHAPTER FOUR

Censure¹

ARTICLE 106- (Repealed on October 9, 2018; Resolution No. 1200/25)

CHAPTER FIVE

Investigating deputies of the President of the Republic and ministers and Forwarding their Case to the Supreme Court

Motions tabled for opening parliamentary investigation against deputies of the President of the Republic and ministers

ARTICLE 107- Absolute majority of Grand National Assembly of Türkiye may table a motion requesting that the incumbent or former deputies of the President of the Republic and ministers be investigated on allegations of perpetration of a crime regarding their duties.

It is obligatory to mention in this motion that those actions, requiring penal sanctions, of the deputies of the President of the Republic and ministers against whom a motion for investigation is placed have been perpetrated during the term of office, and it is also obligatory to specify with a justification which actions are contrary to which laws by indicating the related articles.

The provisions of this article shall also apply to the prime ministers and ministers served during parliamentary system.

Debate on motion for parliamentary investigation

ARTICLE 108- A motion for parliamentary investigation submitted to the Office of the Speaker of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye is placed on order paper and a copy of motion shall immediately be forwarded to the deputy of the President of the Republic or minister against whom a motion for investigation is submitted and the motion is read out in the Plenary.

The date of the debate on whether to open a parliamentary investigation or not shall be determined by the Plenary upon the proposal of the Board of Spokespersons as a special agenda on condition that the motion be debated and decided within one month from the date of submission. The deputy of the President of the Republic, or minister against whom a motion for investigation is submitted, shall also be informed of the date of the debate.

The Plenary decides on whether to open a parliamentary investigation or not with three-fifth majority of the total number of its members by secret ballot after a debate in which the first signatory of the motion or another signatory assigned by him/her, three deputies on their own behalf, and regardless of whether they are still in office or not, deputy of the President of the Republic, or minister against whom a motion for investigation is submitted, speak respectively.

The provisions of this article shall also apply to the prime ministers and ministers served during parliamentary system.

Establishment of the parliamentary investigation committee

ARTICLE 109- If an investigation is decided to be launched, it shall be conducted by a committee of fifteen members, chosen by lot, for each political party in the Assembly, separately from among three times the candidates nominated for each seat reserved to party groups in proportion to their strength.

The committee elects a chairperson, a vice-chairperson, a spokesperson and a secretary.

Deputies who are in a state hindering the judges to hear a case or participate in the judgment according to the Criminal Procedure Code shall not be elected to the committee.

This provision shall also apply to the public officials employed at the committee.

Working procedure and term of office for the parliamentary investigation committee

ARTICLE 110- The investigation committee meets with the absolute majority of total number of members and decides by the absolute majority of the members present.

The activities of the committee are confidential. Deputies other than the members of the committee shall not attend the meetings of the committee.

The committee shall submit its report on the conclusion of the investigation to the Office of the Speaker within two months. If the investigation is not completed within the time allotted, the committee shall be granted a further and final period of one month. The Plenary is informed of the written request of the committee calling for an additional term. The report shall be submitted to the Office of the Speaker within this period.

Powers of the parliamentary investigation committee

ARTICLE 111- The committee may request information and documents concerning the issue from public and private institutions, confiscate those it deems necessary, make use of all instruments of the executive organ, and hear the deputies of the President of the Republic or ministers, other related people, witnesses and experts.

The committee may seek assistance from judicial authorities by surrogate judges or rogatory. Moreover, it may request through a written justification, from the competent judicial authority to use within the framework of general provisions, the powers granted by the Criminal Procedure Code that restrict liberties in relation to witnesses, experts, search, and confiscation.

The deputy of the President of the Republic or minister against whom a motion for investigation is submitted, defends himself/herself before the committee. The committee ensures the provision of the documents requested in this context.

The committee may decide to establish sub-committees when necessary and to work outside Ankara.

Concluding investigation

ARTICLE 112- The report of the investigation committee is immediately sent to the deputy of the President of the Republic or minister against whom a motion of investigation is submitted, by publishing within ten days from the date of submission to the Office of the Speaker, and distributed that to the members of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye. The report shall be debated within ten days after its distribution to the deputies.

During the debate, the floor is given to the committee, six deputies on behalf of themselves and the deputy of the President of the Republic, or minister against whom a motion of investigation is submitted, regardless of whether he/she is still in office or not. The last speech is given to the deputy of the President of the Republic, or minister against whom a motion for investigation is submitted, and the time allocated to him/her cannot be limited.

After the debate is concluded, the Plenary decides on the committee report through secret ballot.

In the committee reports demanding the case to be sent to the Supreme Court and in the decisions of the Plenary for sending the case to the Supreme Court, explanation shall be made on which penal provision is taken as basis.

Rejection of a committee report demanding not to send the case to the Supreme Court is only possible through the adoption of a motion sending the case to the Supreme Court and indicating which penal provision will be taken as basis.

A decision for sending the case to the Supreme Court shall be taken by the two-thirds of the total number of its members.

If the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye decides to send a case to the Supreme Court, the file shall be sent by the Office of the Speaker to the Presidency of the Constitutional Court within a maximum of seven days together with a list of content.

Prohibitions on holding debates concerning the investigation at political party groups

ARTICLE 113- No debate shall be held and no decision shall be taken at political party groups regarding a parliamentary investigation.

However, elections may take place at these groups in order to nominate candidates as per Article 100 of the Constitution for membership to the parliamentary investigation committee.

Criminal liability of the President of the Republic

ARTICLE 114- Absolute majority of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye may table a motion requesting that the incumbent or former President of the Republic be investigated on allegations of a crime.

The Grand National Assembly of Türkiye shall debate the motion in one month at the latest. The Grand National Assembly of Türkiye shall immediately be informed of the motion, the President against whom motion of impeachment is submitted shall be informed, and the motion shall be put on the agenda of the session that will be held seven days after the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye is informed.

The Plenary decides on whether to open a parliamentary investigation or not with three-fifth majority of the total number of its members by secret ballot after a debate in which the first signatory of the motion or another signatory assigned by him/her, three deputies on their own behalf, and if he/she wishes, regardless of whether he/she is still in office or not, the President of the Republic against whom a motion for investigation is submitted, speak respectively.

If an investigation is decided to be launched, it shall be conducted by a committee of fifteen members, chosen by lot, for each political party in the Assembly, separately from among three times the candidates nominated for each seat reserved to party groups in proportion to their strength. The committee shall exercise the powers envisaged in the Article 111.

The committee elects a chairperson, a vice-chairperson, a spokesperson and a secretary.

The investigation committee meets with absolute majority of total number of members and decides by the absolute majority of the members present.

The activities of the committee are confidential. Deputies other than the members of the committee shall not attend the meetings of the committee.

The committee shall submit its report on the conclusion of the investigation to the Office of the Speaker within two months. If the investigation is not completed within the time allotted, the committee shall be granted a further and final period of one month. The Plenary is informed of the written request of the committee calling for an additional term. The report shall be submitted to the Office of the Speaker within this period.

The report shall be distributed within ten days from the date of its submission to the Office of the Speaker, and it shall be debated in the Plenary within ten days following its distribution.

During the debate, the floor is given to the committee, six deputies on behalf of themselves, and regardless of whether he/she is still in office or not, the President of the Republic against whom a motion of investigation is submitted. The last speech is given to the President of the Republic against whom a motion for investigation is submitted, and the time allocated to him/her cannot be limited. The President of the Republic may send his/her defence in writing. The defence shall be fully read out in the Plenary.

After the debate is concluded, the Plenary decides on the committee report by secret ballot. The Grand National Assembly of Türkiye may decide to refer the report to the Supreme Court with at least two-thirds of the total number of its members.

The committee reports and decisions of the Plenary in the direction of referral of the case to the Supreme Court shall indicate penal grounds.

Rejection of a committee report demanding not to refer the case to the Supreme Court is only possible through the adoption of a motion about referring the case to the Supreme Court and indicating penal grounds.

PART SEVEN

Rules and Procedures Regarding the Examination of and Decision on Petitions

Committee on Petitions

ARTICLE 115- The Committee on Petitions examines the requests and complaints submitted to the Office of the Speaker of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye by Turkish citizens and, on the basis of the principle of reciprocity, by foreign nationals residing in Türkiye, regarding the matters related to themselves or the public.

Examination of petitions by the Bureau of the Committee

ARTICLE 116- The Bureau of the Committee on Petitions, composed of Chairperson, Vice-Chairperson, Spokesperson and Secretary, examines the petitions submitted to the committee and decides if the petitions are;

1. Not including a specific subject,
 2. Requiring a new law or an amendment to a law,
 3. Relating to the issues within the remit of judicial authorities or on which a judgment has been given by these authorities,
 4. Not including a copy of the final response provided by the authorized administrative bodies,
 5. Lacking any conditions required in a petition as specified by the law,
- cannot be debated.

The Bureau of the Committee publishes these decisions and distributes to the members of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye. Those decisions of the Bureau of the Committee that are not objected to within fifteen days after the distribution of decisions shall be deemed final and the petitioners shall be informed of the case in writing.

The Bureau of the Committee sends to the Office of the Speaker and the President of the Republic's attention a copy of the petitions that are decided not to be debated but considered that it would serve to public benefit if regulated as a law.

Examination of petitions by the Plenary of the Committee

ARTICLE 117- The petitions considered out of the scope of the Article 116 by the Bureau of the Committee and those that are decided on as per the same Article but objected to within the prescribed time shall be forwarded to the Plenary of the Committee.

Plenary of the Committee first examines the forwarded petitions as per the provision of the Article 116 and decides whether they can be a subject for decision.

Distribution of the decisions of the Plenary of the Committee

ARTICLE 118- The Bureau of the Committee prints the decisions of the Plenary of the Committee and distributes to all deputies and sends to the deputies of the President of the Republic and ministers for necessary actions.

Objection to the decisions of the Plenary of the Committee

ARTICLE 119- Any member of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye may object to a decision of the Plenary of the Committee with a reasoned letter within thirty days after the distribution of the decision. Otherwise, the decision on the petition becomes final.

The Plenary of the Committee prepares a report on the petitions objected to within thirty days from the date of objection and submits it to the Office of the Speaker. The decision of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye is final.

Decisions finalized as per the provisions of this Article shall be notified to the petitioners and the related deputies of the President of the Republic and ministers.

Result of the final decisions on petitions

ARTICLE 120- The deputies of the President of the Republic and ministers inform the Office of the Committee in writing about the procedures they carried out in relation to the finalized decisions as per Article 119 within thirty days after the notification made to themselves as per the last paragraph of the same article. The Plenary of the Committee may request the deliberation of the ones it deems necessary in the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye. In such a case, the committee prepares a report stating its opinion and submits it to the Office of the Speaker. If the Committee makes such a request, the provisions of paragraphs two and three of the Article 119 are applied.

PART EIGHT

Oath-Taking Ceremony of the President of the Republic, Administration of State of Emergency and Decisions Regarding the Armed Forces

CHAPTER ONE

Oath-Taking Ceremony of the President of the Republic Election of the President of the Republic

ARTICLE 121- (Repealed on October 9, 2018; Resolution No. 1200/25)

Oath-taking ceremony of the President of the Republic

ARTICLE 122- The oath-taking ceremony for the new President of the Republic shall be performed on the day of the termination of the former President of the Republic's tenure.

If the Presidency becomes vacant due to a reason other than the completion of tenure of the President of the Republic, the oath-taking ceremony shall be carried out at the sitting following the election.

When the new President of the Republic comes to the Assembly to take the oath, the Speaker opens the sitting and invites the President of the Republic to the Plenary via the eldest vice-speaker. The President of the Republic, accompanied by the eldest vice-speaker, comes to the rostrum and takes the oath while standing. After the oath-taking ceremony, the National Anthem is played and the President of the Republic, accompanied by the eldest vice-speaker, leaves the Hall.

The President of the Republic wears a black suit during the oath-taking ceremony.

Request for Vote of Confidence

ARTICLE 123- (Repealed on October 9, 2018; Resolution No. 1200/25)

Debate on the government programme; vote of confidence while commencing duty

ARTICLE 124- (Repealed on October 9, 2018; Resolution No. 1200/25)

Procedure of debate on request for vote of confidence

ARTICLE 125- (Repealed on October 9, 2018; Resolution No. 1200/25)

CHAPTER THREE

Administration of State of Emergency

Decisions concerning a state of emergency

ARTICLE 126- Decisions concerning a state of emergency declared by the President of the Republic and published in the Official Gazette in accordance with Article 119 of the Constitution are submitted for the approval of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye along with a memorandum of the Presidency.

If the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye is in recess, it shall be immediately summoned; The Assembly may reduce or extend the period of, or lift, the state of emergency.

A motion may be tabled during the debates by political party groups or the signature of at least twenty members on shortening or extending the time prescribed. The owner of the motion may take the floor before the vote for a period not exceeding five minutes.

At the request of the President of the Republic, the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye may extend the period of the state of emergency for four months each time at most. In the event of war, four-month limit shall not apply.

The memorandums of the Presidency on extending, altering the duration or lifting the state of emergency adopted by the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye shall be debated and decided in accordance with the procedure set forth in this Article.

Debate on presidential decrees issued during a state of emergency

ARTICLE 128- Except in the case of inability of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye to convene due to war or force majeure events, Presidential decrees which are issued during a state of emergency declared in accordance with Article 119 of the Constitution and submitted to the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye at the day of publication in the Official Gazette shall be debated and decided with priority within three months in the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye. If the committees fail to debate on the aforementioned decrees in one month, they shall be put on the agenda of the Plenary by the Office of the Speaker. The Plenary decides on these decrees within the remaining two months. Presidential decrees which are not debated and decided within three months shall be annulled automatically.

CHAPTER FOUR

Declaration of State of War and Decisions Concerning Armed Forces

Declaration of state of war

ARTICLE 129- As per the first paragraph of Article 92 of the Constitution, upon the request of the President of the Republic, the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye decides on declaration of state of war against a foreign state or in cases necessitating that law of war enter into force for Türkiye not aiming at a certain state. The President of the Republic executes this decision.

However, the President of the Republic may also decide to use the Turkish Armed Forces in cases specified in the second paragraph of Article 92 of the Constitution and shall summon the Assembly immediately.

Sending or admission of armed forces

ARTICLE 130- As per the first paragraph of Article 92 of the Constitution, upon the request of the President of the Republic, the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye authorizes the sending of the Turkish Armed Forces abroad or the admission of foreign armed forces in Türkiye for a specified period of time. The President of the Republic executes this decision.

PART NINE

Legislative Immunity and Loss of Membership

CHAPTER ONE

Legislative Immunity

Request for lifting legislative immunity and the committee to debate such a request

ARTICLE 131- Requests for lifting the immunity of a deputy or the deputies of the President of the Republic and ministers regarding the offenses not related to their duties shall be referred by the Office of the Speaker to the Joint Committee comprised of the members of the Committee on the Constitution and the Committee on Justice.

The Chairperson, vice-chairperson, spokesperson, and secretary of the Committee on the Constitution serve as the chairperson, vicechairperson, spokesperson, and secretary of the Joint Committee respectively.

Preparatory committee and its debates

ARTICLE 132- For the purpose of examining the immunity files, the Chairperson of the Joint Committee shall constitute a preparatory committee comprising of five members each elected by lot from among eligible members nominated by each political party.

The preparatory committee elects a chairperson and a secretary who shall also act as a spokesperson by secret ballot.

This committee examines all documents and, if necessary, hears the related deputy, deputy of the President of the Republic or minister, but cannot hear a witness.

The preparatory committee submits its report within one month at the latest after starting its business.

This report shall be concluded by the Joint Committee within one month.

Joint Committee report

ARTICLE 133- The Joint Committee debates the report of the preparatory committee and its attachments.

The Joint Committee decides on lifting the immunity or deferring the prosecution until the term of office as a deputy, deputy of the President of the Republic or minister ends.

If the report of the Joint Committee stipulates deferring the prosecution, it shall be read out in the Plenary. If no written objection is raised to the report within ten days, it becomes final.

If the report stipulates lifting the immunity or if an objection is raised as per paragraph three, it is debated in the Plenary.

If the prosecution has been deferred and this decision has not been annulled by the Plenary, no prosecution can be performed on the related person as long as his/her term of office as a deputy continues even though a new legislative term has started.

Right of defence

ARTICLE 134- The deputy, deputy of the President of the Republic or minister whose immunity is requested to be lifted may defend himself/herself, if he/she wishes, at the preparatory committee, the Joint Committee and the Plenary, or may assign another deputy to do so.

If a deputy, deputy of the President of the Republic or minister who is invited to defend himself/herself ignores the invitation, a decision shall be taken on the basis of the documents.

The last speech belongs to the defendant in any case.

The deputy's own request for his/her immunity to be lifted is not sufficient.

CHAPTER TWO

Loss of Membership

Loss of membership

ARTICLE 135- The membership of a deputy who resigns, is convicted for an offence hindering him/her to be elected as a member of the Turkish Grand National Assembly, whose legal capacity is restricted, who persists in carrying out a service incompatible with membership, or who fails to attend parliamentary activities for five session days within one month without an excuse or leave of absence shall be lifted as per articles 136, 137 and 138.

A deputy's membership in the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye shall cease if appointed as a deputy of the President of the Republic or a minister.

Resignation from membership, conviction and restriction of legal capacity

ARTICLE 136- The Plenary decides on the loss of membership without debate after Bureau of the Assembly examines and determines, within seven days, the authenticity of the resignation letter of the deputy resigning from membership of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye.

The membership of a deputy ends when the Plenary is notified of the final court judgment stating that he/she is convicted for an offence hindering him/her to be a member of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye or his/her legal capacity is restricted.

Holding an office incompatible with membership

ARTICLE 137- The status of members who persist in carrying out a service or holding an office incompatible with membership as per Article 82 of the Constitution and laws is examined by the Bureau of the Assembly. The result shall be submitted as a decision of the Bureau of the Assembly to the Joint Committee comprised of the members of the Committee on the Constitution and Committee on Justice.

The Joint Committee examines the situation in line with the procedures on lifting legislative immunities and draws up a report.

The report is debated in the Plenary. The deputy whose membership is in question defends himself/herself, if he/she wishes, at the Joint Committee and the Plenary or assigns another member to do so. The last speech belongs to the defendant in any case.

A decision on loss of membership shall be taken by secret ballot in the Plenary. The vote shall not be conducted before twenty-four hour passes after the completion of debate on the Joint Committee report.

Non-attendance of deputies

ARTICLE 138- If a deputy fails to attend parliamentary activities for five session days within one month without an excuse or leave of absence, his/her non-attendance is determined by the Bureau of the Assembly and reported to the Joint Committee comprised of the members of the Committee on the Constitution and Committee on Justice.

The Joint Committee examines the situation in line with the procedures on lifting legislative immunities and draws up its report.

If the Plenary debating the report decides that loss of membership is necessary by the absolute majority of the total number of members, the membership of the deputy is lost. The deputy whose membership is in question defends himself/herself, if he/she wishes, at the Joint Committee and the Plenary or assigns another member to do so. The last speech belongs to the defendant in any case.

The vote shall not be conducted before twenty-four hour passes after the completion of the debate on the Joint Committee report.

PART TEN

Vote and Elections

CHAPTER ONE

Vote

Forms of vote

ARTICLE 139- There are three forms of vote:

1. Vote by show of hands,
2. Open vote,
3. Secret vote.

The vote by show of hands is conducted by deputies raising their hands; standing up if there is any hesitation; or being counted in two groups as those voted in favor and against if five deputies stand up and propose to do so.

The open vote is conducted by placing into a box the ballot papers on which the names, surnames and electoral districts of deputies are written, or using the electronic voting system or replying of the deputy loudly as “yes”, “abstention” or “no” by standing up after their names are read out from the members’ list, and recording the votes cast by the secretaries.

The collection of ballot papers is possible through placing the ballot papers in a box located at the rostrum or by ushers carrying the boxes between the seats. The manner in which the open vote shall be conducted is subject to the decision of the Plenary.

Secret vote shall be conducted by placing circular ballot papers containing no marks into the box located at the floor.

Cases when vote by show of hands shall be conducted

ARTICLE 140- Vote by show of hands shall be conducted as a rule in all cases where open or secret vote is not required in the Constitution, laws and the Rules of Procedure.

Regarding matters stated in the Rules of Procedure to be voted by show of hands, it is obligatory to conduct the vote by show of hands.

Procedure on vote by show of hands

ARTICLE 141- In cases when vote by show of hands shall be conducted, the Speaker announces that the voting will take place and first requests those who accept and then those who reject the voted matter to raise their hands.

The secretaries inform the Speaker of their votes after the counting of the votes at the Plenary is completed.

The result of the voting shall be announced by the Speaker to the Plenary by saying “accepted” or “not accepted”.

During a vote by show of hands, the Speaker and the secretaries count and identify together those who raise their hands in favor of and against the matter voted. In case there is a disagreement among or the votes cannot be identified by them, the Speaker announces that the vote will be repeated by standing up.

If, right after standing up and voting, five deputies stand up together and request the repeating of vote by saying that the result is unclear, the vote is repeated by the division of deputies into two groups.

Cases when open vote is obligatory

ARTICLE 142- Open vote procedure shall be conducted in the voting of bills on central government budget; bills envisaging amendments to central government budget law; bills on allocation of extra appropriation for the public administrations financed by central government budget and making transfers between budgets of these administrations; the whole of the provisional budget law bills, the whole of the bills on imposing, revoking, reducing or increasing taxes, fees, duties; central government final accounts bills, ratification of international agreements and the whole of the bills on approval of the accession to these agreements or making accession declarations regarding the execution of certain provisions of them; the whole of long-term development plan and other matters stated in the statutory provisions of this Rules of Procedure.

Request for open vote

ARTICLE 143- Conducting an open vote in cases where voting by show of hands or secret vote is not obligatory as per the Constitution, laws and the Rules of Procedure is subject to the written request of at least twenty deputies.

The motions on such requests shall be submitted to the Office of the Speaker before the voting. Before the voting, the Speaker announces that there is a request for open vote and determines whether at least twenty of the owners of the motion are present in the Plenary.

The voting starts with the members requesting the open vote. The request for open vote is null and void if at least twenty of the owners of the motion are not present in the Plenary Hall, do not attend the voting, or if a deputy does not accept substituting a nonattending signatory.

At the end of the classification of votes, if it is found that any of at least twenty deputies signing the motion for open vote has not put his/her ballot paper into the box, the vote is considered as vote by show of hands.

A deputy who does not have a printed ballot paper during an open vote may vote by writing his/her name and electoral district on a blank paper and signing it.

Concluding open vote

ARTICLE 144- In an open vote, no deputy can vote after the Speaker announces that voting is over.

After the counting and classification of the votes by the secretaries, the recorded result shall be announced in the same sitting by the Speaker.

Conducting more than one open vote simultaneously

ARTICLE 145- If it is required to conduct open vote for more than one matter, open vote proceedings may be conducted by placing ballot papers into different boxes at the same time.

If the Speaker deems it necessary, the open vote may be delayed until the end of the sitting or a certain day of the week. However, articles that might cause conflict due to their contents shall be voted separately.

Quorum

ARTICLE 146- If not stated otherwise in the Constitution, laws or the Rules of Procedure, all matters to be voted shall be decided on by the absolute majority of the deputies attending the meeting. Absolute majority is a majority of which is no less than the half of a certain number.

In a vote by show of hands, if affirmative votes are more than negative votes, the matter voted shall be considered to be accepted, if otherwise, it shall be considered to be rejected. Those who are present in the Plenary but do not vote shall be included in the quorum.

Secret vote

ARTICLE 147- In cases where it is obligatory to conduct an open vote as per the Constitution and the laws or on subjects which the Rules of Procedure obliges voting by show of hands or in cases where an open vote is conducted upon a request as per the Rules of Procedure, secret vote shall not be conducted.

In order to conduct a secret vote, except for the cases stated in the paragraph above, twenty deputies shall request a secret vote by tabling a motion and this request must be accepted in the Plenary. The decision shall be taken by show of hands without debate.

Procedure for secret vote

ARTICLE 148- Three circular ballot papers, one white, one green and one red, are simultaneously given to each deputy. The circular ballot paper to be used in voting shall be placed into the related box. The other two are left at the indicated space.

Explaining the meaning of vote

ARTICLE 149- When necessary, the Speaker may briefly explain what the votes to be cast mean before the voting.

Deputies are called by ringing bells before each voting.

Elections

Electoral procedures

ARTICLE 150- If not stated otherwise in the law or the Rules of Procedure, elections in the Plenary and the committees shall be performed by the deputies whose names are read out in alphabetical order coming to the rostrum and placing their votes in the box there.

Counting and classification of votes shall be carried out by a classification committee comprised of five members determined by lot. The committee report on the results of the voting shall be declared to the Plenary at the same sitting by the Speaker.

In elections, deputies are called by ringing bells.

PART ELEVEN

Attendance and Leave of Absence

Non-attendance and leave of absence

ARTICLE 151- A deputy who is not present without any excuse or leave of absence in roll calls, open votes in the Plenary, and committees is considered as absent in that session.

The Speaker may give leave of absence for a period not exceeding ten days to a deputy applying in writing.

The leave of absence exceeding this period is decided by the Plenary without debate through show of hands upon the proposal of the Bureau of the Assembly which takes place in the presentations section of the agenda.

Non-attendance list

ARTICLE 152- A list specifying the non-attendance days of the deputies is prepared by the Bureau of the Assembly and the parts concerning the relevant deputy are exclusively sent to him/her.

The deputy may object to the list in writing within seven days from the date he/she receives the list.

The Bureau of the Assembly examines the objection, requests the relevant deputy to provide information or documents if necessary, and subsequently publishes the list of attendance in accordance with the decision reached.

The non-attendance list is published three times within a legislative year.

Sanction of non-attendance

ARTICLE 153- Three months allowance is cut from the deputy who is deemed absent without excuse or leave of absence for forty-five sessions in total within a legislative year.

Allowances and salaries of deputies having leave of absence for two months

ARTICLE 154- Payment of allowance and salaries of deputies having leave of absence more than two months in a row within a legislative year is subject to the decision of the Plenary. The Plenary decides on the issue without debate through show of hands upon the proposal of the Bureau of the Assembly which takes place in the presentations section of the agenda.

PART TWELVE

Minutes

Types, recording and correction of minutes

ARTICLE 155- In the Plenary, the minutes are recorded verbatim or as a summary.

Verbatim minutes are recorded with the help of voice recorder by stenographers or in cases required as per the Rules of Procedure by the secretaries.

The minutes are published in the Journal of Minutes.

Those concerned may apply in writing to the Office of the Speaker to make the necessary corrections within fifteen days from the date of printing and distribution of verbatim minutes.

The Bureau examines the case upon the application. If the Bureau considers an application justified, a correction is published and attached to the associated Journal of Minutes.

The summary of the minutes of the last session of a legislative year is read out at the end of that session after being written by secretaries.

In this case, the corrections are made after the reading.

The corrections to be made by deputies in the minutes of the last session are published in the upcoming Journal of Minutes.

PART THIRTEEN

Disciplinary Penalties

Types of disciplinary penalties

ARTICLE 156- The disciplinary penalties that are applicable to the deputies are as follows:

1. Call to order,
2. Reprimand,
3. Temporary exclusion from the Assembly.

Call to order

ARTICLE 157- The acts requiring the penalty of call to order are as follows:

1. Interruption of speech,
2. Breach of peace and order,
3. Uttering of offensive remarks.

Issuing the penalty of call to order

ARTICLE 158- The power to decide and execute the penalty of call to order is at the discretion of the Speaker.

If the deputy who is called to order wants to defend himself/herself, he/she is given the floor at the end of the sitting or the session. The Speaker may give the floor earlier, if he/she deems it necessary.

The penalty of call to order is not revoked if the Speaker considers the explanation of the deputy inadequate; otherwise he/she announces that the penalty is revoked.

If a deputy is called to order twice in the same session, the case is stated in the summary of the minutes.

Denying the right to speak

ARTICLE 159- Deputy called to order twice in the same session may be denied the right to speak until the end of the session by the Plenary through show of hands upon the proposal of the Speaker without debate.

Reprimand

ARTICLE 160- The acts requiring the penalty of reprimand are as follows:

1. Not giving up the action requiring the call to order, despite receiving the penalty of call to order twice in the same session,
2. Being subject to call to order three times in a month,
3. Using unparliamentary language or behaving in an offensive manner,
4. Entering into the premises of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye with arms,
5. Causing noise and/or fighting in the Assembly, or preventing the Assembly from carrying out its activities by initiating a collective action.
6. Bringing and using chart, banner and such materials that can disrupt the comfort and order of the Plenary.

Temporary exclusion from the Assembly

ARTICLE 161- Penalty of temporary exclusion from the Assembly is applied in cases below:

1. Being subject to penalty of reprimand three times in the same session,
2. Being reprimanded five times in a month,
3. During the debates, insulting or swearing at the President of the Republic, the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye, the Speaker of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye, the Bureau of the Assembly, the presiding vice-speaker and the deputies, the history and common past of Turkish nation, the Constitutional order indicated in the first four articles of the Constitution, and making definitions conflicting with the administrative structure set forth in the Constitution on the basis of integrity of the Republic of Türkiye with its territory and nation.

4. During the debates, to encourage or incite public or state forces, or public organs, institutions, and officials to unlawful acts, riot, or disfunctioning of the provisions of the Constitution,

5. Entering into the Plenary and Committees of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye with arms,

6. Committing an unlawful act in the premises of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye,

7. Making an assault.

Consequences of the penalty of temporary exclusion from the Assembly

ARTICLE 162- Penalty of temporary exclusion from the Assembly may be issued for three sessions at most.

The penalty shall immediately be executed. If the deputy subjected to the penalty resists the execution of the penalty, the Speaker immediately closes the sitting and requests the quaestors to order him/her out.

The deputy subjected to the penalty shall not participate in proceedings of the Plenary, the committees, the Bureau and the Board of Spokespersons during his/her penalty.

Defence, apology and pay cut in disciplinary penalties

ARTICLE 163- The Plenary decides on penalties of reprimand or temporary exclusion from the Assembly upon the proposal of the Speaker by show of hands, without debate.

The deputy proposed to be subjected to such a penalty has the right to defend himself/herself or to substitute a deputy to do so.

Penalties of reprimand or temporary exclusion from the Assembly are recorded in the summary of minutes.

A deputy subjected to the penalty of temporary exclusion from the Assembly shall regain the right of attending the Assembly starting from the following session if he/she, after having the permission, explicitly apologizes at rostrum.

One-month salary and one-third of the travel allowance is cut from the deputy who is reprimanded, and one-month salary and two-thirds of the travel allowance is cut from the deputy who is sentenced to temporary exclusion from the Assembly.²

Disciplinary penalties are also applied to deputies of the President of the Republic and ministers.

PART FOURTEEN

Security Services

Security measures

ARTICLE 164- The Speaker has the responsibility to make arrangements and take the measures concerning the external and internal security of the buildings, gardens and lands that belong to the Assembly.

The assigned security force is solely under the command of the Speaker.

Prohibition of carrying arms

ARTICLE 165- Entering the premises of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye with arms is forbidden. This provision shall
